THE UNIVERSITY

HISTORY

Concordia University opened its doors on Nov. 18, 1894, with one professor, a dozen male students and a three-year high school curriculum. Concordia has since grown into a fully accredited, coeducational university which has granted more than 22,000 degrees and certificates. Concordia, Nebraska is a member institution of the Concordia University System (CUS) of the Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod (LCMS).

Concordia Teachers College was the institution's name from 1924 until July 1, 1998, when the institution became Concordia University. For much of the time between 1974 and 1998 the institution used the name Concordia College, although the name was not official.

STATEMENT OF MISSION AND COMMITMENTS

Concordia University is a coeducational institution of higher learning committed to the Christian growth of its students. Concordia is an excellent academic and Christ-centered community equipping men and women for lives of learning, service and leadership in the church and world.

This goal is accomplished through degree programs in professional education and the liberal arts. In addition, Concordia's faculty, staff and students are committed to service to the church and community and to scholarly activity and research. These programs and activities are set forth in an explicit value system that has as its core faith in Jesus Christ as the Son of God and only Savior of the world, commitment to the Holy Scriptures as the communicator of that faith and commitment to the Lutheran Confessions as a true exposition of the Scriptures.

Concordia's programs promote intellectual, emotional, physical and spiritual growth. They nurture religious commitment, enlarge social and cultural understanding, provide insights for Christian action in the world and facilitate the ability to communicate effectively. The programs provide an opportunity for intelligent selection of vocations for service to God, church and society, and they are designed to develop the professional competencies and commitment required for responsible participation and leadership in a complex and diverse society.

SETTING

Concordia's campus covers nearly 120 acres and features more than 25 academic and service buildings. Because Concordia draws the majority of its students from outside Nebraska, residence hall living and student activities play prominent roles in shaping students' total educational experience. Concordia has 11 residence halls, a student center, athletic fields for intercollegiate and intramural sports and an abundance of open space for informal recreational activities. During the 1999–2000 academic year the 65,000 square-foot Thom Leadership Education Center was placed into service and was dedicated in the fall of 2000. The Osten Observatory was added to campus in 2002. During the spring of 2006, a new apartment-style residence hall was constructed and a Sprinturf synthetic playing surface was installed in the stadium. During 2008–2009 Concordia added the Walz Human Performance Center, a facility that will have a positive impact on thousands of students, faculty and other constituents every year for generations to come.

The Dunklau Center for Science, Business, and Math opened in 2019–2020 with 86,000 square feet of new lab, classroom, and collaboration space including a complete renovation of the existing Science building. This project and its continuing operation was fully funded by gifts so no student tuition or fees are used to pay for construction or operation expenses.

Seward is an ideal home for Concordia University. The town's 7,220 people welcome students into their community, and many local businesses provide jobs for students. The campus is within walking distance of downtown shops, eating establishments and a movie theater. St. John Lutheran Church and The Rock Lutheran Church serve as home churches for many faculty and students. St. John Lutheran School and the Seward Public Schools serve as prime cooperating schools for Concordia's teacher education students. Seward is just six miles from Interstate 80 and 24 miles west of Lincoln, the state capital and home of the University of Nebraska's main campus. A trip to Omaha takes roughly 75 minutes.

ACCREDITATION

Concordia University, Nebraska is accredited by The Higher Learning Commission, a Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. (The agency may be contacted at 1-800-621-7440 or www.hlcommission.org). Concordia is approved by the Nebraska State Board of Education through the Committee of Educational Examiners of the Nebraska Council on Teacher Education for the preparation of elementary, secondary, early childhood and special education teachers. The teacher education programs are accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education. The music programs are accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music. The music therapy program is approved by the American Music Therapy Association. The College of Business and Technology at Concordia University, Nebraska has received specialized accreditation for its business programs through the International Accreditation Council for Business Education (IACBE) located at 11960 Quivera Road, Suite 300, Overland Park, Kansas, USA. For a list of accredited programs click here. The majority of Concordia's programs are approved by the Nebraska State Department of Education for veterans and other persons eligible for VA benefits.

ADMISSION

STATEMENT OF NON-DISCRIMINATION

As a matter of policy, Concordia University admits students of any age, race, color and ethnic origin. Admitted students enjoy the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally offered to all Concordia students.

Further, Concordia University does not discriminate according to age, race, color, sex and national and ethnic origin in administering admissions and educational policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs.

The university does not discriminate against handicapped persons regarding student admission or worker employment, and provides university activities and programs to all who qualify.

These guidelines do not limit Concordia's admission policies. The university may give preference to applicants in one of the following categories:

A. An applicant from any member congregation of The Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod or an applicant who is a child of a person from a synodical congregation or

B. An applicant from a congregation of a Lutheran church body other than the Missouri Synod or an applicant who is a child of a person from a congregation of a Lutheran church body other than the Missouri Synod.

FRESHMAN APPLICANTS

Freshman class applicants may begin sending materials after the conclusion of their junior year of high school. A transcript with a record of grades through the junior year, a General Education Diploma (GED), or a state's equivalent of a GED, is required for acceptance. Since the university uses a rolling admission process, students are encouraged to submit an application as soon as possible, along with a transcript. Students with a cumulative GPA below 3.0 must submit their ACT or SAT scores for admission. Students with a cumulative GPA above 3.0 do not have to submit their ACT or SAT scores for admission.

Applicants admitted for each term are required to submit an enrollment fee of $200 in order to continue the admission process. The enrollment fee will hold space in a residence hall, and will entitle the student to preferential registration for courses by a freshman advisor. Students must also submit health forms.

To be admitted as a freshman student, the applicants should be graduates of accredited high schools. Normally they should have at least average or better grades, rank in the upper half of their class, and have average or better test scores. A high school transcript must be submitted. Applicants who do not meet the minimum entrance requirements may be asked to submit additional material for evaluation by Concordia officials.

Applicants can be accepted for admission as regular students without all official transcripts submitted through the first term of their attendance. All official high school transcripts are to be submitted to the college prior to the start of the second term to continue as a regular student. If all official transcripts are not submitted the student will not be able to register for classes or receive financial aid for the following term.

Concordia is a member in good standing of the National Association of College Admission Counselors and subscribes to its Statement of Principles of Good Practice for High School and College Admissions Counselors.

RECOMMENDED HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAM

Requirements for admission are graduation or its equivalent with 16 units or 160 semester hours. Even though no definite courses are required, students are encouraged to plan a comprehensive college preparatory program in high school which includes the following:

- Art
- English, four years
- Mathematics, three years
- Modern Foreign Language (Two years of study in the same modern foreign language)
- Music
- Physical Education
- Science (biology, chemistry and physics)
- Social Studies, three years

TRANSFER APPLICANTS

If the student is in his or her first semester of college and is applying for the upcoming term, a student's application may be reviewed after the student submits final high school transcripts (and ACT or SAT scores, if required – see Freshman Applicants, above). The applicant must submit official transcripts from all colleges or universities previously attended. If a student has fewer than 24 transferable credits, a high school transcript, General Education Diploma (GED), or a state's equivalent of a GED is also required for admission review. Applicants normally must have a minimum cumulative college grade point average of 2.00. Higher grade point averages may be necessary where program admission requirements warrant it. After matriculation only those grades in course work attempted at Concordia in Seward are used to compute the cumulative grade point average.

Traditional transfer students will have a free transcript evaluation done of courses taken at another institution to determine the transferability of credit. This evaluation will be done by the Office of the Registrar.

Applicants admitted for each term are required to submit an enrollment fee of $200 in order to continue the admission process. Final high school transcripts, a GED, or a state's equivalent of a GED must be submitted in order to continue as a regular student. Completion of health forms is also required.

Applicants can be accepted as regular students without all official transcripts submitted through the first term of their attendance. All official transcripts are to be submitted to the university prior to the start of the second term to continue as a regular student. If all official transcripts are not submitted the student will not be able to register for classes or receive financial aid for the following term.

After admission to Concordia, transfer students in teacher education, pre-seminary, and director of Christian education programs must make application for admission to the appropriate program before registering for classes during their second semester at Concordia.

TRANSFERRING CREDIT

Concordia will ordinarily accept successfully completed credit from regionally accredited two-year and four-year institutions which parallels a course requirement in the student's educational program at Concordia subject to the provisions below. Only courses with a grade of C- or above will be accepted for transfer credit.

Educational experience gained by a student while in the military service is evaluated according to the recommendation of the American Council on Education. Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard service members may request an official military transcript from the Joint Services Transcript website at <https://jst.doded.mil>. Air Force personnel may request an official transcript from Air University at <http://www.airuniversity.af.mil>.

Under no circumstances will a student be allowed to apply more than 70 hours of credit from a two-year college toward completion of a four-year program of studies.

Students who seek a bachelor's degree must complete a minimum of 30 semester hours in residence. 12 hours must be at the 300 & 400 level and 15 hours must be in the student's major. For students in an education program this must include at least one semester of professional education coursework and their student teaching and methods courses.

Students seeking a bachelor's degree must complete at least half of the course work in their major at a four-year institution which would be designated by the institution as 'upper-level' or be the equivalent of required courses on this campus. Students who wish to obtain their bachelor's degree from Concordia but who opt to complete their program on another campus must receive prior approval of all courses to be considered as part of their program for meeting Concordia graduation requirements.

No grades from other institutions will be computed in the cumulative grade point average (GPA). Other grade averages, such as those in a major or a program, will be computed according to the policy of the appropriate department or program committee.

Additional transfer credit guidelines are located on the university website.

RE-ENROLLMENT

Former students of Concordia who wish to re-enroll should contact the Admission Office.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Concordia realizes the importance of intercultural understanding as part of preparing students for their place in the world. International students from a number of different countries bring a global perspective - contributing valuable insights and experiences in the classrooms, on campus, and within the Concordia and Seward community.

International Student Applicants

An international student is a citizen of a country other than the United States who requires an F-1 visa to come to the U.S. to engage in academic studies here. International students must be able to comply with the provisions of the Certificate of Eligibility to study in the U.S., Form I-20.

All international admission is handled by the Concordia Admission Office.

To meet admission requirements, the international student must:

- Complete the online application.
- Provide high school transcripts and evaluation report. Request to have high school transcripts sent to Concordia. If the transcript is not in English or not from an American international school, provide an evaluation report to verify credentials, degree, and U.S. equivalencies. A comprehensive or course-by-course report is required. An evaluation may be obtained from International Credential Evaluations (InCRED) at incredevals.org/students, World Education Services (WES) at wes.org, or an approved transcript evaluation provider.
- Take an entrance exam. Take the ACT or SAT College Entrance Exam or a National Standardized test and have scores sent to Concordia. Visit ACT.org or collegeboard.com to find nearby testing sites for the ACT or SAT.
- Provide English language proficiency scores. Non-native English speakers must provide proof of proficiency in the English language. Students must take one of the following to demonstrate proficiency:
  - TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) IBT Test with a score of 78 or above;
  - IELTS (International English Language Testing System) with a score of 6.0 or above;
  - English3 Proficiency Test (E3PT) with a score of 65 with a minimum of 15 in each of the four areas of Speaking, Reading, Listening and Writing;
  - Duolingo with a score of 100 or above.
  - Information on the above tests is available at ets.org/toefl for TOEFL, ielts.org for IELTS, english3.com for E3PT, and Englishtest.duolingo.com

Once accepted, all new international students need to complete additional steps before they can come to the U.S. or begin studies at Concordia:

- Submit Visa Status form
- Submit Transfer form (if transferring from another U.S. college or university)
- Submit Financial Understanding and Agreement form, and notarized bank letter to prove financial support that will meet the total educational and living expenses for the first year of study.

- Submit Sponsor Support Statement and notarized bank letter (if receiving additional financial support from other friends or family or agency)
- Pay enrollment fee to Concordia.
- Receive I-20 form from Concordia.
- Pay the SEVIS I-901 fee, apply for F-1 visa, and comply with other U.S. entry procedures.
- Arrange for medical insurance coverage per Concordia's guidelines.
- Pay first semester tuition and fees by August 1st, or set up a monthly payment plan by August 1st.

Admission details can be found at:

<https://www.cune.edu/international-students/undergraduate-international-student>.

Intensive English Program

Concordia provides an Intensive English Program (IEP) for students who need to improve their English language skills before entering university study. This program is also available for individuals who want to improve their English language skills but do not plan to continue with university studies.

<https://www.cune.edu/international-students/undergraduate-international-student/intensive-english-program>.

Pathways Programs for International Students

Concordia also offers a Pathways program for international students who meet academic standards for admission but their English language scores are below what is required for standard undergraduate admission. Students take a combination of IEP courses and general education courses to build their language skills to prepare for admission into a full course of undergraduate study.

Being an International Student at Concordia

Opportunities abound for international students at Concordia University as they are able to join with students who come from across the United States and many other countries to learn with each other and from each other. Once enrolled, international students work with the Director of Global Opportunities to maintain their student status to stay in the U.S. to study. Students are able to meet with the Director if they have questions on medical insurance coverage, traveling here or abroad, working on campus, or other issues related to life in the U.S. or maintaining their international student status.

STUDENT LIFE

STUDENT COMMUNITY LIFE

Beyond books and classrooms, the Concordia University experience expands through learning and growth in residence halls, in campus activities and elsewhere within the university setting. Opportunities for personal growth and maturing abound within Concordia's Christian environment.

Students work and play as they relate to each other, striving to live in harmony through mutual understanding and respect.

Also, students admitted to Concordia are considered as having accepted the Christian educational philosophy outlined in the Student Handbook.

To improve students' educational experiences, Concordia University responsibly maintains Christian standards of conduct among its students.

As a private institution, the university reserves the right to withhold or to suspend the enrollment of any student.

WORSHIP AND SPIRITUAL LIFE

The spiritual life activity at Concordia, Nebraska is centered on word and sacrament ministry in the form of worship and Bible study. Daily chapel services are the foundation of Concordia's worship life with weekly Holy Communion, contemporary and traditional services, and student, faculty, and staff involvement.

Students have many other opportunities to nurture their faith, including student-led evening prayer, evening praise services, home and residence hall Bible studies. Many student groups and athletic teams have devotions and prayer events for their members.

HOUSING

An important part of the growing process happens outside the classrooms in the residence halls. Through the residence experience, students come to insights about themselves and learn respect and consideration for others as well as the value of close friendships. All full-time students, except married students, those pursuing graduate and advanced studies, those living with parents and those single students who are older, are required to room at the university.

VEHICLES

Students who bring automobiles and motorcycles to campus have parking facilities available for their use. All students are required to register their vehicles. There is no charge for registering a vehicle.

ACTIVITIES

A wide range of activities is available to students. The social activity program, under the direction of the student activities council, provides a variety of activities throughout the school year.

A large number of campus organizations give students opportunities to develop their talents and abilities to offer service to others. These activities help students "live out" many of the values expressed in formal classroom instruction. Christian education seeks to provide flexible variation.

Student publications, lyceum programs and campus organization activities provide opportunities for students to examine their own values and to interact with others in a framework of Christian living.

Concordia also offers athletic competition in 20 intercollegiate sports. In addition, intramural activities are offered to all students.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student government is considered a vital program of the educational community. Through Student Senate, students are able to express opinions, voice objections and make positive recommendations about their educational community. Responsibilities for various phases of campus life rest with the branches of student government.

STUDENT SERVICES

Services and Counseling

The student life office and the student activities office promote students' personal and interpersonal development according to university guidelines.

General personal counseling is available from both the counseling office and the chaplain's office. A full range of referral services is available through these offices.

Career planning services are available from the Director of Career Planning and Retention. Assistance in career choices and alternatives as well as job-seeking techniques is provided.

Health Services

Student health services are available in the health center. A registered nurse is on duty Monday through Friday. The local community has a well-equipped and fully staffed medical clinic and hospital with emergency facilities within walking distance of the campus.

Academic Advising

Upon admission each student is assigned an academic advisor. Freshmen students are assigned an advisor who will assist them with registrations and monitor their progress. During the second semester freshmen will select an advisor in their program or academic major.

Students are ultimately responsible for following academic policies and procedures, meeting deadlines, monitoring their progress for meeting degree requirements and knowing and completing all the requirements of the program in which they are enrolled.

Additional information is located at:

<https://www.cune.edu/today/students/academic-support/advising>.

Academic Resource Center

As a means of maximizing the learning and achievement of all students, Concordia University provides academic support in a number of ways.

Located in Link Library, the Academic Resource Center (ARC) provides tutoring in the form of individual and group study sessions for particular courses. Please check the ARC website at www.cune.edu/arc for the current tutor schedule, as well as other resources. In addition, individual sessions to explore strategies for time management, study skills, note taking, test taking, and composition are available. The Writing Center offers support in the writing process through face-to-face sessions. These services are available to all Concordia students at no charge. All students are encouraged to explore new learning strategies which will enhance their education.

Weekly meetings with students are offered to conditionally admitted students or students on academic probation. This lends support to those students who need extra help.

Disability Support Services

Concordia University, in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, does not discriminate in the recruitment, admission, or treatment of students. Students with documented disabilities are legally entitled to request modifications, accommodations, or auxiliary aids that will enable them to have access to, participate in, and benefit from all postsecondary programs and activities.

The Rehabilitation Act defines an individual with a disability as a person who:

1. has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of the major life activities of that person;
2. has a record of such impairment, or
3. is regarded as having such as impairment.

A student with a disability who wants to receive accommodations should, as a first step, contact the Academic Resource and Disability Support Services Coordinator at Concordia University and identify him/herself as disabled, indicating what accommodations he/she is seeking. The student will then be asked to provide supporting documentation of the disability so that a reasonable accommodation plan may be devised and implemented. The coordinator will provide individual consultations and discuss reasonable accommodations. The contact information for the DSS Coordinator is:

Suzanne Showers
Office Phone: 402-643-7187 or 800-535-5494 ext. 7187
Email: suzanne.showers@cune.edu
More information is also located at www.cune.edu/ada.

The contact information for the 504 Compliance Officer is:

Andreea Baker
Office Phone: 402-643-7224
Email: andreea.baker@cune.edu

Concordia University Copyright Compliance Policy

Grounded in the U.S. Constitution, copyright law grants protection to original works of authorship fixed in a tangible means of expression. That includes just about anything that is written, recorded, built, or crafted, whether published or unpublished. It even covers websites and the images on them. If you want to use, sample, or make a copy of all or part of a work created by someone else, you need to first determine how copyright law applies to your situation. Using something for a class assignment does NOT automatically make it "fair use".

Concordia's full copyright policy is on the library's copyright page: <https://cune.libguides.com/copyright/>. There you find tools to help figure out whether your intended use is "fair" and learn how to locate resources that are free to use.

International Students

The Director of Global Opportunities works with all international students, ensuring that government requirements are met, academic studies progress smoothly, and that every student is acclimated to the community and culture of Concordia, Nebraska and the United States. For contact information and other resources available for international students, please visit www.cune.edu/admission/international. Students are also encouraged to see the Director of Global Opportunities for more information.

Synodical and Career Services

Career development is an integral part of services offered to all Concordia University students. Synodical church work candidates are assisted with opportunities for positions into the ministries of the church. These ministries can be anywhere in the United States and several foreign countries. The designated call process is used for all Synodical calls.

Public education and liberal arts students are assisted with the development of credential files, resumes or portfolios; provided information about utilizing the many avenues available to search for jobs and assisted with development of interviewing skills. Career fairs and employment opportunities are posted. Counseling services are available for those students who are undecided about their career choice. Students seeking credit for an internship experience should inquire about the process and opportunities at the career planning office.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Concordia University strives to keep its charges reasonable while maintaining proper educational standards and providing for a student's daily needs. Since costs of operation can change quickly, fees and charges are subject to adjustments. Application for admission or readmission signifies acceptance and agreement with fees and policies stated in this catalog.

FEE PAYMENT POLICY

All students are to pay their balance due by the drop/add deadline (Monday of the second week of each semester). Refer to the Student Financial Services webpage for more information: The balance due is defined as total charges, less all financial aid that has been confirmed by the office of financial aid.

Students may pay the balance due either in one payment for the semester, or use the monthly installment payment plan available by early application. There is an additional fee for the use of the installment payment plan. For information about the program go to www.cune.edu/sfs.

Students who do not pay their balance due or make acceptable arrangements by the due date will be charged a late payment fee and a student accounts hold will be placed on the student's account. Students with a student accounts hold are unable to register for future courses, receive a transcript or receive their diplomas until their financial obligation has been satisfied. All fees are to be paid in United States currency.

Return Policy of Title IV Funds for Recipients of Federal Funds

Federal regulations require each institution of higher learning to have a written policy for the refund and repayment of aid received by students who withdrew from all classes during a term for which aid had been received. Please refer to <https://www.cune.edu/today/students/academic-support/academic-policies/policy-return-financial-aid-received-through-title-iv-funds> for further information.

Assistance and subsidy from synodical districts, congregations, individuals or federal programs may also be returnable to the programs.

FINANCIAL AID

Meeting the cost of a college education can be a challenge. We understand the commitments students and their families make in order to gain the benefits of a Concordia education. Concordia's staff will make every effort possible to assist you with financial aid information, to facilitate the financial aid application process, and to secure and award appropriate scholarships, awards grants and loans faithfully.

Concordia Financial Aid Programs

Concordia administers a broad array of financial aid from institutional, federal, state and private programs. Both need and non-need-based financial aid options are available. Many families combine two or more of these options to help manage their financial obligations. Once a student is accepted to Concordia and all forms are completed, an electronic Financial Aid Award Notification is sent out that provides a complete listing of all financial aid eligible to the student.

Need-based financial aid options are available to students who demonstrate financial need. Financial need is the difference between the estimated cost of attendance for school and the Expected Family Contribution (EFC). The EFC is based upon the information the family provides on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Factors such as income, assets, family size and the number of family members attending college full-time are considered in determining a family's EFC.

The FAFSA serves as the official application for institutional, state, and federal need-based financial aid. Based upon a thorough review of the FAFSA, Concordia will calculate the student's financial need and then determine the student's need-based financial aid. Renewal of need-based financial aid requires completion of the FAFSA annually.

Non-need based financial aid options are available to students without the requirement to demonstrate financial need. Students that are accepted to Concordia will be automatically eligible for all non-need-based aid.

Types of Financial Aid

Various types of financial aid are administered by Concordia:

1. Institutional scholarships, awards and grants consist of non-need-based aid such as academic, performance, and athletic scholarships and awards; and need-based grants based on demonstrated financial need from filing the FAFSA annually. All institutional aid is automatically renewable up to eight consecutive semesters if requirements are met. Extension to renew beyond eight semesters will be determined on an individual basis. Institutional aid is only available to full-time undergraduate students.
2. Federal grants consist of Federal Pell Grants, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (FSEOG), and TEACH grants. To be eligible for federal grants the student must show demonstrated financial need by filing the FAFSA annually, must be a U.S. citizen or an eligible non-citizen, and may need to meet certain academic requirements.
3. Education loans are available to students and parents to provide them with funding after all other financial aid options have been reviewed. Concordia participates in the U.S. Department of Education's William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Program which provides students and parents access to the Federal Direct and PLUS loan programs. Also available are credit-based loans from private sources. Unlike other financial aid such as scholarships, awards and grants, loans are borrowed money that must be repaid with interest.
4. Student Employment opportunities, including those offered through the need-based Federal Work–Study Program, are made available to assist students in meeting some of the costs related to college attendance.
5. Additional sources of financial aid may be available to students from sources outside of Concordia. They include LCMS district aid; congregational aid; private scholarships from employers, professional organizations and community groups; and ROTC scholarships (see section on ROTC).

To qualify and maintain eligibility in all financial aid programs provided by the university, the student must maintain Satisfactory

Academic Progress as defined by federal regulations administered by the U.S. Department of Education. Please refer to cune.edu/SAP for further information.

VETERAN'S BENEFITS AND TRANSITION ACT OF 2018

- Policy for Students Utilizing VA GI Bill® Education Benefits

Consistent with the Veterans Benefits and Transition Act of 2018, Section 3679 of title 38, United States Code, Section 103, Concordia University, Nebraska will not impose any penalties due to the delayed disbursement of a payment by the U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs on recipients of Chapter 31 and Chapter 33 VA Benefits. Concordia University will permit any covered individual to attend or participate in the course of education during the period beginning on the date on which the individual provides Concordia University a certificate of eligibility for entitlement to educational assistance under chapter 31 or 33, and ending on the earlier of the following dates: 1) The date on which payment from the VA is made to the institution or 2) 90 days after the date the institution certified tuition and fees following the receipt of the COE (Certificate of Eligibility).

Additionally, Concordia University will not require that a covered individual borrow additional funds, on any covered individual because of the individual's inability to meet his or her financial obligations to Concordia University due to the delayed disbursement of funding from the Department of Veterans Affairs under chapter 31 or 33. A Covered Individual is any individual who is entitled to educational assistance under chapter 31, Vocational Rehabilitation, or chapter 33, Post 9/11 GI Bill® benefits, and has been verified by the school certifying official as benefit eligible. This requirement is limited to the portion of funds paid by VA.

GI Bill® is a registered trademark of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). More information about education benefits offered by VA is available at the official U.S. government website at www.benefits.va.gov/gibill

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

GENERAL ACADEMIC STANDARDS

Academic Ethics

The Concordia community values high academic and ethical standards. Each faculty member is committed to model academic honesty and Christian ethics. Students are expected to respond with the same commitment.

Curriculum Changes

Since curriculum development and improvement is a never-ending task, and may even result from causes outside of the control of the university, changes in programs may occur while a student is registered at Concordia. However, unless the change announcement specifically states to the contrary, students will not be bound to meet requirements established by such changes. Rather, they may follow the catalog requirements of the year they matriculated at Concordia. Students whose progress toward a degree has been irregular or interrupted for three years meet requirements stated in the most recent catalog. Programs may also be altered in individual cases as a result of proficiency tests, advanced placement tests or a program of credit by examination.

Students accept full responsibility for meeting all requirements for graduation. Specifically, the university reserves the right to withhold the granting of a degree or its evidence (such as transcripts) until all financial obligations have been met.

Attendance

All Concordia students are expected to attend all classes and laboratory periods for which they are registered. Circumstances may occur that make attendance impossible or inadvisable. In those cases, ruling on the validity of excuses is the responsibility of the individual instructor.

Student Classification

A regular full-time undergraduate student at Concordia University is one who has satisfied the entrance requirements, has been admitted to the university, and carries at least 12 semester hours of undergraduate credit per semester. The student is eligible to participate in the total activity program of the university and to officially represent the institution.

Undergraduate students are classified academically according to the amount of college credit earned:

Freshman: below 28 semester hours

Sophomore: at least 28 but less than 58 semester hours

Junior: at least 58 but less than 90 semester hours

Senior: 90 or more semester hours

A part-time student is one who has satisfied the requirements for admission to the university and enrolls in fewer than 12 semester hours of undergraduate credit.

Academic Honors

Term: Concordia University recognizes academic achievement each semester by awarding term honors to students earning a semester GPA of 3.90 or higher providing they completed 12 or more credit hours graded on the traditional (A–F) scale, received no incompletes or had no unrecorded grades at the time honors were determined.

Graduation: Members of the graduating class are recognized for academic excellence at two levels. “With High Distinction” is earned by the top 10% of each college and “With Distinction” is earned by the next 15%. High Distinction will require a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.75, while Distinction will require a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.50. Graduates of the College of Education, Health and Human Sciences, and the College of Arts and Sciences are recognized separately. Transfer students are eligible for graduation honors if they have completed 64 or more hours at Concordia University, Nebraska.

Participating in Commencement Exercises

Concordia University holds commencement exercises each May on the Saturday of the end of the spring term. All graduates who have completed their degree requirements since the last ceremony are encouraged to attend and participate.

Students with six or fewer credit hours remaining in their program may also participate if they have made arrangements to complete their remaining requirements by the end of that summer’s term and have the permission of the University Provost.

Registration for Courses

Registration of students is conducted on the days scheduled by the Registrar’s Office. Registration holds will be placed on students until satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Student Financial Services Office for payment of tuition and fees. The following points are to be considered in registering for a program:

1. Lower-level courses are numbered 100–299 and are normally taken by freshmen and sophomores. Upper-level courses are numbered 300–499 and are normally reserved for registration of juniors and seniors. Graduate courses are numbered 500 and above.
2. A lower-level student may, with the approval of an advisor, register for upper-level courses if the student is in the second semester of the sophomore year and has met the prerequisites as designated in the catalog course descriptions, or, because of unusual pre-college preparation is equipped to take advanced courses in certain prescribed areas.
3. A normal course load for a full-time student is 15-16 semester credit hours. Students may register for as many as 18 semester hours if they demonstrate the capability to carry a heavier course load and meet grade point average requirements as established by faculty policy. Additional tuition is charged for loads over 18 hours. Conditionally admitted students and students on academic probation are limited to the number of credit hours established by the terms of their enrollment.
4. One semester hour is normally equivalent to one 50-minute period of class recitation or lecture per week for 15 weeks. Two hours of study time should be reserved for each class meeting.

5. End of Drop/Add date is the last date for course enrollment in a given term. No changes in course registration may be made after the end of Drop/Add date.

Academic Credit Hour

One hour of undergraduate academic credit represents approximately 1 hour of instruction or instructional activities per week or 15 hours of instruction or instructional activities over the course of an academic module or term. Students can expect to devote a minimum of 45 hours of work for each 1-credit hour, as mandated by the U.S. Department of Education. Instruction and instructional activities may include but are not limited to: lecture, discussion and activities, readings, written or spoken projects, internships, practicum, labs, lab prep, review sessions, mediated discussion, media presentations or simulations.

Grading System

A system of grade points is used to determine a student's standing for graduation, for transfer, or to establish status in the various programs of the university. In its marking system Concordia employs letter grades, with pluses and minuses, with the following grade point values:

Grade	Points per Credit
A	4.00
A-	3.67
B+	3.33
B	3.00
B-	2.67
C+	2.33
C	2.00
C-	1.67
D+	1.33
D	1.00
D-	0.67
F	0.00
W	0.00*
I	0.00

*W equals 0.00 points, withdrawn without penalty, not computed in grade point average.

**I equals 0.00 points, Incomplete, not computed in grade point average.

Course work to be credited toward graduation or program status must reach a minimum cumulative grade average specified by individual program requirements. The cumulative grade point average includes only grades of all courses attempted at Concordia in Seward.

DEFINITION OF GRADES

A The student has demonstrated an excellent mastery of the material and has met the objectives of the course in an excellent manner.

B The student has demonstrated a commendable mastery of the material and has met the objectives of the course in a commendable manner.

C The student has demonstrated a satisfactory mastery of the material and has met the objectives of the course in a satisfactory manner.

D The student has not demonstrated a satisfactory mastery of the material, but has met the objectives of the course in a minimal manner.

F The student has failed to master the material or meet the objectives of the course.

INCOMPLETES

An instructor may assign an incomplete if extraordinary circumstances prevent a student from completing a course during a term. Incompletes must be removed by 30 days after the start of the subsequent fall or spring term or the incomplete automatically becomes an 'F'.

WITHDRAWALS

A student may drop a course without financial penalty until the day designated as the last day to add or drop for each term. A student who wishes to withdraw from a course after the last day to add or drop must secure the prior approval of the advisor and course instructor on a withdrawal form, to be filed with the registrar. When a student withdraws from a course with proper approvals, the permanent record will show a grade of W (Withdrawal). The last date for withdrawal from semester classes is the Wednesday of the 12th week of the semester.

Students who stop attending a course and do not complete the withdrawal process will receive a failing grade of record. Students are responsible for filing their withdrawal forms with the registrar.

Students who wish to withdraw from the university are to notify their advisors and secure the approval of the Director of Advising and Retention Management.

REPEATS

A student may elect to repeat any course. The highest grade will be used in determining GPA. All grades will be included on the transcript.

FAILURES

PASS/NO RECORD AND PASS/FAIL

Students may choose to take courses Pass/No Record (P/NR) when the courses are not required in the student's general education, major, minor, or other program. (Some courses are only offered P/NR and are not subject to this rule). Courses ordinarily offered for a letter grade but elected P/NR count toward the 120 hour graduation requirement as free electives. The student's GPA will not be affected by a course taken as P/NR. A passing grade will result in successful hours of credit.

Some courses are only offered Pass/Fail. This is not an elected option. A failing grade will adversely affect the student's GPA. A passing grade will result in successful hours of credit.

Academic Standing

A student must ordinarily maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 (C) for continued enrollment leading to the receipt of a degree. (Requirements for specific programs may be higher and set by the colleges and/or programs.)

Academic standing is determined by the Office of the Registrar, normally within the first week after the end of each fall and spring semester. The student's academic standing will continue unchanged through the next fall/spring semester in which a student is enrolled. Summer, transfer, or other coursework completed during that time does not change a student's current academic standing. Courses graded as "Incomplete" at the time academic standing is determined are not considered as credit earned.

A student receives a scholastic warning if his/her grade point average is below 2.00 (C) for a given semester or if the student earns less than 12.00 but a minimum of 9.00 credit hours in a given semester.

A student is placed on academic probation when his/her cumulative grade point average is below 2.00 (C) or if he or she has completed less than 9.00 hours in a given term. A student on academic probation:

- A. is not considered to be in "good standing" for the purposes of external reporting.
- B. is eligible for athletic teams and campus activities subject to conference rules and policies. Concordia University officials may place restrictions on individual students as part of that student's academic support plan.
- C. may be released from academic probation by completing 12.00 or more semester hours in a given semester and achieving 2.00 (C) cumulative GPA. If the student is placed on academic probation in a subsequent semester, s/he is subject to dismissal.
- D. is required to schedule meetings with the Academic Guidance Counselor and with his/her advisor.
- E. may not be eligible for financial aid as determined by external financial aid regulations.

A student must have a semester grade point average of 2.00 (C) each semester after he or she has been placed on academic probation to be eligible for registration. If the student fails to achieve a 2.00 (C) cumulative GPA after one semester of probation, he or she may be subject to academic dismissal by the Provost.

Conditionally admitted students are considered to be on academic probation during their first semester of attendance. If they meet the conditions of their admission, they are fully admitted and are not considered to have been on academic probation in any subsequent determinations of academic standing.

For cases in which a student earns less than 12.0 GPA points in a semester, the student may be subject to immediate dismissal by the Provost in consultation with academic advising and other appropriate parties. The decision to immediately dismiss a student will not be taken lightly, but will be made in the best interests of the student and the University.

Record Policies

PRIVACY OF EDUCATIONAL RECORDS

Concordia's policy relating to the confidentiality of student records is in keeping with the regulations of the State of Nebraska and the laws of the United States. Copies of the complete statement may be obtained in the offices of the Provost or the Student Life Office.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These rights include:

1. The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the University receives a request for access. A student should submit to the registrar, dean, chair of the academic department, or other appropriate official, a written request that identifies the record(s) the student wishes to inspect. The University official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the University official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.

2. The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes is inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student's privacy rights under FERPA. A student who wishes to ask the University to amend a record should write the University official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record the student wants changed, and specify why it should be changed. If the University decides not to amend the record as requested, the University will notify the student in writing of the decision and the student's right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

3. The right to provide written consent before the University discloses personally identifiable information from the student's education records, except for where FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. These exceptions may include:

- a. School Officials who have a "legitimate educational interest."
- b. Other Institutions
- c. Audit or Evaluation of Federal or State education programs
- d. Financial Aid
- e. State and local officials pursuant to statute concerning juvenile justice
- f. Organizations conducting studies
- g. Accrediting Organizations
- h. Judicial order or subpoena
- i. Health and Safety
- j. Disciplinary Hearing Results

4. The right to notify the University in writing if the student does not want any or all of the information designated as directory information. The University has designated the following as directory information:

- Student's name
- Participation in officially recognized activities and sports
- Address
- Telephone listing
- Weight and height of members of athletic teams
- Electronic mail address
- Photograph
- Degrees, honors, and awards received
- Date and place of birth
- Major field of study
- Dates of attendance
- Grade level
- Enrollment Status
- The most recent educational agency or institution attended

5. The student has the right, on request to the appropriate University official, to review all materials that are in the student's education records, except:

- a. Financial information submitted by the student's parents.
- b. Confidential letters and recommendations associated with admissions, employment or job placement, or honors, to which the student has waived rights of inspection and review.
- c. Education records containing information about more than one student, in which case the University will permit access only to that part of the record that pertains to the inquiring student.

6. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the University to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA is:

Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20202-5901

TRANSCRIPTS

Academic transcripts are issued by the Registrar's Office and may be requested through the Concordia University Transcript Ordering Portal at <http://transcripts.cune.edu>, provided all financial obligations have been met. Transcripts will be withheld until the student's account is cleared.

Students requesting transfer credit from another institution should send an official transcript directly to Concordia.

Prior to enrolling for credit at another institution, students should check with Concordia's registrar to ensure the credit will transfer and will apply correctly to the student's degree.

E-Mail Communication

All Concordia e-mail accounts exist to advance the mission of the institution and are supported in their totality by Concordia University. E-mail use supports, directly and indirectly, a corporate educational effort and the accounts are not considered personal property. All those who teach at Concordia will have an officially-issued e-mail account that students and others at the university can reasonably expect to be used.

Students are required to use their issued CUNE email address. A student's CUNE email address is one of the official means for university communication (along with a student's campus mail box and permanent address) and their instructors will also have the expectation that these e-mail addresses can and will be used for communication with a student. The university expects faculty, staff, and students to check e-mail on a frequent and consistent basis and to respond in a timely fashion. As a general rule students and colleagues can expect that e-mail will be checked on any day an instructor is in class.

DEGREES, DIPLOMAS AND CERTIFICATES OFFERED

Bachelor's Degrees

Concordia University offers the following undergraduate degrees: Bachelor of Science in Education, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Music, and Bachelor of Fine Arts. The conferral of a degree is dependent upon the completion of the specific degree requirements and a minimum of 120 semester hours of credit with a minimum cumulative grade average of "C" (2.00) or the minimum grade average specified by individual program requirements (if higher). A minimum of 30 semester hours (12 of which must be at the 300 & 400 level and 15 of which must be in the student's major) must be taken in residence. A second bachelor's degree requires the completion of an additional 30 semester hours (a minimum of 150 hours).

TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAMS

The Lutheran Teacher Diploma

The Lutheran Teacher Diploma is available to students who are currently members in good standing of a congregation of The Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod. This diploma is granted to students who have met all requirements for the teacher education program, have completed the Lutheran Teacher Diploma coursework, are eligible for a teaching license in the State of Nebraska, and have been certified by the faculty as qualified to begin service as called members of the Lutheran teaching ministry. Students wishing to receive the LTD must apply to the program and complete its requirements as a part of the baccalaureate degree. This diploma qualifies the student for minister of religion status in The Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod.

All students receiving the Lutheran Teacher Diploma are required to take a minimum of six hours of upper-level (300 or 400 level) theology courses on campus. (See specific course requirements under Bachelor of Science in Education Programs.)

The Christian Teacher Diploma

The Christian Teacher Diploma is granted to students who have met all requirements for the teacher education program, have a teaching degree, and are eligible for a teaching license in the State of Nebraska. Students seeking this diploma have indicated an interest in serving as teachers in Christian schools that are not associated with the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. Students wishing to receive the CTD must apply to the program and complete its requirements as a part of the baccalaureate degree. All students receiving the Christian Teacher Diploma are required to take a minimum of nine hours of theology or philosophy courses on campus. (See specific course requirements in the Christian Teacher Diploma section of each program.)

Teaching Ministry Colloquy Program

The university offers a program for teachers who are not commissioned by The Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod and who wish to be commissioned and listed on the LCMS roster. Candidates for this program must complete seven religion and Christian teacher courses after which a comprehensive written exam is taken followed by an oral interview. Courses can be taken on campus any time the courses are offered, or the candidate may transfer up to three courses from any other Concordia University or the CUENet online system.

Candidates who 1) are a member of an LCMS congregation, 2) have a B.S./B.A. in education, 3) are at least 25 years old, and 4) have taught in a Lutheran school for at least one year may apply to Concordia University's Office of Colloquy Program for entrance into the program.

The application process requires the applicant to 1) complete an application to Concordia University, Nebraska, 2) complete an application to the Colloquy Program, 3) submit the names for five recommendations, and 4) send Concordia an official transcript of their higher education history.

The courses required for completion are:

- REL 121 History and Literature of Old Testament
- REL 131 History and Literature of New Testament
- THEO 251 Interpretation of Pauline Epistles
- THEO 361 Christian Doctrine I
- THEO 362 Christian Doctrine II
- EDUC 362 Teaching the Christian Faith
- THEO 381 Christian Teacher's Ministry

Teacher Certification

Concordia maintains an office to assist graduates in securing a teaching certificate. The Dean of Education is authorized to recommend qualified candidates for any of the teaching certificates for which they are eligible. That office provides applications, institutional recommendations and transcripts, and initiates the transactions with the various state education departments.

All teacher graduates who apply for certification on or after August 1, 1989, must satisfactorily complete a prescribed admission and exit examination. Information regarding the test is available in the office of the Dean of Education.

A Bachelor of Science in Education degree must be completed with at least 30 semester hours in residence in order to be eligible for a teaching certificate. The teaching certificate authorizes the graduates to teach in specific states in whatever teacher education program areas they have completed. Certification is not automatic. Each graduate must apply to receive a teaching certificate. Certification by the State of Nebraska requires completion of courses in human relations and special education.

DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION PROGRAM

The DCE Certificate

Concordia awards a DCE certificate to all LCMS graduates who have completed the DCE admission process, CEL major, foundational major, DCE certification requirements and all other graduation requirements for a baccalaureate degree. This certification entitles a graduate to receive a call as a DCE and to be placed on the Commissioned Minister Roster of The Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod.

DCE Specialist Diploma

The DCE Specialist Diploma program is designed for those who have completed a bachelor's degree without DCE certification and may be serving in a DCE role in a congregation or working in an unrelated field. The process for this graduate certification includes:

1. Formal application to the DCE program.
2. Interview with faculty members.
3. Coursework in Christian education, theology and psychology as determined through interview.
4. An internship of one year.
5. Recommendation and endorsement by faculty.

For further information, contact the Department of Christian Educational Leadership.

BACHELOR'S TO MASTER'S PROGRAM

Departments may establish accelerated Bachelor's to Master's programs in which qualified undergraduate students are allowed to take graduate courses that count toward undergraduate majors while earning credit toward a graduate degree. Current programs include Business Administration, Education, Public Health, School Counseling, Healthcare Administration and Athletic Training (via Concordia University, Wisconsin).

Application to the program may be made after a student has earned 75 undergraduate credit hours. To begin the program, students must have completed at least 90 hours of undergraduate credit and have a GPA of at least 3.33. Students may take no more than 6 hours of graduate hours per semester, and register for no more than 15 total hours per semester. Students may count no more than 12 hours toward requirements in both graduate and undergraduate programs. Students may earn no more than 18 total graduate hours while an undergraduate.

Specific academic departments may also have their own policies. For more information and application contact the department chair of the respective program area.

DIRECTOR OF PARISH MUSIC PROGRAM

The Director of Parish Music Certificate

This certificate is granted to all students completing the academic and other requirements of the program and a Bachelor of Music degree with a major in Church Music. Certification entitles the graduate to receive a call as a Director of Parish Music and be rostered as a minister of religion in The Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod.

LUKE SCHOLARS PROGRAM

The Luke Scholars Program is Concordia University Nebraska's honors program. Grounded in the Liberal Arts and Concordia's Promises of a Lutheran Education, the Luke Scholars Program aims to cultivate students of high potential and great will into capable servants and intellectual stewards, mindful of the gifts with which they have been blessed and conscious of their duty to serve and lead.

Luke Scholars take 18 hours of courses during their time on campus consisting of an introductory course, "Becoming a Luke Scholar," three seminars and a capstone. Luke Scholars courses are specially designed for the program and are often interdisciplinary. Many Luke Scholars courses also meet other requirements. The typical course sequence is as follows:

Becoming a Luke Scholar I (Fall 1 st Year)	3
Scholars Seminar (Spring 1 st Year)	3
Scholars Seminar (F or S 2 nd Year)	3
Scholars Seminar (F or S 3 rd Year)	3
Luke Capstone (F & S 4 th Year*)	6
Total	18 Hours

*Students who are graduating in less than four years, those who study abroad, and education students who will be student teaching during their senior year can work with the program director to modify their course sequencing and timing.

Application to the program is open to all graduating high school students regardless of their choice of major. Students with ACT scores of 28 or better and high school GPA's of 3.85 or higher are strongly urged to apply. To apply, students must complete an application after which time they will be contacted for a phone interview. Within the application students will also be asked to provide the names of two academic references.

Luke Scholars will be held to high academic and moral standards. Scholars must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.5 or greater in their major and attain a 3.5 GPA each term overall. In addition, scholars cannot receive any grade below a C in any course or earn less than a B in a Luke Scholars course. Scholars are also expected to be academically honest and to live lives free from campus infractions. Finally, scholars are expected to exhibit the values of the program at all times. Failure to live up to these standards may result in dismissal from the program.

For participating in the program Luke Scholars receive:

- Free books/materials in Luke Scholars courses
- Access to the Luke Scholars Library
- Tuition waivers for course overloads
- $250 in research funds
- Supplemental study travel stipends of $500
- Recognition of having completed the program on their transcripts

SPECIAL COURSE OPTIONS

Individualized Study

Honors courses are available to highly capable senior students. Reading courses can be designed for self-study with consultation. An independent study, a regular course taken through self-study and consultation, can be arranged when approved. Independent study courses are assessed an additional fee (see Financial Information section).

Advanced Placement and CLEP

Concordia will award college credit to students receiving certain scores on Advanced Placement (AP) and College Level Examination Program (CLEP) exams. Current AP and CLEP accepted scores are posted online. Contact the registrar for further details.

International Baccalaureate

Concordia University awards transfer credit to incoming students who have completed individual International Baccalaureate (IB) courses or the full IB Diploma. Concordia considers both Standard and High Level scores for credit on a course-by-course basis and also guarantees at least 24 but not more than 32 hours of credit to students who complete the IB Diploma program. A guide to the number and type of credits awarded for individual IB courses is posted online. Contact the registrar for more information.

Audit of Courses

Full-time undergraduate students (those registered for 12 or more hours of courses) may audit up to four hours of courses without paying additional fees, provided that no student wishing to take the courses for credit shall be refused admission to the course because of excessive enrollment. The student must either meet all prerequisites for the course or receive special permission from the instructor to enroll. Instructors may close courses to audits. In addition, instructors may also require attendance, stipulate readings, and establish other standards of performance for auditing students.

Applied music courses may not be audited. Audits in excess of four hours by full-time students and all audits by part-time students will be charged the audit rate (see financial information). All audits done by students during special terms (summer session, one-week intensive courses) will be charged the audit fee.

Specially Arranged UNL Courses

Students in Business-Agribusiness, Geography and Spanish programs may be eligible for enrollment in courses at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln via an arrangement between the universities. Contact the Registrar's Office for more information.

Credit-by-Examination

Individual departments may offer academic credit to students who have proficiency in an area and successfully complete a Concordia credit-by examination. The awarding of credit procedure is outlined in university policy and applicable fees apply for the test and recording of credit. Contact the Registrar's Office for more information.

Tutorial Assistance

The Academic Resource Center coordinates a program of peer tutors for students seeking assistance in their course work. These tutors, provided at university expense, are available to assist students with understanding specific subject matter within their courses. Writing tutors can provide students with writing support for all stages of the writing process. Some tutors are also available to assist with the preparation for certain standardized tests, required of all teacher education students.

Concordia University System Exchange

Students may study for a semester at any one of Concordia Seward's sister institutions: Ann Arbor, Chicago, Mequon, Austin, Irvine, and St. Paul. Acceptance is determined by the host institution and not guaranteed. Contact the Registrar's Office for application and eligibility information.

High Impact Practices

Concordia University is committed to incorporating "High Impact Practices" into its curriculum and the overall university experience. High Impact Practices are activities and experiences that help students, faculty, and staff engage in learning that goes beyond traditional classroom experiences. These may take place in the form of concentrated academic projects, internships, capstone courses, research, diversity/global learning, and community-based learning. High Impact Practices offer the potential to change a person's self-perception and worldview through intense experiences in substantive matters that cause one to rethink his or her place and purpose in the world.

International Study, Service and Mission Opportunities

GLOBAL OPPORTUNITIES

Concordia University is committed to equipping its students for leadership, service, and learning in the world. Through international experiences, students can discover firsthand more about a different part of the world, augment a program of study with an on-site plunge into language and culture, or expand their worldview beyond their hometown.

The Global Opportunities Center is a one-stop location (200 Faculty Lane) for information on international study, service, and mission opportunities. Concordia students should contact the Director of Global Opportunities for more information on any of the international experiences listed below.

INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL AND STUDY TOURS

Students are able to experience another country through short-term travel and study tour activities.

- Some opportunities may be off-site course offerings where registration in a course for credit is required.
- Other opportunities are available for the travel and cultural experience (independent study credit optional).

- These experiences typically are led by Concordia faculty for one to two weeks during winter, spring or summer breaks.

STUDY ABROAD

A student may spend a semester in another country, taking a full course of study and immersing themselves in the culture. The student remains enrolled at Concordia to participate in an approved off-campus program.

Summer programs provide shorter opportunities for students to study abroad and gain credit for one or more classes. The general process is as follows:

- A student meets with the Director of Global Opportunities to determine study abroad programs that fit their program of study, to pick up application materials, and for guidance through the process.
- The student also visits with their academic advisor to determine how the study abroad courses will be credited to their program.
- A student applying to study abroad must be a student in good standing at Concordia.

INTERNATIONAL MISSION OR SERVICE-LEARNING EXPERIENCES

Short-term opportunities are available where mission outreach or service to (and with) people in another country is the primary focus.

- Opportunities are sponsored by Concordia faculty, area churches, mission organizations, or student groups.
- Past projects have included working with children, youth and adults in Bible school activities, English as a second language instruction, sports camps, medical mission outreach activities, and disaster related rebuilding efforts.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT TEACHING

Opportunities are available for student teaching at Lutheran international or Christian schools in places like China, Vietnam, Panama, Hungary, Slovakia, Ecuador, or Australia. Education students must apply a year in advance of their professional semester.

INTERNATIONAL VOCATIONAL OPTIONS AFTER GRADUATION

A number of Concordia students apply for and have taken positions in global settings after graduation. These options include the Fulbright US Student Program, serving as a missionary with LCMS World Missions or Mission of Christ Network, serving with the Peace Corps, or teaching ESL abroad.

GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

The Education Program at Concordia University, Nebraska strives to prepare candidates who demonstrate Christ-like attributes and who will serve as educational leaders in Lutheran, parochial, private, and public school classrooms and parish education programs of our church and our world.

This program prepares candidates to serve as professional educators in the schools of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, public schools and other private and parochial schools.

The Education Program includes the transmission of essential knowledge and the development of dispositions (attitudes) and skills needed to work in diverse schools and congregations, both nationally and internationally. Concordia's programs combine theory and practice to provide a foundation for 21st century educators who grow from novice to master teacher and leader. Education programs include Early Childhood Inclusive Education, Elementary Education, Middle Level Education, Secondary Education, K-12 Education and Special Education with additional endorsements available.

The TESOL (Teaching English to Speaker of Other Languages) major is specifically designed for non-education majors (who are not interested in obtaining state K-12 teaching certification) preparing the student to teach ESL in international contexts or in adult ESL programs in universities, refugee centers, or community centers in the United States. The student majoring in TESOL is equipped to teach through foundational courses in education and intercultural studies, as well as a range of courses specifically geared to train the TESOL major to teach English as a Second Language. In addition, the TESOL major participates in a second language learning experience of his/her own, a process which enhances the TESOL major's practical knowledge and experience with second language acquisition. A practicum in teaching ESL rounds out the TESOL major's experience by providing hands-on opportunities to work with ESL students.

In addition to the TESOL major, the program offers a minor (for non-education majors), a subject concentration and a supplemental endorsement (for elementary education majors), and a subject endorsement (for secondary education majors). See the BSED program for information on the ESL elementary endorsement and ESL supplemental endorsement.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN EDUCATION

See Bachelor of Fine Arts and Bachelor of Music for additional education opportunities.

GENERAL POLICIES

Details of Education Department policies and procedures may be located in the Education Program Handbook, which is available from the department.

Nebraska Teaching Certificate

The undergraduate Education programs at Concordia University are approved by the Nebraska Department of Education and lead to the Teaching Certificate from the State of Nebraska. All those who complete an undergraduate Education program at Concordia are prepared to teach in public schools.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

Concordia prepares Christian educators who equip people of all ages in congregations for their ministries in various contexts. The focus in preparation is on the individual as instructional leader, educator, consultant, administrator, care action minister, and researcher. Director of Christian Education (DCE) certification is an option for individuals who are members of an LCMS congregation and seeking designation as a DCE within the LCMS.

ADMISSION INTO DCE PROGRAM

Students with sophomore or junior standing are provisionally admitted into the DCE program after meeting the following requirements:

1. Completion of an application form, recommendations, and personality instruments
2. Minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.50
3. Successful completion of an interview with a faculty screening committee
4. Minimum theology and CEL major grade point average of 2.75.

APPROVAL FOR DCE INTERNSHIP

Students who have been provisionally admitted and have junior or senior standing are fully admitted into the program and approved for the DCE internship after successful completion of the following:

1. Minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.50
2. Minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.75 in CEL major and theology course work
3. Successful completion of at least a semester of CEL 480, Practicum in DCE Ministries
4. Interview with the director of DCE Ministries and successful completion of assigned learning goals.

APPEAL PROCESS

If a student wishes to appeal the decision relative to admission to the program or approval for internship, a written appeal may be addressed to the Commissioned Ministers and Education Programs Appeal Committee through the Undergraduate Council within three months of the decision to deny admission. Any student who is not satisfied with the decision of the appeal committee may appeal directly to the president of Concordia University.

RECOMMENDATION FOR PLACEMENT AS A DCE

Faculty approval of students for DCE placement is based upon their having:

1. Maintained a 2.50 GPA in all courses counted toward graduation
2. Maintained a 2.75 GPA in the CEL major/theology courses
3. Successfully completed CEL 481 DCE Internship

4. Obtained their advisor's recommendation on the placement form.

CEL CURRICULAR OPTIONS

The following curriculum options have been developed by the faculty of Concordia. Students choosing the internship option (required for DCE students) require at least five years of course work, one of which is the year-long, off-campus internship. Flexibility for the student is a key component of the program.

Students must choose one of the following options:

CEL+BS in Education (Elementary, Middle Level, Early Childhood, or Secondary)

CEL+BS in Education (Elementary, Middle Level, Early Childhood, or Secondary) + CTD

CEL+BS in Education (Elementary, Middle Level, Early Childhood, or Secondary) + LTD + DCE

CEL+BA (with additional major in Theology, Psychology or Behavioral Science and optional emphasis)

CEL+BA+DCE (with additional major in Theology, Psychology or Behavioral Science and optional emphasis)

1. General Education

All majors are to be supplemented with the general education curriculum, supplemental requirements and, if necessary, additional electives to total 120 or more hours.

2. CEL Major

Self-Designed Emphasis (15 hours)

A student may choose to design an individualized emphasis. The emphasis must meet the following criteria:

1. The emphasis must be at least 15 hours of upper-level coursework (300 or 400-level).
2. The emphasis must be directly applicable to the DCE program's roles and sub-roles.
3. The student must submit a written rationale for the emphasis, stating how it fits traditional DCE ministry roles and including a list of the proposed coursework.
4. The emphasis must be approved in writing by the DCE Program Director, the student's advisor, and the chair of the academic department housing the majority of the emphasis courses.
5. A minimum of 50% of emphasis hours must be taken at CUNE.
6. No more than three semester hours can be applied to the emphasis prior to the formal approval of the emphasis.
7. A copy of the approved plan of study must be filed with the Registrar's Office.

DCE SPECIALIST DIPLOMA PROGRAM

ADMISSION

The student must have a 2.75 grade point average and must maintain this average for successful completion of the program.

PURPOSE

The DCE Specialist program is designed for those students who have completed their undergraduate coursework and are only seeking DCE certification. Courses taken for graduate credit may also be applied toward a master's program.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

A. Admission to the Program

1. Students must have a bachelor's degree.

(Persons without an education degree may need additional education courses.)

2. Students must submit the following admissions materials:

- a. Undergraduate transcript of grades
- b. DCE Specialist application form
- c. Three recommendations (one from home pastor or DCE)
- d. 1,000-word autobiographical statement
- e. Qualifying interview approval letter

3. After the admission materials are submitted, students will complete an admission interview on the Concordia campus. Following the interview, students will be given several learning goals and the proposed plan of study will be developed.

B. Course Requirements

1. Must have completed a minimum of 27 hours of theology or their equivalent in the following areas: Biblical—12 hours (REL 121, 131, an interpretation course, Theo 450); Doctrine—9 hours (THEO 361, 362, 489); Practical—6 hours (THEO 385, 482; CEL 487).

2. Must complete other course requirements as outlined in the proposed plan of study. It is likely that the remaining courses will not exceed 21 hours beyond those required in No. 1.

3. Internship in a parish for one year (unless extensive prior experience suggests a shorter internship) for 30 credit hours or equivalent parish experience.

NOTE: Undergraduate courses will not count toward a graduate degree.

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS & TECHNOLOGY

The business and mathematics programs consist of, at a minimum: general education, a major and selected electives to total 120 semester hours. Concordia requires 30 extra credit hours (150 total hours) for a second degree. All students, regardless of their major, must have at least a 2.00 average in the courses in their major in order to graduate with that major.

The business or mathematics student selects a degree objective: Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science. Only one degree of each type may be earned. Within the chosen degree, the student selects one (or more) majors from the corresponding lists below.

Minors are available to all students. Minors are not available in an area similar to student's major. The College of Arts and Sciences and the College of Education, Health and Human Sciences offer additional minors.

PAUL H. & MARY ANN KOEHLER DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS

The business administration program is designed to prepare men and women for positions of leadership and responsibility in the business community. The program develops Christian ethical values, provides a broad exposure to the liberal arts and equips students with the analytical, interpersonal and communication skills needed for success in business.

The business administration program is offered in two modalities: 1) on-ground format for primarily traditional students; and 2) fully online format for non-traditional adult students. There are different admissions requirements for each modality that can be found in the Admission section of the catalog. Traditional on-ground students have the option to earn a B.A. major in business administration, or a B.S. major in business administration, accountancy, marketing, management information systems or business communication. Non-traditional online students have the option to earn a B.S. major in business administration with a concentration either in accounting or communication.

The business administration majors are excellent preparation for graduate work in a business discipline or for a wide range of positions in both the profit-seeking and not-for-profit sectors. The larger B.S. major provides more depth, whereas the smaller B.A. major allows students to pursue another liberal arts major or minor, or to more easily complete requirements for other programs. The accountancy major equips individuals for professional accounting careers or for advanced study in public accounting and other related fields. The marketing major prepares students for careers in fields such as advertising, marketing, promotions, public relations, and sales management. The management information systems major is a balanced program of business and computer science courses that prepares individuals for computer-related jobs within a business environment. The business communication major is designed for students who are interested in careers in business writing, media relations and management, advertising, and organizational interaction.

Students in the traditional on-ground degree programs of B.S. in Accountancy, B.S. in Business Administration, and B.S. in Management Information Systems degree programs; or the non-traditional online program of B.S. in Business Administration, who meet the university's bachelor's to master's program criteria and are approved by the business department, are allowed to take Master of Business Administration courses that count toward their undergraduate major while earning credit toward an MBA degree. Students must work with an advisor to create and maintain a bachelor's to master's program plan of completion.

All degrees require the completion of the general education curriculum, supplemental requirements and, if necessary, additional electives or coursework to total 120 or more hours.

Related options within Teacher Education include the Business, Marketing and Information Technology field endorsement (Secondary). All requirements for the Bachelor of Science in Education and teacher certification must also be completed.

DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE & MATHEMATICS

The computer science program is designed to provide students with an excellent background to successfully meet current and future challenges in computer-related fields and in many other areas that involve computer applications and technology. The program provides students with a broad background incorporating a strong fundamental foundation with an emphasis on practical applications of theoretical concepts.

The computer science program offers students an opportunity to pursue either a B.S. or a B.A. degree in computer science. The B.S. degree requires a strong background in mathematics and is intended to provide a program that prepares our graduates to be top candidates for a wide variety of professions or to be excellent candidates for graduate work in computer science. The B.A. degree in computer science is intended to provide a complete program in computer science for students who may have interests or strengths in areas other than mathematics and will prepare the students for many of the same opportunities as provided by the B.S. degree as well as prepare them for employment involving computers in fields outside of computer science.

Related options within Teacher Education include the the Information Technology Elementary Endorsment and the Information Technology Supplemental Secondary Endorsement. All requirements for the Bachelor of Science in Education and teacher certification must also be completed.

The goal of the mathematics program is to provide the student with a foundation in the mathematical sciences. Both Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees are offered. The B.S. degree allows the student more electivity to design a program of study to match the particular interests of the student. Upon graduation the student may continue studies in mathematics or a related area at the graduate level or pursue a career in a mathematics-related area. Some of these related areas include computer science, applied statistics and actuarial science.

All degrees require the completion of the general education curriculum, supplemental requirements and, if necessary, additional electives or coursework to total 120 or more hours.

Related options within Teacher Education include the Mathematics concentration (Elementary), Mathematics content teaching area (Middle Level), and the Mathematics field endorsement (Secondary). All requirements for the Bachelor of Science in Education and teacher certification must also be completed.

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

The liberal arts programs seek to provide the student an opportunity to make an intelligent selection of vocational goals for service to God and mankind; to study for effective Christian citizenship in all areas of life; and to develop the traits required for Christian leadership, involved community living, and meaningful world membership.

All liberal arts students, regardless of their major, must have at least a 2.00 average in the courses in their major in order to graduate with that major.

The liberal arts program consists of, at a minimum: general education, a major and selected electives to total 120 semester hours. Concordia requires 30 extra credit hours (150 total hours) for a second degree.

The liberal arts student selects a degree objective: Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Music or Bachelor of Science. Only one degree of each type may be earned. Within the chosen degree, the student selects one (or more) majors from the corresponding lists below.

*Students may select 18 hours of courses. Must submit a written rationale for course selection to the chair of major department and/or department most represented by minor; must be approved by advisor, appropriate department chair, and dean. At least 9 of the hours must be 300 level or higher. A maximum of 6 hours may be used from general education or major area. A maximum of 9 hours may be transferred from another 4-year accredited university. The minor will not lead to a licensed endorsement or certification not currently offered at Concordia. A copy of the minor must be filed with the Registrar's Office and will appear on transcripts as an appropriately named minor.

Minors are available to all students. Minors are not available in an area similar to student's major. The College of Education, Health and Human Sciences and the College of Business and Technology offer additional minors.

DEPARTMENT OF ART

The art program offers four areas of study leading to four areas of specialization: art education, art therapy, ecclesiastical art, graphic design and studio art. The art education program prepares students to teach art at the elementary and/or secondary levels and equips them to be leaders in the classroom, in the congregation and in the community. Concordia offers a Bachelor of Science in Education (BSED). (Related options within Teacher Education include the Art concentration (Elementary) and Art (K-12) field endorsement. All requirements for the BSED and teacher certification must also be completed.)

The art therapy program prepares students seeking to apply to graduate school in art therapy and provides a quality foundation for students to use the creative process to help people of all ages improve their health and emotional well-being. Concordia offers a B.A. in art therapy. The graphic design program prepares students for a career or further study in the field of graphic design involving skills in conceptualization, visualization, communication, layout, illustration, typography, and digital imaging. Concordia offers a B.A. and a B.F.A. in graphic design. The studio art program prepares students seeking to apply to graduate school in studio art and provides a quality foundation for students pursuing careers as fine artists or in related fields such as museum work or post-secondary teaching. Concordia offers a B.A. and a B.F.A. in studio art.

All degrees require the completion of the general education curriculum, supplemental requirements and, if necessary, additional electives or coursework to total 120 or more hours.

BACHELOR OF FINE ARTS

Concordia University offers the Bachelor of Fine Arts (B.F.A.) degree in studio art and graphic design or illustration. The B.F.A. is the preferred undergraduate degree for those intending to enter professions in art and design. Its emphasis is on the development of skills, concepts and sensibilities essential to professional artists and designers. The purpose of the program is to prepare professional artists and designers, whether in the role of commercial artist or studio artist. Whether as creators, scholars or teachers, they must have technical competence, knowledge of art history, an understanding of artistic style, and insight into the role of art and design in peoples' lives.

In order to enter the BFA program in studio art, a student must complete the foundations sequence of the art curriculum with a minimum GPA of 2.67 and must pass a portfolio review.

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY, GEOGRAPHY, INTERCULTURAL STUDIES AND MODERN FOREIGN LANGUAGES

The Spanish major builds a student's verbal and written Spanish communication through language and grammar practice. Students will receive an overview of Spanish-speaking cultures through study of literature and history. This major is designed for the student who wishes to pursue ministry or a career in a Spanish-speaking country or with Spanish speakers in the United States. See the Bachelor of Science in Education (BSED) program for information on the Modern Foreign Language elementary concentration, Spanish content teaching area (Middle Level), and Spanish secondary subject.

The world and intercultural studies major is a cross-disciplinary degree that gives students a unique perspective on the world. Students are equipped with foundational core courses - plus courses chosen from a concentration to focus on interests, ideas, and issues that are most important or relevant to the student. An experiential capstone course rounds out this program.

- World and Intercultural Studies Core      27 Hours
- Concentration area      12 Hours
- Concentration electives      6 Hours
- Capstone Experience      3 Hours

This 48-credit hour major is designed for students with interests in international service, communication, world or domestic missions, language, or cultural studies. This major reinforces Concordia's mission to serve diverse populations in the church and world.

For additional options related to Modern Foreign Languages see the Bachelor of Science in Education program for the American Sign Language elementary endorsement, American Sign Language supplemental endorsement, and the Mandarin/Chinese secondary subject endorsement.

The Modern Language requirement can be fulfilled by participating in a Concordia approved study abroad program. Languages other than those offered at Concordia can be taken abroad to fulfill general education global multicultural course credits. See the Director of Global Opportunities for details on the campus study abroad process and approved study abroad program offerings.

For Teacher Education options related to History and Geography see the Geography secondary subject and the History secondary subject. (All requirements for the BSED and teacher certification must also be completed.)

All degrees require the completion of the general education curriculum, supplemental requirements and, if necessary, additional electives or coursework to total 120 or more hours.

AGRICULTURAL SCIENCE

Agricultural Science provides the knowledge, skills and experience to:

- Professionally communicate concepts and processes of production, processing and distribution of agricultural products.
- Be Christian stewards of all of agriculture and all of agricultural resources in their chosen vocation.
- Become Christian leaders in solving problems in agriculture in their local and/or global community.

Graduates can choose to go into a career directly related to their agricultural degree, such as owning or managing a farm or ranch or working as a soil scientist or plant geneticist. Some graduates may wish to work in agricultural sales selling seed, equipment, fertilizer, feed, or crop or livestock protection insurance. Others may choose careers related to feed, food, fuel and related industrial products research and development. A degree in agriculture can also prepare graduates for work in agricultural or natural resources communications as a print or broadcast journalist or in agricultural marketing. Because of the general nature of the agriculture degree, as well as the hands-on experience earned through classes and internships, graduates will be prepared for many different agricultural career opportunities.

BIOCHEMISTRY

The study of biochemistry is the study of life at its most fundamental level. Using chemical principles to solve biological problems can illuminate an incredible amount of knowledge about the world. The biochemistry program blends biology and chemistry by using molecular principles to investigate essential processes in living systems.

The biochemistry degree combines the fundamental aspects of biology, chemistry, mathematics, and physics in interdisciplinary collaboration. Upon graduation, the student with a degree in biochemistry will have a broad background in the natural sciences and prepared for a variety of post-graduation options, including research positions and graduate studies in biochemistry, professional health disciplines, and biotechnology. The program includes electivity to allow the student to tailor the program to their specific interests. Note that some elective choices have prerequisites not included in the program requirements.

* Biology Electives:

Any course with a BIO subject may count towards a biology major EXCEPT: BIO 110, BIO 207, and BIO 371.

- At least one additional Biology course at the 300+ level.
- Any of the following courses may be used in the major: CHEM 116, 325, 331, 345, 346, 347, GEOG 361, HHP 395, SCI 230, 231, 330, or 490.
- At least 12 hours of electives must be BIO courses or CHEM 345, 346, 347.

Biology is a flexible major that can lead to a number of different employment opportunities depending on your area of interest. If you are interested in one of the following areas here are some courses you should consider taking (some courses may be appropriate for more than one interest area).

CHEMISTRY

The goal of the chemistry program is to educate and train chemists for work in industry, business, law, academia and the health professions. Upon graduation, the student with a baccalaureate degree in chemistry may pursue employment in a research, synthetic, or quality control chemistry laboratory in academia, industry or government. The student may also pursue graduate or professional studies in any area of chemistry, the physical sciences, or the biomedical sciences.

The curriculum leading to a Bachelor of Science in chemistry is designed to provide an in-depth study of the field of chemistry. This program is particularly suited for those individuals who wish to pursue graduate work in the chemical, physical or the biochemical sciences.

The curriculum leading to the Bachelor of Arts degree is designed to provide more electivity in the major and is particularly suited for individuals who wish to have a second major (such as biology) and/or attend medical school, law school, pharmacy school or any other professional school upon completing their chemistry degree.

Related options within Teacher Education include the the Chemistry Subject (Secondary). (All requirements for the Bachelor of Science in Education and teacher certification must also be completed.)

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE/STUDIES

The environmental science program is designed to equip students with the knowledge and skills for careers or continuing education in environmental science fields. The program is intentionally diverse, providing students with an understanding of the economic, social, scientific, and political factors influencing environmental decision making. The purpose is to produce students with the breadth of knowledge and skills to pursue a variety of careers in environmental science. The curriculum leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree in Environmental Science includes a set of core courses plus one of four emphases while the Bachelor of Arts in Environmental Studies includes only the core courses.

PHYSICAL SCIENCE

The physical science majors are designed to enable students to pursue careers or further study in areas combining physics, chemistry, and mathematics. These majors are particularly suited for students interested in moving into interdisciplinary scientific fields, such as astronomy or meteorology, or into science-related fields such as science writing or patent law. The program provides students with a strong foundation in the conceptual and technical aspects of the sciences, with an emphasis on the connections and relationships among chemistry and physics. Students in the program have the option to earn a B.A. major in physical science studies, a comprehensive B.A. in physical science, or a B.S. in physical science. The B.A. majors are excellent preparation for entry into careers in science-related fields, while the B.S. major provides the more rigorous treatment and mathematical depth appropriate for a career or graduate study in an interdisciplinary scientific discipline. Options available to the student in the B.S. program involve a choice of increased work with advanced laboratory experiments and techniques, a stronger emphasis on chemistry, or a stronger emphasis on physics.

Related options within Teacher Education include the the General Science elementary concentration, Science content teaching area (Middle Level) and the Science Field endorsement (secondary). (All requirements for the Bachelor of Science in Education and teacher certification must also be completed.)

Classical Liberal Arts

The interdisciplinary Classical Liberal Arts minor offers a traditional and rigorous engagement with premodern languages and cultures. At Concordia, this course of study encourages the classical pursuit of what is good, true, and beautiful, considered within the light of Christian revelation. A minor in the Classical Liberal Arts educates students in foundational sources, and it serves as a stepping stone for life-long learning.

PRE-SEMINARY PROGRAM

Concordia's pre-seminary program prepares students for admission to a theological seminary, where further studies may be pursued leading to the ordained pastoral ministry. A bachelor's degree is required for admission to most seminary programs. Concordia's pre-seminary program is designed to coordinate specifically with the Master of Divinity (ordination track) program of both seminaries of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS); those seminary programs include four years of post-baccalaureate education (three years of classroom work plus one year of vicarage internship). While designed chiefly with the LCMS student in mind, students of other denominations may profitably participate in many facets of Concordia's pre-seminary program (such students are encouraged to investigate the admission requirements of the seminary associated with their particular interest or denomination).

Concordia's pre-seminary program is rooted in the liberal arts tradition and includes an emphasis in the biblical languages of Greek and Hebrew (LCMS seminaries require biblical language proficiency), along with a background in philosophy and the humanities.

PROGRAM ACADEMICS

Concordia's pre-seminary program offers great flexibility to students at the university to participate in a variety of programs and majors that may suit their particular interests. The program includes ten core courses (34 hours) that will prepare the student well for further seminary training and eventual pastoral service. The pre-seminary core courses are in the following areas:

Greek (14 hours)

Course Number/Title	Credit Hours
GRK 101 Greek I	4
GRK 201 Greek II	4
GRK 301 Greek III	3
GRK 401 Greek IV	3

Hebrew (11 hours)

Course Number/Title	Credit Hours
HEB 101 Biblical Hebrew I	4
HEB 201 Biblical Hebrew II	4
HEB 301 Biblical Hebrew III	3

Philosophy (6 hours)

Choose any PHIL prefixed course (PHIL 311 & 312 recommended):

Course Number/Title	Credit Hours
PHIL 311 History of Philosophical Thought I	3
PHIL 312 History of Philosophical Thought II	3

Public Speaking (3 hours)

CTA 211 Public Speaking	3

It is highly recommended that students not begin the pre-seminary core of courses until they have completed their first year in residence at Concordia. Transfer students should consult with the pre-seminary program director to determine the beginning of their enrollment in the pre-seminary core of courses. The above core courses may not be taken on a Pass/No Record basis by students within the pre-seminary program.

Since the pre-seminary program does not constitute a major within a specific academic program, the above core of courses may be taken in conjunction with any other degree program and/or major offered at Concordia.

Pre-seminary students at Concordia participate in a wide variety of degree programs, including elementary education, middle level education, secondary education, director of Christian education, business administration, computer science, etc. Adding the pre-seminary core of courses may increase the number of hours in a program beyond the 120 minimum hours required for graduation. Historically, the majority of pre-seminary students have graduated with a Bachelor of Arts/Liberal Arts degree; virtually every liberal arts major has been pursued and proven beneficial in some manner for the pastoral ministry.

ADMISSION INTO THE PROGRAM

There are two levels of admission: provisional and formal.

1. Students apply for provisional admission into the pre-seminary program after completion of 16 hours in residence at Concordia (and in any case, before the end of the first year study). Applications are available from the pre-seminary program director. Provisional admission indicates a student's intent to prepare for seminary studies and initiates provision of services through Concordia's pre-seminary director.
2. Students apply for formal admission into the pre-seminary program during their second year of residence at Concordia. Transfer students entering with more than 32 hours of credit are to apply before the end of their first semester in residence. Formal admission into the program makes a student eligible to receive the pre-seminary church worker scholarship grant offered by Concordia during the junior and senior years of study. To qualify for formal admission into the program, students must:
  - A. have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.50
  - B. submit a completed application form prior to the published deadline
  - C. successfully complete an admission interview with the pre-seminary program director.

DISMISSAL FROM THE PROGRAM

Students may be dismissed from the pre-seminary program for the following reasons:

1. have a cumulative GPA fall below 2.50 for two consecutive semesters
2. fail to make progress toward completing the pre-seminary core of courses

3. engage in conduct incompatible with biblical standards associated with the office of the public ministry (see 1 Tim. 3:1-7 and Titus 1:5-9)
4. dismissal from the university.

APPEAL PROCESS

Students denied formal admission into the program or dismissed from the program may appeal that decision. Appeals must be submitted in writing to the university provost within 15 days of the decision to deny admission or the decision to dismiss from the program. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the university provost, a further appeal may be made to the university president. There is no provision for appeal beyond the university president.

PROCESS FOR SEMINARY RECOMMENDATION

Students applying for admission to an LCMS seminary are required to obtain a letter of recommendation from the university president. Favorable recommendations will be granted to students who:

1. have been formally accepted into the pre-seminary program and retain good standing within the program
2. have made substantial progress toward completing the pre-seminary core of courses
3. receive a positive endorsement from the pre-seminary director
4. indicate by their past academic performance the ability to complete their prescribed course of study.

Exceptions to these criteria are made on a case-by-case basis by the university president in consultation with the pre-seminary director.

PRE-DEACONESS PROGRAM

The pre-deaconess program is designed to provide interested students the opportunity to earn a Bachelor of Arts or Science degree in preparation for graduate education leading to certification as a deaconess. The student who completes the pre-deaconess program will have a broad-based liberal arts education which will include an academic major of her choosing supplemented by a core of classes designed to provide a theological/sociological base for further study at the seminary level.

All degrees require the completion of the general education curriculum, supplemental requirements and, if necessary, additional electives or coursework to total 120 or more hours.

PRE-PROFESSIONAL STUDY

Careers in a number of professions may be started at Concordia. A student interested in gaining admission to professional schools such as those listed below should work with their advisor to select courses and follow procedures most helpful in achieving this goal.

The following list includes courses of study in health professions and graduate programs:

- Pre-Athletic Training
- Pre-Chiropractic
- Pre-Clinical Laboratory Science
- Pre-Clinical Perfusion Science
- Pre-Cytotechnology
- Pre-Dental
- Pre-Dental Hygiene
- Pre-Engineering
- Pre-Law
- Pre-Medical
- Pre-Nursing
- Pre-Occupational Therapy
- Pre-Optometry
- Pre-Osteopathic Medicine
- Pre-Pharmacy
- Pre-Physical Therapy
- Pre-Physician's Assistant
- Pre-Radiation Science Technology
- Pre-Social Work
- Pre-Veterinary

Acceptance into professional programs is not automatic and must be initiated by the student; details may be obtained from the student's pre-professional advisor. Listed below are typical minimum requirements based upon programs into which Concordia students have been accepted. Students considering a pre-professional program should carefully study the requirements of any institution to which they intend to apply. In successful preparation for professional programs, most Concordia students complete coursework well beyond the minimum requirements.

Pre-Athletic Training

A bachelor's degree is required for admission to the entry level professional program in athletic training. Majors in exercise science, biology, or other related fields are desirable; however, it is not mandatory as long as prerequisites for admission are met. Students should check specific requirements for the schools in which they are interested. The following are prerequisites for the University of Nebraska-Omaha. Students are encouraged to check with the HHP Department for an excellent opportunity to pursue a Bachelor's to Master's in Athletic Training at Concordia University, Wisconsin.

Course Number/Title	Credit Hours
BIO 244 Nutrition	3
BIO 343 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology I	4
BIO 344 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology II	4

HHP 100 Lifetime Wellness	3
HHP 270 Human Performance Lab. Techniques	2
HHP 395 Biomechanics	3

Pre-Chiropractic

The minimum is a three-year program, but most successful applicants have a bachelor's degree. Courses include:

Course Number/Title	Credit Hours
BIO 111 General Biology I	4
BIO 112 General Biology II	4
English Courses (at least three hours composition)	6
Humanities/Social Sciences Courses	15
PHYS 111 General Physics I	4

Pre-Clinical Perfusion Science

A bachelor's degree is required for admission to professional programs in this field. Courses should include:

BIO 111 General Biology I	4
BIO 112 General Biology II	4
BIO 343 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology I	4
BIO 344 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology II	4

Pre-Cytotechnology

A bachelor's degree is required for admission to professional programs in this field. Courses should include:

Course Number/Title	Credit Hours
BIO 111 General Biology I	4
BIO 112 General Biology II	4
BIO 343 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology I	4
BIO 344 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology II	4

BIO 308 General Genetics (4)
BIO 319 Cell and Molecular Biology (3)
BIO 322 Developmental Biology (3)
BIO 351 General Microbiology (4)
BIO 489 Immunology (3)
CHEM 115 General Chemistry I	4
CHEM 116 General Chemistry II	4
Mathematics	3

Pre-Dental

Normally this is a four-year program. Many schools will consider admission after three years provided their program pre-requisites have been met, however the majority of applicants to dental school have bachelor's degrees. Courses should include:

Course Number/Title	Credit Hours
BIO 111 General Biology I	4
BIO 112 General Biology II	4
CHEM 115 General Chemistry I	4
CHEM 116 General Chemistry II	4
CHEM 231 Organic Chemistry I	4
CHEM 331 Organic Chemistry II	4
ENG 221 Intermediate Writing	3

ENG 328 Creative Nonfiction Writing	3
PHYS 111 General Physics I	4
PHYS 112 General Physics II	4

Pre-Dental Hygiene

This is normally a two-year program. Courses should include:

Course Number/Title	Credit Hours
BIO 110 Principles of Biology	4 or BIO 111 General Biology I or BIO 112 General Biology II
BIO 244 Nutrition	3
BIO 343 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology I	4
BIO 344 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology II	4

ENG 221 Intermediate Writing	3
ENG 328 Creative Nonfiction Writing	3
Humanities/Arts	6
PSY 101 Introduction to Psychology	3
Social/Behavioral Sciences	3
SOC 101 Introduction to Sociology	3
12-hour series with same course prefix	12

Pre-Engineering

Students planning to enter the engineering professions should obtain a solid background in mathematics and the physical sciences. In addition to courses in these areas, courses in the social sciences and humanities should be taken. There are many specialty areas in engineering such as aerospace, agricultural, chemical, civil, electrical, industrial and mechanical. Programs for each of these areas differ among the professional colleges, and students should obtain information from these colleges as well as consulting with the Concordia mathematics and science faculty to plan the appropriate academic agenda. Students can attend Concordia at least two years before continuing their program at a professional college. Typical programs would be as follows:

Two-Year Program (Chemical)

Course Number/Title	Credit Hours
CHEM 115 General Chemistry I	4
CHEM 116 General Chemistry II	4

Pre-Law

Most accredited law schools have no specific requirements for a pre-law course but prefer a bachelor's degree in the liberal arts. A high level of scholarship is expected of students in the pre-law program. During the final year at Concordia pre-law students must take the Law School Admission Test, as well as apply to the law school of their choice. Students should be aware of the recommendations of the law schools to which they might apply.

The Association of American Law Schools considers the prescription of particular courses unwise for a pre-law program. The Association calls attention to the quality of undergraduate institutions which it believes fundamental to the better attainment of legal competence. Pre-law students meet individually with a pre-law advisor to plan a personalized curriculum for their pre-professional training in law.

Pre-Medical

Normally this is a four-year program. Some schools will consider admission after three years provided their program pre-requisites have been met, however applicants with a bachelor's degree are given preference. Courses should include:

Course Number/Title	Credit Hours
BIO 111 General Biology I	4
BIO 112 General Biology II	4
BIO 308 General Genetics	4
BIO 343 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology I	4
BIO 344 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology II	4

MATH 122 Introduction to Statistics	3
MATH 184 Calculus I or MATH 182 Calculus with Applications (3)	4
PHYS 111 General Physics I	4
PHYS 112 General Physics II	4

Pre-Nursing

Pre-nursing students have two options. They can transfer into a nursing program after two years, having met these requirements. Completion of their nursing program will require an additional 2-3 years. Alternatively, students may complete a bachelor's degree including these requirements and apply to a one-year accelerated nursing program. Courses include:

Course Number/Title	Credit Hours
BIO 110 Principles of Biology or BIO 111 General Biology I or BIO 112 General Biology II	4
BIO 244 Nutrition	3
BIO 343 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology I	4
BIO 344 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology II	4

ENG 328 Creative Nonfiction Writing	3
MATH 122 Introduction to Statistics	3
PSY 101 Introduction to Psychology	3
SOC 101 Introduction to Sociology	3
SOC 331 The Family	3
Free Electives	7-9
Human Growth and Development (available at most community colleges)	3
Ethics (available at most community colleges)	3

Pre-Occupational Therapy

These are Creighton University's requirements and will normally require two years. Recommended courses include:

Course Number/Title	Credit Hours
Creative Expression (Composition, Music, Art, Speech, Drama, etc.)	9
Critical Discovery (Math, Economics, Foreign Language)	12
Humanities	6
Natural Sciences (At least one biology course and one course with lab)	15
Social Sciences/ Psychology (At least one psychology course)	12
Theology/Philosophy	6

Pre-Optometry

These are requirements from the ASCO website (www.opted.org) which recommends 90 hours. Most successful applicants have a bachelor's degree. Student should check specific requirements for the schools in which they are interested.

Course Number/Title	Credit Hours
BIO 111 General Biology I	4
BIO 112 General Biology II	4
BIO 343 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology I	4

MATH 184 Calculus I	4
PHYS 110 Principles of Physics or PHYS 111 General Physics I or CHEM 325 Quantitative Analytical Chemistry	4
PSY 101 Introduction to Psychology	3
Psychology/Social Sciences – additional hours	3
Electives to complete 60 to 63 hours, depending on program. For Creighton, include 6 hours theology.

Pre-Physical Therapy

This is minimally a three-year program. Most successful applicants have a bachelor's degree. Courses include:

Course Number/Title	Credit Hours
BIO 111 General Biology I	4
BIO 112 General Biology II	4
BIO 343 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology I	4
BIO 344 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology II	4

PHYS 111 General Physics I	4
PHYS 112 General Physics II	4
Three additional upper-level courses in a major area of study	9-12
Electives to complete 60 to 63 hours, depending on program. For Creighton, include 6 hours theology.

Concordia University, Mequon, Wisconsin offers a doctorate in physical therapy. This program gives admissions preference to graduates of Concordia University System institutions. Concordia–Mequon has specific course work and application requirements. For additional information visit the DPT Web site at www.cuw.edu/programs/dpt or call 262-243-4248.

Pre-Physician's Assistant

A bachelor's degree is required for admission to professional programs in this field. Courses should include:

BIO 111 General Biology I	4
BIO 112 General Biology II	4
BIO 343 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology I	4

BIO 344 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology II	4

Pre-Social Work

The pre-social work program is designed to prepare a graduate for entry into a Master of Social Work (MSW) program. The MSW degree is increasingly becoming the norm and expectation for professionals in the field of social work and social service. The foundation of the pre-social work program is the behavioral science major, enhanced by additional required and supporting courses. Students will receive an introduction to the field of social work along with practical experiences in social service agencies.

Course Number/Title	Credit Hours
Behavioral Science Major	42
SW 201 Introduction to Social Work	3
SW 311 Social Work Internship I	3
SW 312 Social Work Internship II	3
Supporting courses	9
A minimum of nine hours selected from:
BIO 244 Nutrition (3)
BUS 121 Financial Accounting (3)

BUS 351 Human Resources Management (3)
BUS 300 Business Law (3)
BUS 443 Organizational Behavior (3)

HIST 417 African American History (3)
SPAN 101 Beginning Spanish I (3)
SPAN 102 Beginning Spanish II (3)
SPAN 201 Intermediate Spanish I (3)
SPAN 202 Intermediate Spanish II (3)

Sociology and psychology courses not used in the Behavioral Science major may fulfill the supporting courses requirement.

Pre-Veterinary

This is minimally a two-year program. Most successful applicants have a bachelor's degree. Courses include:

RESERVE OFFICERS TRAINING CORPS (ROTC)

Concordia has established agreements with the Departments of Military Science and Aerospace Studies at the University of Nebraska–Lincoln to allow students the opportunity to participate in the Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC) programs. Students completing the ROTC program receive a commission as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army or Air Force.

Both Army ROTC and Air Force ROTC offer generous scholarships and living allowances for contracted cadets. Students may apply for scholarships at any time during their college career. Students may also receive an allowance for textbooks plus a tax-free living allowance when contracting with a ROTC program.

Participation in ROTC while at Concordia will require attending the appropriate courses at the UNL campus. Concordia students are admitted as a visiting student at UNL. Tuition for these courses is included in Concordia's tuition. (Student is responsible for UNL fees.) Each semester the student will enroll for one course and a leadership lab. The credit for these courses will be granted as Concordia credit and will apply toward the Concordia Bachelor's degree programs.

Cadets contracting with one of the ROTC programs will be obligated to serve with the Army or Air Force; the length of time and type of service varies based on the program and career field chosen. Both programs allow freshmen and sophomores to participate without commitment.

More details are available in the UNL undergraduate catalog or from the respective programs:

Army: www.unl.edu/armyrotc or 402-472-4269

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Not all courses will be offered in any given term, semester or year. Refer to the long-term schedule of course offerings. Course fees are listed on the online course schedule and the Student Financial Services webpage. Courses are measured in semester credit hours.

AGRICULTURAL SCIENCE

AGRI 100 Agriculture in the World Today

2 credit hours – [Fall]

A Christian understanding of the role of agriculture in God's creation. Factors that influence production and utilization of agricultural products and related opportunities in agriculture throughout the world.

AGRI 101 Food Animal and Crop Production Economics Systems

4 credit hours - [Fall]

Introduces the basic principles of the major crop and animal production systems. Including basic economics of farm and ranch management and marketing and description of government and non-government agencies involved in agriculture. Includes a lab.

AGRI 102 Food Animal and Crop Production Science

4 credit hours - [Spring]

Introduces fundamental of science literacy related to soil, plant and animal genetics, physiology and nutrition with applications to feed, food, fuel and industrial products production, food safety and environmental impacts. Prerequisites: AGRI 101

AGRI 210 Nature and Properties of Soils

4 credit hours - [Fall]

The study and understanding of soils and their characteristics. An emphasis on using scientific principles and their application in solutions to practical soil management problems. Includes a lab. Prerequisites: High School Chemistry or Chemistry 109; AGRI 101 and AGRI 102.

AGRI 215 Grain, Oil seed, Horticulture, and Forage Crop Production

3 credit hours - [Spring]

The practices and principles of grain, horticultural and forage crop production. Topics include crop distribution, growth processes, response to environment, their distribution, use, improvement, tillage, planting, fertilization, irrigation, weed and pest control, growth, harvesting, and marketing. Prerequisites: BIO 141

AGRI 220 Animal Production and Management

3 credit hours - [Fall]

Management of the beef, dairy, pork and poultry, sheep and goat production systems combined including breeding and genetics, meat science, nutrition, and reproductive physiology, and animal well-being. Prerequisites: High School Chemistry or Chemistry 109; AGRI 101 and AGRI 102

AGRI 230 Fundamentals of Farm and Ranch Management

4 credit hours - [Spring]

The study of decision-making tools and practices in the operation of agricultural businesses using financial and other information. Topics include goal setting, planning, business organization, systems management, record keeping, budgeting, balance sheets, income statements, cash flow statements, investment analysis, tax planning, and marketing tools for risk management. Prerequisites: ECON 102 and BUS 121.

AGRI 235 Fundamentals of Agricultural Marketing

3 credit hours - [Spring]

The study of the creation, organization, economics and factors that influence agricultural commodity markets. The course will include how markets affect agricultural commodity production and the current status and issues related to domestic and international agricultural commodity markets. Prerequisites: ECON 101 and ECON 102.

AGRI 238 Domestic and International Ag Issues

3 credit hours [Spring]

Study of the policy, trade, markets, and opposition issues of agriculture. Includes a survey of current topics and controversies in agriculture, local, domestic, and international. Exposure to, evaluation, and use of sources of information in agriculture. This course includes an optional domestic study tour in even years and an international study tour in odd years to enhance students' learning and experience ag issues first-hand. The study tour is an additional expense for this course. WI

AGRI 301/305 Plant and Animal Physiology Applications

4 credit hours - [Spring]

Plant and animal physiology and related technology applied to the management of plants and animals in agriculture. Plant applications include: water relations, photosynthesis, metabolism of organic materials, and plant growth regulation. Animal applications include: the basic physical and chemical principles of physiological processes of sense, circulation, respiration, thermal regulation, hormones and reproduction. Includes lab. Prerequisites: High School Physics or PHYS 109; AGRI 215 and AGRI 220.

AGRI 303 Plant and Animal Genetic Improvement Applications

4 credit hours - [Fall]

Principles of genetics applied to plants and animals, including transmission genetics, cytogenetics, cytoplasmic inheritance, quantitative inheritance, population genetics and molecular genetics. Includes lab. Prerequisites: MATH 122; BIO 207 or BIO 112; AGRI 215 and AGRI 220.

AGRI 340 Food Products, Processing and Safety

3 credit hours – [Fall]

Introduction of chemical and physical properties of food; major processing and preservation principles and methods; application of science and technology to various food products; and discussion of current issues related to food, food safety and human health. Prerequisites: AGRI 215 and AGRI 220

AGRI 390 Agricultural Field Experiences

1-6 credit hours – [All]

Students will participate in a planned, supervised experience which integrates knowledge and practical experience in a setting appropriate to the student's professional goals. A written report is required. Prerequisite: An approved learning contract.

AGRI 490 Food Animal, Crop Production and Economics Internship

3 credit hours – [Summer]

Interning with a company, non-governmental organization, farm, governmental agency or agriculture mission. A written report is required. Prerequisites: AGRI 215 and AGRI 220; An approved learning contract.

AGRI 495 Food Animal, Crop Production and Economics Capstone

3 credit hours

Projects and presentations which allow the upper-level agriculture student to integrate the theory of agriculture and skills acquired in their college experience into a coherent concept of how they will serve the church and world through agriculture. Prerequisites: AGRI 301, AGRI 302, AGRI 303, AGRI 340 and BIO 377. WI

AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE

ASL 101 Beginning American Sign Language I

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

This beginning course in American Sign Language (ASL) is designed for the person who has no experience in ASL. The course will focus on development of vocabulary and grammatical structures of ASL, receptive and expressive skill development, and the study of deaf culture. GMC

ASL 102 Beginning American Sign Language II

3 credit hours [Spring]

This course builds on ASL 101 by review and development of further vocabulary and grammatical skills in ASL. This course focuses on interpretive skills, receptive and expressive skill development, and the continuing study of deaf culture. Prerequisite: ASL 101 or program director consent. GMC

ASL 150 Special Topics in American Sign Language

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

This course offers students an opportunity to take classes in special topics areas related to American Sign Language with direct guidance from a qualified instructor. It provides intermediate and advanced students with a context in which to expand their expressive, receptive, and interpretive skills, and/or the opportunity to study American Sign Language structure, storytelling, and culture. Topic chosen and coursework decided upon in discussion with the instructor and program director. Prerequisite: ASL 102.

ASL 201 Intermediate American Sign Language I

3 credit hours [Fall]

This intermediate course builds on ASL 102 by review, building of vocabulary and grammar knowledge in ASL, and continuing development of receptive and expressive skills in ASL. The main focus of the course is the development of active communication and interpretive skills and the use of ASL within a social context. Prerequisite: ASL 102 or program director consent.

ASL 202 Intermediate American Sign Language II

3 credit hours [Spring]

This final course in Concordia's ASL skill development sequence continues to build vocabulary and grammar knowledge in ASL and development of ASL receptive and expressive skills. The main focus of this course is the polishing of communicative and interpretive skills and practical practice in the use of interpretive skills in various social and institutional contexts. Prerequisite: ASL 201.

ASL 250 Special Topics in American Sign Language

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

This course offers students an opportunity to take classes in special topics areas related to American Sign Language with direct guidance from a qualified instructor. It provides intermediate and advanced students with a context in which to expand their expressive, receptive, and interpretive skills, and/or the opportunity to study American Sign Language structure, storytelling, and culture. Topic chosen and coursework decided upon in discussion with the instructor and program director. Prerequisites: ASL 102, 150.

ASL 350 Special Topics in American Sign Language

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

This course offers students an opportunity to take classes in special topics areas related to American Sign Language with direct guidance from a qualified instructor. It provides intermediate and advanced students with a context in which to expand their expressive, receptive, and interpretive skills, and/or the opportunity to study American Sign Language structure, storytelling, and culture. Topic chosen and coursework decided upon in discussion with the instructor and program director. Prerequisites: ASL 102, 250.

ASL 450 Special Topics in American Sign Language

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

This course offers students an opportunity to take classes in special topics areas related to American Sign Language with direct guidance from a qualified instructor. It provides intermediate and advanced students with a context in which to expand their expressive, receptive, and interpretive skills, and/or the opportunity to study American Sign Language structure, storytelling, and culture. Topic chosen and coursework decided upon in discussion with the instructor. Prerequisites: ASL 102, 350.

ASL 490 Practicum in American Sign Language

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

This practicum in ASL integrates knowledge of ASL and elements of what was learned through coursework into a supervised field experience which gives the student the opportunity both to observe ASL professionals and to communicate and perform duties within an ASL context. Duration and structure of the field experience will be jointly determined by the program director, the ASL context supervisor, and the student. Prerequisite: ASL 201.

ART

ART 101 Fundamentals of Art

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

An introduction to art. Emphasizing production of art through the exploration of design elements and principles; interpretation of art through cultural and historical context; investigation of nature and values of art. This course is for students with limited or no previous experience in art. Course fee.

ART 102 Introduction to Film Theory

3 credit hours [Fall]

This class is designed to enhance students' appreciation and knowledge of film. Students will be exposed to challenging films, filmmakers, and film movements. This course will ask students to engage in film theory and analysis so that one may effectively articulate criticism and engage in debate. Students will work to recognize historical, cultural, genre and technological context and how that informs our visual literacy.

ART 103 Studio I – Observational Drawing

3 credit hours [Fall]

An exploration of the foundational aspects of mark-making, this course is a study in drawing what you see. Emphasis will be placed on observational, expressive and compositional aspects inherent to drawing through the use of various black and white and color media.

ART 145 Digital Imaging

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Explores capturing, digitizing and manipulating images with an emphasis on meeting aesthetic and technical requirements of the graphic design industry. Students will learn to color-correct, manipulate, retouch, enhance and composite digital images. Course fee.

ART 161 Visual Studies

3 credit hours [Spring]

Visual Studies will place an emphasis on the development of higher-level critical thinking skills and a broad introduction to the aesthetic vocabulary of form, concept, criticism and historical theories in the visual arts. Students will develop skills to articulate and defend critical positions about artists, works of art and art exhibitions. GMC

ART 190 Graphic Design

3 credit hours [Spring]

This course combines creative development of ideas, effective communication and correct technical reproduction of the graphic design process with the study of historic and contemporary movements, designers, and innovations in the graphic design/illustration experience. From the invention of writing to the printing press to the digital age, this course allows for an in-depth survey of the graphic design arena. Course fee. Prerequisites: ART 103, 145, 203.

ART 200 Art Therapy

3 credit hours [Spring]

Provides students with an overview of the history of art therapy and the profession of art therapy including theories and various populations. Includes a hands-on art workshop. Prerequisite: sophomore standing or higher.

ART 203 Two-Dimensional Design

3 credit hours [Fall]

Explores the elements and principles of composition, systems of organization, and the exploration of two-dimensional media. This course provides an analysis of the interaction between visual subject matter, form and content. Emphasis on perceiving formal relationships in natural and artistic contexts. Initial study in color theory and color relationships.

ART 205 Three-Dimensional Design

3 credit hours [Spring]

An essential foundation in the process of making dimensional objects. Projects explore different techniques in production of form through additive and subtractive means. There will be an emphasis on formal production by strongly considering the elements and principles of design in the making of objects in space. Course fee. Prerequisite: ART 203.

ART 207 Moving Image

3 credit hours [Fall]

An introduction to history, practices, and strategies related to time-based media with an emphasis on video. Students will work both individually and collaboratively to explore temporal formats that involve sound, editing, continuity, writing, and other narrative and non-narrative techniques. An introduction to basic technical skills related to the various production phases of video and other media. Prerequisites: ART 145, 235.

ART 213 Studio II – Integrated Materials

3 credit hours [Spring]

An exploration of the intuitive process of drawing and the spatial language of sculpture, challenging the boundaries between the two, this course will focus on creating a unique dialog based on symbolism and metaphorical content.

ART 214 Studio III – Figure and Time

3 credit hours [Fall]

An exploration of the dynamic human response to time and space, this course is a study of the human figure through an assortment of drawing approaches, time-based exercises, and performative strategies. An exploration of identity, embodiment, and representation as practiced through collaborative drawing reconnects eye to hand, mind to body, and individual to community. Course fee.

ART 215 Studio IV – Studies in Monochrome Surface

3 credit hours [Spring]

Intuitively exploring formal languages and physicality of materials within the drawing discipline, this course will focus on the interconnectedness of abstract and tactile generative processes. Course fee.

ART 216 Advanced Drawing

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Concentration on personal goals and directions developed in consultation with the instructor will be emphasized. May be repeated.

ART 223 Water Based Media

3 credit hours [Fall]

Exploration of the unique characteristics and potential of water based media; various techniques and styles for personal expression. Prerequisites: ART 103 and ART 203 (or permission of the instructor).

ART 224 Advanced Water Based Media

3 credit hours [Fall]

Students work on a self-directed sequence of water-based media projects under the supervision of an instructor. Must be taken during a regularly scheduled water-based media class. Prerequisite: ART 223.

ART 235 Digital Photography

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Explores photography as an art form. Development of a critical eye for photography through historical and cultural context, as well as in-class group critiques. An introduction to technical and creative strategies such as exposure, lighting, color, perspective, and editing. A focus on thematic and conceptual projects that require students to challenge how they see and understand the world through a lens. Course fee.

ART 240 Video Production

3 credit hours [Spring]

A focused opportunity to comprehend and expand the practical and artistic processes of manipulating video imagery through all phases of production. Exposure to broad range of video projects and production methodologies that are seen in professional industries. Collaboration and teamwork are emphasized.

ART 241 Advanced Video Production

3 credit hours

Students pursue complex video projects that require advanced technical skill. Strong focus on storytelling and craft. When applicable, students can concentrate on specific disciplines within the art of filmmaking.

ART 242 Ceramics – Hand Building and Slip Casting

3 credit hours [Spring]

Introduction to making objects by hand using clay. The focus will be on design and process with different joining techniques. Molding making and slip casting to produce multiples will also be covered. Projects will be finished in a range of glazes and firing temperatures. Conceptual concerns and ideas related to the field of crafts and design are addressed. Course fee.

ART 243 Ceramics – Wheel Throwing

3 credit hours [Fall]

Introduction to making ceramic objects using the potter's wheel. Projects will address basic technique and processes to using the potter's wheel using high temperature glaze firings. This course will also feature overview of the history, aesthetics, and criticism of the ceramic vessel as well as concerns related to making craft art. Course fee. Prerequisites: ART 101, 103.

ART 244 Advanced Ceramics

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Advanced credit in Advanced Ceramics, continues ceramic study over a customized map of the techniques, processes, material exploration and problem solving in design and function over a specific semester's body of work. An opportunity for an individualized, in-depth exploration of selected working process and concept. Course fee. Prerequisite: ART 242 and 243. May be taken repeatedly for advanced credit.

ART 260 The Christian Faith in Art & Architecture

3 credit hours [Spring]

An exploration of ecclesiastical monuments in architecture with special concerns for contemporary worship environments and the intersection between theology, aesthetics, and functionality. Development of appreciation for modern, contemporary art and its presence within the life of the Christian. Additional ideas covered include Reformation art, icons, and symbolism.

ART 271 Art History I

3 credit hours [Fall]

A historical survey of the art and architecture of European and near Eastern cultures prior to the Renaissance; art of Islam, Oceania and the native arts of the Americas. GMC WI

ART 272 Art History II

3 credit hours [Spring]

A study of painting, sculpture, and architecture from early Renaissance through 19th century styles. The art of the Eastern cultures of China and Japan will also be explored. Prerequisite: ART 271. WI

ART 273 Art History III

3 credit hours [Fall]

A study of the diverse movements within the fields of painting, sculpture, architecture, and photography from the beginning of the 20th century to the present time. Recent developments in art theory will be emphasized. Prerequisite: ART 272. WI

ART 280 Typography

3 credit hours [Fall]

Exploration of the design and use of basic letter forms, typographic contrast, hierarchy of information, major type families and characteristics, and typographic grids. Students build skills for the art of typesetting and typographic layout, and for expressive typography and conceptual thinking. Course fee. Prerequisite: ART 190.

ART 301 Methods of Art Education

2 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Prepares to teach art history, art criticism, art production, and aesthetics in the elementary classroom. Provides opportunity to identify, understand, and evaluate children's artwork. Explores two- and three-dimensional media and the production of an art curriculum.

ART 303 Layout and Design

3 credit hours [Spring]

Concentrated study in the aesthetic and functional organization of information and visual elements within two-dimensional composition. With an emphasis on preparing text and images for electronic pre-press and for selecting printing options. Course fee. Prerequisites: ART 103, 190, 203.

ART 315 Printmaking

3 credit hours [Fall]

Students learn various printmaking techniques such as monotypes, relief prints, drypoints, collagraphs and screen printing. Emphasis on personal expression, safe printmaking practices, and the contemporary cultural context of prints. Course fee. Prerequisites: ART 103, 203.

ART 316 Advanced Printmaking

3 credit hours [Fall]

Students repeating Printmaking for credit will select the process(es) they wish to pursue further. Course fee. Prerequisite: ART 315. May be taken repeatedly for advanced credit.

ART 325 Painting

3 credit hours [Spring]

Exploration of basic technical and expressive possibilities in painting that deal with a variety of problems in basic structure, elements of space, and surface quality. Prerequisites: ART 103, 203.

ART 326 Advanced Painting

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Continues Painting. Exploration of experimental painting techniques. Prerequisite: ART 325. May be taken repeatedly for advanced credit.

ART 335 Advanced Digital Photography

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

ART 335 builds on the skills learned in ART 235 and introduces students to more in-depth digital production, manipulation, process, photographic history, and aesthetics. This is an Advanced Studio Class. Students pursue individual projects in photography as a fine art medium. Tools (cameras, printers) and techniques are to be determined by students as appropriate to image and idea. The course includes lectures, research of historical and contemporary photographic issues, photography theory and criticism, demonstrations, discussions of technical processes and color theory, and critiques of student photographs. Course fee. Prerequisite: ART 235. May be taken repeatedly for advanced credit.

ART 345 Sculpture

3 credit hours [Spring]

This course will be structured around an intensive investigation of several diverse ideas, medias and processes that make sculpture. Conceptual concerns and ideas related to the field of sculpture are addressed. Course fee. Prerequisites: ART 103, 205.

ART 346 Advanced Sculpture

3 credit hours [Fall]

Continues Sculpture over a customized map of the idea, space, context and material of sculpture, in a specific semester's body of work. An opportunity for an individualized, in-depth exploration of selected media, concept and working process. Course fee. Prerequisite: ART 345. May be taken repeatedly for advanced credit.

ART 351 Illustration

3 credit hours [Fall]

Exploration in traditional illustration techniques and media to communicate a variety of topics, subject matter, and concepts. Course fee. Prerequisite: ART 190.

ART 352 Advanced Illustration

3 credit hours [Spring]

Contemporary approach to illustration with emphasis placed on the cultivation of both technical and expressive practices within the studio and digital environments. The student with an interest in animation can focus on honing and expanding those skills within this course. Course fee. Prerequisite: ART 351.

ART 365 Interactive Design

3 credit hours [Fall]

This course explores communication through interactive media with an emphasis on basic web design and motion graphics. Design projects include explorations of web-based interface design, navigation principles, interactive and time-based media for designers. Course fee. Prerequisites: ART 190, 145 or permission from the instructor.

ART 366 Advanced Interactive Design

3 credit hours [Fall]

Advanced Interactive Design provides students an opportunity to focus on a singular self-directed aspect of the software and principles of User Interface (UI) design, User Experience (UX) design, interactivity, motion graphics, and dynamic web content design. Prerequisite: ART 365.

ART 370 Studies in Art

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

A sequence of different topics offered in the disciplines of art criticisms, analysis, and aesthetics.

ART 390 Graphic Design Internship

1-3 credit hours [Spring]

Experience in Graphic Design; practice gained while working in an internship position within a professional graphic design environment. Prerequisites: 20 hours of studio art courses and permission from the art faculty. P/F. Students should contact the Office of Career Services to obtain the undergraduate internship/practicum packet and review the required process.

ART 399 Independent Study

2-6 credit hours [By arrangement]

Hours and projects by arrangement.

ART 403 Brand Development

3 credit hours [Spring]

Students will work to develop marketing and brand strategies to be utilized in a variety of related projects, processes and platforms through a sequence of advanced layout and design problems. Course fee. Prerequisite: ART 303.

ART 407 Design Systems

3 credit hours [Spring]

Concentrated study in conceptual and practical problem solving as related to visual communication. Laboratory fee.

ART 425 Inter-Media

3 credit hours [Spring]

A study of the history and theory of collage. Exploration of the unique characteristics and potential of two-dimensional collage, assemblage relief, and installation. Conceptual development through the presentation of various techniques, theories, and approaches. Prerequisites: ART 103, 203, 205.

ART 426 Advanced Inter-Media

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Continues Collage and Mixed Media. Concentrated study to develop competency in skills and expression. Prerequisite: ART 425. May be taken repeatedly for advanced credit.

ART 450 Advanced Studio

3 credit hours

Students will balance time management, strategies of exploration and experimentation, as well as modes of resolution in order to define their personal working process and self-directed studio practice. During the course, the students will regularly present both completed works and works in progress for individual and group critique. In addition, this course helps students to develop their skills of interpretation and analysis, to become more articulate in their discussions of their own work and the work of others, and to learn to apply critical language effectively. May be taken repeatedly for advanced credit. Prerequisites: Instructor permission

ART 489 Portfolio and the Art Vocation

3 credit hours [Fall]

A guided plan of study resulting in a professional print and digital portfolio, resume', job search process, business interview etiquette and attire, and planning for post-graduate career opportunities. Prerequisite: senior standing.

ART 490 Cross Platform Narrative Design

3 credit hours [Fall]

An intensive, cross-disciplinary project-based study of mediums within narrative formats. Long term/large-scale projects developed by students with peer and faculty review. Prerequisites: ART 403.

ART 495 Graphic Design Capstone

3 credit hours [Spring]

This experience has been established to allow up to seven students to participate in a student / faculty collaborative design and illustration studio. A professional practice including project cultivation, proposal, management, completion, archiving and displaying. Prerequisite: permission from the ConcorDesign Studio director.

ART 499 BFA Honors Thesis Capstone

3 credit hours [Spring]

This course is required for all the Bachelor of Fine Arts candidates seeking to exhibit their artwork in the BFA Thesis Exhibition. To accomplish this, the student prepares and displays a solo or group show of their artwork and presents their study in the Research Symposium. Prerequisites: BFA candidate and permission of the art faculty through the Senior Exit Portfolio Review.

BIOLOGY*BIO 110 Principles of Biology

4 credit hours [Fall]

Lecture 3, Lab. 2. A study of general biology: Science as a way of knowing — Scientific methodology and practice, literacy in biological literature and research, study of cells, cell organelles, molecular biology, genetics, systematics, structure and function of plants and animals, reproduction, growth and development, population biology, evolution as a paradigm and ecology. Prerequisites: 1 year of high school biology and chemistry.

BIO 111 General Biology I

4 credit hours [Fall]

Lecture 3, Lab. 2. A study of general biology: Science as a way of knowing — Scientific methodology and practice; literacy in biological literature and research, study of cells and molecular biology, cell organelles, inclusions, function, and a study of genetics. Prerequisites: a year of high school biology; college chemistry or two semesters of high school chemistry with a grade of 'B' or better.

BIO 112 General Biology II

4 credit hours [Spring]

Lecture 3, Lab. 2. A study of general biology, a continuation of General Biology I: organismic biology, structure and function of plants and animals, reproduction, growth and development, population biology, evolution as a paradigm and ecology. Prerequisites: a year of high school biology or BIO 111, college chemistry or two semesters of high school chemistry with a grade of 'B' or better.

BIO 122 General Zoology

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

Lecture 2, Lab. 2. An introductory course in animal biology. This course includes the general biological concepts as they pertain to the animal kingdom.

BIO 141 General Plant Biology

3 credit hours [Spring, even calendar years]

Lecture 2, Lab. 2. Introductory course in Botany. Basic concepts of plant life through a study of the structure, functional form, reproduction and ecology of select plant groups from the plant kingdom.

BIO 207 Human Genetics: Applications and Issues

3 credit hours [Spring]

A study of the basic principles of human genetics, their applications in society, and the issues that arise from these applications.

BIO 222 Entomology

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

Lecture 2, Lab. 2. A survey of the orders of insects; dealing with structure, habitat and life cycles. Laboratory work, collection and identification of local insects. Taught as an independent study.

BIO 243 Elements of Human Anatomy and Physiology

4 credit hours [Fall]

Lecture 3, Lab. 2. A study of the human body, its structure and function. Course will include introduction to the microscopic and gross anatomy of the body, a survey of each body system and the homeostatic mechanisms of the body. Prerequisite: High School Biology and Chemistry. Cannot be taken if a student has taken BIO 343 or 344 with a grade of C- or higher.

BIO 244 Nutrition

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

A study of nutrients, their chemical structures, digestion, absorption and utilization in the body. The roles of nutrients, recommended allowances, their interactions and the results of deficiencies. May be used as an elective in general education component.

BIO 251 Medical Terminology

2 credit hours [Spring]

Lecture 2. This course offers a systematic approach to understanding the language of medicine utilized by healthcare professionals. Medical terms will be introduced and defined through the context of anatomy, physiology, pathology, and clinical and diagnostic procedures/tests. The course will focus on accurate spelling and pronunciation of terms; building knowledge of basic medical vocabulary with an emphasis on prefixes, suffixes, roots, and combining vowels; and practically applying these terms in various healthcare settings. Prerequisite: BIO 243, 253, 254, 243,344, or concurrent registration or instructor's permission.

BIO 253 Human Anatomy & Physiology I

4 credit hours [Fall]

Lecture 3, Lab. 2. This course is a study of the normal structure and function of the human body. Topics covered include basic cellular biology and chemistry, tissue organization, the integumentary system, skeletal system, joints, muscular system and nervous system.

BIO 254 Human Anatomy & Physiology II

4 credit hours [Spring]

Lecture 3, Lab. 2. This course provides information about the normal structure and function of the human body. Major topics covered include the endocrine system, cardiovascular system, lymphatic and immune system, respiratory system, digestive system and metabolism, urinary system, fluid, electrolyte, and acid/base balance, reproductive system, and human development and inheritance. Prerequisite: BIO 253 WI

BIO 288 Animal Behavior

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

A study of animal behavior, its theoretical basis, basic concepts, and applications to the interpretation of the natural world. The relationship of animal behavior to the study of man.

BIO 299 Introduction to Research in Biology

1-3 credit hours [By arrangement]

This course gives students an opportunity to be involved in research early in their programs. Under supervision of biology faculty, students will learn and perform biological research with students registered for BIO 399. BIO 299 and BIO 399 students will meet as one class but will have different course requirements. Prerequisite: BIO 110, 111, or 112, and instructor permission.

BIO 308 General Genetics

4 credit hours [Fall]

Lecture 3, Lab. 3. An overview of genetic principles and their applications to inheritance including supportive studies of representative plants and animals. The lab will include both traditional and modern techniques in genetic analysis. Prerequisite: BIO 111 or instructor's permission. Course fee.

BIO 317 Ecology and Field Biology

3 credit hours

Lecture 2, Lab. 3. A field ecology course. Emphasis placed on fundamental ecological concepts with supportive material coming from the literature and field investigations. Prerequisite: grade of C- or higher in BIO 112 or permission.

BIO 319 Cell and Molecular Biology

3 credit hours [Spring]

An introduction to the structure and functions of cells, organelles, and cellular energetics. The study of cytogenetics and the control mechanisms of cellular function. The application of current research to biomedical practice as well as industrial processes. Prerequisites: Eight hours biology on the college level, including a grade of C- or higher in BIO 111 or 112.

BIO 320 Histology

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

A systematic study of tissues of vertebrates with primary emphasis on humans. An introduction to the technology used to prepare specimens for study. Introduction of histology to medical applications. Prerequisites: College chemistry (Organic Chemistry I recommended), eight hours of biology on the college level, including a grade of C- or higher in BIO 111 or 112.

BIO 321 Principles of Pharmacology & Toxicology

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

A study of basic principles of pharmacology and toxicology, including drug-receptor interactions, pharmacodynamics, pharmacokinetics, toxicity, addiction, withdrawal, experimental approaches to drug action, and the process of drug discovery. Prerequisites: grade of C- or higher in BIO 111 and CHEM 115.

BIO 322 Developmental Biology

3 credit hours [Spring, even calendar years]

Lecture 3. A study of normal and abnormal development in animals. Comparative studies of representative animals and man. Prerequisite: a grade of C- or higher in BIO 111 and BIO 112.

BIO 325 Vertebrate Anatomy and Morphology

3 credit hours [Spring, even calendar years]

Lecture 2, Lab. 2. This course provides a background in comparative and functional vertebrate anatomy morphology. Prerequisite: BIO 112 or permission.

BIO 343 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology I

4 credit hours [Fall]

Lecture 3, Lab. 2. A study of general principles of physiology, cell structure and function, cell metabolism and division. A survey of tissues, integumentary, skeletal, muscle, and nervous system. Prerequisite: grade of C or higher in BIO 110, 111 or 112, or approval of instructor. Lab required.

BIO 344 Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology II

4 credit hours [Spring]

Lecture 3, Lab. 2. A survey of the circulatory, respiratory, digestion, excretion, endocrine and reproductive systems. Prerequisites: Bio 110, Bio 111, or Bio 112 with a grade of C or higher, and Bio 343, or instructor's permission. Lab required.

BIO 345 Midwest Floral Identification

3 credit hours [Fall]

Lecture 2, Lab. 2. The principles of flowering plant classification are studied. Plant family relationships and distributions are emphasized by collection and identification in field and laboratory. Prerequisite: sophomore standing or higher.

BIO 350 Gross Anatomy

2 credit hours [Spring]

Lecture 2. A study of the anatomy of the human being with emphasis on regional study of the body using prosected human cadavers. Prerequisites: C or higher in BIO 343 and 344, or concurrent registration; instructor's approval required. Course fee.

BIO 351 General Microbiology

4 credit hours [Spring]

Lecture 3, Lab. 3. An introduction to the activities of bacteria and fungi. The laboratory will be concerned with the culture, physiology, and identification of the major groups of microbes. Emphasis is on pure culture technique and diversity of microbes in infection and disease. Prerequisite: 12 hours of biological science, including a grade of C- or higher in BIO 111 or 112; a year of high school chemistry or its equivalent. Course fee.

BIO 36_ Ecology and Natural History Study*Tours

2-3 credit hours [See department]

A study tour focusing on the flora and fauna and ecological systems of a biologically unique area. Study tours have and will include trips to Belize, Yucatan Peninsula, Costa Rica, and various regions of the U.S., i.e., Alaska, Hawaii, Deserts of the Southwest, Pacific Northwest, etc. Study tours may take place during Spring Break or Summer School sessions. Permission from the instructor is required. Same as ESCI 36_. GMC

BIO 371 The Biology of the Brain

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

A study of the structure and function of the brain, neurotransmitter systems, their interactions, and implications for brain function. Neurodegenerative disorders are discussed as examples throughout the course. Prerequisite: BIO 110, 111 or 243.

BIO 377 Conservation Biology

3 credit hours [Spring, even calendar years]

An introduction to the principles and practices of conservation biology. Conservation biology is the discipline in science dealing with the preservation of biodiversity. The preservation of biodiversity requires input from biology, economics, sociology, political science, sociology, and philosophy. Prerequisite: a grade of C- or higher in BIO 112. Same as ESCI 377.

BIO 380 Biology Service Learning

2-3 credit hours [By arrangement]

Special course developed and offered to explore biology-related interdisciplinary or advanced program service opportunities related to a particular community issue or need. Led by a faculty member with interest and experience in the special topic area. Specific course title and credits will vary per faculty member focus, course objectives, and depth of service-learning experience. Prerequisites: a grade of C- or higher in BIO 111 or 112; upper-level standing, declared major and permission of instructor are required.

BIO 385 Physiology of Exercise

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

A course designed to give instruction in the physical processes of the body and how they relate to physical exercise. Applications will be made to areas of teaching, coaching and conditioning of the athlete. Prerequisite: BIO 243, 253, 343 or 344; upper-level standing. Same as HHP 385.

BIO 399 Research in Biology

3 credit hours [Spring]

Upper-level students will perform biological research under supervision of biology faculty and with assistance of students who are registered for BIO 299. Bio 299 and Bio 399 students will meet as one class but will have different course requirements. Writing Intensive course. Prerequisites: a grade of C- or higher in BIO 111 or 112; upper-level standing, and instructor permission. WI

BIO 450 Advanced Human Dissection

3 credit hours [Fall]

Lecture 2, Lab. 3. A comprehensive study in the anatomy of the human being. Emphasis will be placed on the relatedness of structure and function of the musculoskeletal, nervous and organ systems of the body. This course is intended for students in the pre-health professions programs. Course fee. Prerequisites: a grade of C- or above in BIO 111 or 112; a grade of B or higher in BIO 343 and 344 and permission of the instructor.

BIO 465 Human Diseases

3 credit hours [Spring, even calendar years]

Discussion of disease process and ill-health. Emphasis on epidemiology, prevention, treatment, and the understanding of the etiology of communicable and non-communicable diseases. Prerequisite: Bio 243,253,254, or 344; upper-level standing.

BIO 489 Immunology

3 credit hours [Fall]

This course details the components and function of the immune system. The generation of white blood cell types from the bone marrow is analyzed. The function of each type of white blood cell in providing resistance to infectious agents including bacteria and viruses is reviewed. Of particular emphasis is the role of chemical agents (cytokines) in initiating and coordinating the immune response. Topics of particular relevance include the genetic inheritance of immunity, the biology of immunodeficiencies, auto-immune diseases, allergies and hypersensitive reactions, vaccines, transplantation, antibody technology, gene therapy, and cancer. Prerequisites: a grade of C- or higher in BIO 111 or 112; BIO 343 and CHEM 345.

BIO 498 Biology Internship

1-3 credit hours [By arrangement]

Students gain experience in a biology and/or medical related field by working in an internship position under direct supervision of a biologist and/or medical personnel. Prerequisites: a grade of C- or above in BIO 111 and 112; 12 hours of upper-level biology courses, CHEM 115, CHEM 231, or CHEM 345, minimum junior standing and permission of the biology faculty. In addition to consulting with Biology faculty, students should contact the Office of Career Services to obtain the undergraduate internship/practicum packet and review the required process. (Note: This course may serve as an elective in the Bachelor of Science program in Biology. The term facility includes laboratories, research laboratories, clinical settings, field study sites, or other appropriate settings in which research takes place.

BIO 499 Honors Course

1-3 credit hours [See department]

Arranged for qualified juniors and seniors.

BUSINESS

BUS 111 Entrepreneurship Foundations

3 credit hours [Fall]

The purpose of this course is to provide students with a solid foundation of the role by entrepreneurs and entrepreneurship in the 21st century global economy. 3 credit hours [Fall & Summer]

A functional study of operational concepts as applied to managing the production of goods and services within a variety of environments such as profit, nonprofit, service and manufacturing-oriented organizations. Prerequisite: MATH 122 or MATH 128.

BUS 344 Forecasting and Logistics

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

Have you ever wondered how that Amazon package arrived at your door so quickly? Supply chain management is the process by which organizations get us the products we consume, and companies need talented employees to help optimize their supply chain. This course will teach you how to use forecasting techniques to match supply and demand, and how to develop logistics networks that help minimize costs and deliver top customer service. This online class has optional live sessions. Prerequisite: BUS 343.

BUS 345 Management Science

3 credit hours [Spring]

Introduction to management science, including modeling, linear programming, integer programming, network analysis, waiting line theory, simulation, decision analysis, and inventory models. Prerequisite: MATH 122 or MATH 128.

BUS 346 Sourcing and Operations

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

In today's modern economy, something as simple as a razor might be manufactured in multiple countries with each part coming from a different supplier. This course will teach you how businesses manage this increasing complexity behind the scenes through efficient sourcing of suppliers and operations. You will have the opportunity to apply this knowledge by conducting a real-world case study of a product of your choosing. This online class has optional live sessions. Prerequisites: BUS 343 and BUS 344.

BUS 347 Supply Chain Management Capstone

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

This course – built in collaboration with corporate advisors – is the culmination of your work as a student of supply chain management. In this course you'll be tasked with creating a series of solutions to actual problems faced by a real-world company in delivering their product to consumers. By the end of this course, you will have built experience in solving real-world supply chain problems and seeing how your solutions compare to the professionals. This online class has optional live sessions. Prerequisites: BUS 343, BUS 344, and BUS 346.

BUS 348 Supply Chain Management Technologies

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

This course covers the major relevant supply chain technologies and systems. In this course, you'll survey the systems that enable the supply chain in best-in-class supply chain organizations. Understanding of how information flows throughout the supply chain is critical to managing a supply chain and this will be the main focus of this course. By the end of this course, you will have gained a basic understanding of how supply chain systems work and how they make the supply chain more efficient and effective. This online class has optional live sessions. Prerequisites: BUS 343, BUS 344, and BUS 346.

BUS 349 Supply Chain in Action

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

Everything from the best concert you saw, to your Covid-19 vaccine relies on the existence of effective supply chains. In this course, you'll learn about the application of supply chain systems to vital real-world functions. By the end of this class, you'll have a much better understanding of why supply chain management is vitally important, how it intersects with business, national and global interest, and how supply chains literally save the world. This online class has optional live sessions. Prerequisite: BUS 343.

BUS 351 Human Resources Management

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Knowledge and skill-building for working with people in a business or organization. Business ethics as they relate to Christian principles. Theory combined with applications from psychology and interpersonal communications serve as the focal point of the course. Participants will learn to relate more effectively to others in the work environment. Prerequisite: sophomore standing or higher.

BUS 352 Training & Development

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

Training and development are key to building an empowered and motivated workforce. This course will help you build knowledge and skill in the design, development, delivery, and evaluation of organizational training. You'll also learn how to create effective performance improvement programs, a vital resource in talent retention that is often overlooked. Lastly, you'll get hands on experience, by producing your own sample training plan. Prerequisite: BUS 351.

BUS 353 Total Compensation Management

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

Great people power great businesses, but attracting and retaining top talent requires companies to offer competitive compensation packages. This course will help you develop knowledge and skills in the development and evaluation of pay structures and benefits packages. You'll also learn how total compensation issues affect every manager in an organization and analyze processes and procedures to create effective compensation plans. Prerequisites: BUS 351.

BUS 354 Employment and Labor Law

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

This course is an overview of laws and regulations that determine the rights and obligations of employees and employers. You'll learn about the nature of the employment relationship, common law principles, prohibitions against discrimination, wage law, specific governmental acts, and other areas of labor and employment law. By the end of this course you will become familiar with the federal and state laws that govern employment. This online class features optional live sessions. Prerequisites: BUS 300 and BUS 351.

BUS 355 Human Resource Risk Management

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

This course will examine the scope and role of HR in the occupational health and safety arena, the fundamental components of comprehensive programs and, more importantly, the interplay between these considerations and how important HR professionals are in their success. Topics covered include OSHA requirements, risk management and loss prevention, management of safety & workers' compensation, employee assistance plans, preventative health issues, emergency response and preparedness, and developing a culture of safety, amongst others. There will be focus on the fundamental components of a comprehensive health and safety program to protect the employees in an organization and costly liability. Prerequisites: BUS 351 and BUS 354.

BUS 362 Advertising and Integrated Marketing Communication

3 credit hours [Fall]

How marketers communicate — advertising, sales promotion, public relations, direct and personal selling, event planning, sponsorships. Setting objectives, message strategy, media strategy, measuring effectiveness. Management of promotional activities: advertising, sales promotion, public relations, direct marketing. Promotional objectives, budgets and strategies; organization of the advertising function; media selection and evaluation; advertising research and message, computer modeling. Prerequisite: BUS 261.

BUS 363 Sales and Sales Management

3 credit hours [Spring, even calendar years]

Planning and implementation of personal selling activities. Sales force management concepts, including: objectives, organization, recruiting, selection, training, development, supervision, motivation, performance evaluation and control. Emphasis on industrial selling. Development of professional selling elements such as understanding buyer behavior, building trust, effective communication, leadership and teamwork skills, and the strategic selling process. Prerequisite: BUS 261.

BUS 364 Consumer Behavior

3 credit hours [Fall, even calendar years]

Studies the 'why' of marketing; why consumers prefer certain products and services. Emphasizes behavioral science concepts in an application-oriented environment as they relate to the process of consumption. Buying behavior and analysis. Perception, motivation, learning, attitude structure and change, social influences and cultural forces relevant to buyer behavior and decision processes. Prerequisite: BUS 261.

BUS 366 Marketing Research

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

Explores the role of marketing research in analyzing new opportunities in the marketplace through hands-on practice. Effective oral and written communication of research results is stressed. Topics include research study and instrument design, data collection and analysis, primary and secondary data collection, sampling and statistical analysis. Prerequisites: BUS 261; MATH 122 of MATH 128.

BUS 368 Digital Marketing

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

This course focuses on the emerging field of digital marketing and discusses its impact on both the firm and consumers. Students will learn how organizations leverage digital marketing strategies and tactics to strengthen their marketing efforts, and how consumers are using digital tools to improve the consumption experience and increase the power of the consumer. The course will review the foundations of marketing (i.e., product, promotion, placement, and price) and discuss how each of these are being impacted by the rise of new digital tools. Prerequisite: BUS 362.

BUS 369 International Business

3 credit hours [Spring]

This course examines issues essential to an understanding of international business activity. It includes the nature of international business, international economic institutions and issues, international monetary issues, government activity affecting international trade, social and cultural effects on international business, human resource management and other related topics. Prerequisite: BUS 261. GMC

BUS 371 Information Systems

3 credit hours [Spring]

Survey of the information systems discipline, including information technology, telecommunications and networks, systems design and development, and security/privacy issues. Improving organizational effectiveness through appropriate use of information system resources.

BUS 372 Intro to Project Management

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

According to a recent study of human resource managers, effective project management is one of the most coveted skills for new hires in the modern economy. This course will introduce you to the power of effective project management through two primary frameworks: waterfall and agile. You will also learn vital project-management concepts that can be applied to a wide range of industries and occupations. This online class has optional live sessions.

BUS 373 Project Planning

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

Any successful project starts with a plan. This course provides students with a deep understanding of project planning. Projects are a series of tradeoffs between scope, cost, and time, so you'll need to learn how to balance them in order to create a plan which is realistic and achievable. You will also learn how to leverage resources, and how to manage risk, quality, and stakeholder expectations to ensure project success. This online class has optional live sessions. Prerequisite: BUS 372 (or concurrent enrollment).

BUS 374 Project Execution, Monitoring & Control, Implementation & Closure

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

Today's fast paced work environment, no project proceeds from beginning to end without encountering unforeseen challenges, and the changing scope, priorities or context of a project may require various adjustments. Additionally, project implementation and closure requires conviction and trust in established processes and personnel. In either context, these are vital parts of a project's success and are reflections of how future projects will be managed. This course covers project execution, monitoring / control, implementation / handover, DevOps, and project closure. This course is intended to finalize a student's preparation for their Project Management Practicum and Internship. Prerequisites: BUS 372 and BUS 373

BUS 375 Advanced Project Management Practicum

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

This course is intended as a culmination of a student's work in the Project Management Major. Students will work in groups to manage a simulated project from scope to completion - encountering - and overcoming - challenges and complications along the way. This course will also provide students with an overview of the product life cycle, governance, and other topics to help contextualize project work. Prerequisites: BUS 372, BUS 373, and BUS 374.

BUS 381 Social Media Marketing

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

The average consumer spends 2.5 hours per day on social media sites and this course explores how to effectively use social media to move those consumers to action. In order to be a successful marketer, you must be able to plan a campaign which aligns with strategic goals, execute using the appropriate channels and tactics, and measure the success or failure of your efforts. By the end of this course, you will learn how to do just that. Prerequisite: BUS 261.

BUS 382 Email Marketing

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

Email marketing is vital to modern businesses, and a primary tool in any skilled marketer's toolkit. In this course, you'll learn how to craft successful email marketing campaigns for sales, engagement, and activation. By the end of this course, you'll know how to write emails that drive customers to take desired actions, and how to structure campaigns for maximum effect. You'll also build your own marketing campaign. Prerequisites: BUS 261 and BUS 381.

BUS 383 Search Engine Optimization/Marketing

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

When you're looking to buy something, how do you find it? Often, you'll ask Google. Search Engine Optimization (SEO) and Search Engine Marketing (SEM) help companies by making sure they are among the first options when someone does initial research. In this course, you'll learn how to perform SEO and SEM activities to boost visibility and drive growth. You'll work with Google AdWords and build strategies to promote a website. Prerequisite: BUS 261.

BUS 384 Marketing Analytics

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

Marketing professionals today have access to incredible amounts of data. The ability to use this data is what differentiates successful marketing efforts from failed ones. In this course, students will learn how to analyze digital customer behavior data using a range of tools, and use that data to test marketing hypotheses and improve customer acquisition. Prerequisite: BUS 261, MATH 122, and either BUS 381, BUS 382, or BUS 383.

BUS 385 Arts Administration

3 credit hours [Spring, even calendar years]

See CTA 385.

BUS 386 Viral and Organic Growth

3 credit hours [By consortium with LCMC]

"Going Viral" is the goal of most web-based marketing content. Companies which generate content that can spread through the internet organically are the most successful in growing their brand. This course will teach you what drives people to share content and how to build content that is shareable and meme-worthy. By the end of this course, you will understand what drives viral sharing, and learn how to facilitate it. Prerequisite: BUS 261.

BUS 391 Senior Project in Business Entrepreneurship

3 credit hours [Fall, even calendar years]

The Senior Project in Business Entrepreneurship is intended to provide students with an opportunity to extend and advance their business coursework. The client focus would be city governments, Chambers of Commerce, small businesses, nonprofits, and entrepreneurs. Once accepted as a client, that client would be paired with a student or team in this course. The instructor would facilitate work by the students in that class devoted to solve that organization's problem that would be presented to the client. Prerequisite: must have completed at least 21 hours of BUS courses; senior standing.

BUS 395 Leadership Skills Development

2-3 credit hours [Spring]

This is an experiential, competency-based course designed to help students become more aware of a wide range of managerial and leadership concepts. Likewise, we will be building skills around ethical decision making, problem solving, negotiation, conflict management, and presentation skills. Students will represent CUNE at the Collegiate Leadership competition.

BUS 396 Coaching Leadership Development

3 credit hours [Spring]

This is an experiential, competency-based course designed to help students become more proficient in the coaching of a wide range of managerial and leadership concepts. The course will be building skills around assessment and feedback of ethical decision making, problem solving, negotiation, conflict management and team building. Meets with BUS 395. Prerequisites: BUS 395 and instructor permission.

BUS 397 Community & Organization Development

1-3 credit hours

In this course a single student or a group of students will be assembled by the Dean or a faculty member in the College of Business & Technology to work on a project for a client of the College of Business & Technology Community & Organization Development Clinic. The project could range from brand campaign development, marketing plan assembly, operations analysis, business opportunity research, or other planning areas based on the client's needs. The assigned faculty member will facilitate an initial meeting with the client and the student(s) to learn about the mission and vision for the organization, project needs, client expectations, and a timeline for the project. The faculty member will then meet with the student(s) to delegate responsibilities and a timeline for task completion. The student(s) will then spend documented hours working for the client under the guidance of the faculty member throughout the session or semester while also meeting with the faculty member and client at scheduled intervals to ensure task completion timeliness and quality. In the final week of the session or semester, the student(s) will both assemble a written document for the client that addresses the objectives provided and well as conduct an oral presentation to the client highlighting the recommendations. Instructor permission required for registration.

BUS 399 Internship

1-3 credit hours [By arrangement]

Students will take an internship as part of their program of studies in business. Students should consult with the director of business and the Office of Career Services to obtain the undergraduate internship/practicum packet and review the required process. May be repeated once. P/F.

BUS 400 Business Ethics

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

A study of Christian ethics and practice in relationship to the conduct of business. This course is intended to provide students with an opportunity to develop an understanding of ethics from a Christian worldview, integrate those Biblical principles into their everyday life, and apply them to the workplace. We will explore adult moral development and ethical decision making in the workplace. We will discuss how people deal with the ethics of everyday life, and where moral courage is demonstrated (or not). The application of ethics is about having the moral courage to do the right thing, regardless of the consequences. Living ethically is a life of faith integration, not compartmentalization. Case studies and ethical dilemmas are utilized to give skills in problem analysis and the application of a Christian worldview. Prerequisite: Junior standing or higher. SL

BUS 411 Entrepreneurship – Venture Management Tools & Techniques

3 credit hours [Spring, even calendar years]

The purpose of this course is to provide an innovative educational experience for students. Students will utilize their business plans developed as part of the Entrepreneurship Concentration and will explore venture management tools and techniques to pitch and launch a new business venture. Students may be asked to enter their business plans into the business planning competitions in which the university participates. Prerequisites: BUS 111, BUS 211, BUS 311.

BUS 421 Tax Accounting

3 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

Examination of present federal tax laws with reference to accounting principles and procedures applied to the preparation of tax returns of individual and fiduciaries. Topics include gross income, capital gains and losses, non-business deductions, inventories and bad debts. Prerequisite: BUS 221 or concurrent enrollment.

BUS 422 Auditing

3 credit hours [Fall, even calendar years]

Methods of conducting various audits. Principles and procedures used to determine accuracy and reliability of financial records. Preparation of the audit report. The auditor's certificate. Prerequisite: BUS 221 or concurrent enrollment.

BUS 442 Information System Design and Development

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

The activity of creating a new business information system. Systems investigation, analysis, design, implementation, maintenance and review. Prerequisite: BUS 221 or concurrent enrollment.

BUS 443 Organizational Behavior

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

An evidence-based approach to study the understanding, prediction, and management of human behavior in organizations. Topics include: a Biblical perspective of work, servant-leadership, ethical foundations, organizational culture, diversity, personality, work motivation, laws of human behavior, rewards and punishment, workplace design, power and politics, work teams, group development, and leadership. Prerequisite: junior standing.

BUS 446 Strategic Management

3 credit hours [Spring]

Designed to give the student practice in integrating the numerous theory courses in all phases of business management. In the role of the top manager, responsible for the total enterprise, the student applies these theories to the solution of problems in practical business cases. Decisions are made to direct the operation of a simulated business in a competitive market. Prerequisite: senior standing.

BUS 480 Business as Mission

3 credit hours [Summer, even calendar years]

This course will offer students the opportunity to immerse themselves in a new culture, gain valuable international experience and be involved in hands-on projects applying their business knowledge and skills. SL

CHEMISTRY

CHEM 109 Introductory Chemistry

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Lecture 2, Lab. 2. An introduction to the concepts of inorganic chemistry, the common elements, and their compounds. Selected topics in organic chemistry, polymer science, biochemistry, food chemistry, and fuels chemistry. May serve as a prerequisite for CHEM 115. This course is intended for students with limited experience in chemistry.

CHEM 115 General Chemistry I

4 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Lecture 3, Lab. 3. General principles of chemistry: atoms and molecules, chemical reactions and reaction stoichiometry, phases of matter, electronic structure, bonding, molecular shapes, and intermolecular forces. Prerequisite: A year of H.S. chemistry or CHEM 109. Students who did not earn a grade of B or higher in high school chemistry should strongly consider taking CHEM 109 before CHEM 115.

CHEM 116 General Chemistry II

4 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Lecture 3, Lab. 3. Continued study of general chemistry: chemical kinetics, equilibrium, acids and bases, thermodynamics, electrochemistry, and nuclear chemistry. Prerequisite: grade of C- or higher in CHEM 115.

CHEM 231 Organic Chemistry I

4 credit hours [Fall]

Lecture 3, Lab. 3. The compounds of the aliphatic and aromatic series, stressing general principles. The basic understandings in this area, an appreciation of the relation of organic chemistry to daily life. Prerequisite: grade of C- or higher in CHEM 115.

CHEM 313 Advanced Inorganic Chemistry

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

Lecture 3. An advanced course with emphasis on inorganic chemistry from the standpoint of the periodic table. Atomic structure, theories of acids and bases, coordination chemistry, chemical bonds, and oxidation potentials. Prerequisites: grades of C- or higher in CHEM 116 and CHEM 231.

CHEM 325 Quantitative Analytical Chemistry

4 credit hours [Fall, even calendar years]

Lecture 3, Lab. 3. The fundamental principles of gravimetric and volumetric quantitative analysis and including some instrumental analysis. Prerequisite: grade of C- or higher in CHEM 116.

CHEM 331 Organic Chemistry II

4 credit hours [Spring]

Lecture 3, Lab. 3. Continued study of organic chemistry: structure, nomenclature, function, and reactivity of organic compounds. Topics include the reactions of aromatic and carbonyl containing compounds, carbon-carbon bond-forming reactions, multi-step synthesis, polymer chemistry, and spectroscopic analysis of organic compounds. Laboratory includes single- and multi-step synthesis, purification, and identification of organic compounds. Course fee. Prerequisites: grade of C- or higher in CHEM 231. CHEM 116 or concurrent enrollment. WI

CHEM 345 Biochemistry

3 credit hours [Fall]

Introduction to the biochemistry of carbohydrates, fats, proteins and nucleic acids; the metabolism of foods. Prerequisites: CHEM 231 and introductory biology.

CHEM 346 Biochemistry Lab

1 credit hour [Spring]

This course introduces students to advanced techniques in biochemistry, cell, and molecular biology. Students will also obtain practice in the acquisition, analysis, communication, and interpretation of experimental data and results. Prerequisites: a grade of C- or above in Bio 111 and grades of C- or higher in 8 hours of chemistry courses.

CHEM 347 Advanced Biochemistry

3 credit hours [Spring]

Lecture 3. An advanced study of topics in biochemistry with a focus on how biomolecules are analyzed, bioenergetics, the relationship between structure and function of proteins & nucleic acids, the metabolism of nitrogen and nucleotides, carbohydrate metabolism in plants, gene expression regulation, and recombinant DNA technology. Prerequisites: Minimum grade of C in CHEM 345

CHEM 353 Physical Chemistry

3 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

Lecture 3. A theoretical study of chemistry dealing with the gaseous, liquid, solid and colloidal states of subdivision, solution, thermodynamics, reaction kinetics, equilibrium, and electrochemistry. Prerequisites: grade of C- or higher in CHEM 231 or PHYS 381. MATH 186 or concurrent enrollment. PHYS 111 is recommended. Same as PHYS 353.

CHEM 354 Physical Chemistry II

3 credit hours [Spring, even calendar years]

Lecture 3. A continuation of CHEM/PHYS 353, Physical Chemistry I/ Thermodynamics and Chemical Kinetics. This is an introduction to Quantum Mechanics with applications to the structure of atoms and molecules and to spectroscopy. Prerequisites: grade of C- or higher in CHEM 231 or PHYS 381. CHEM 116 and MATH 186 are required. PHYS 111 and MATH 284 are recommended. Same as PHYS 354.

CHEM 355 Physical Chemistry Laboratory

1 credit hour [Fall, odd calendar years]

Lab. 3. Same as PHYS 355. WI

CHEM 356 Physical Chemistry Laboratory II

1 credit hour [Spring, even calendar years]

Lab. 3. Same as PHYS 356.

CHEM 395 Advanced Topics in Chemistry Seminar

1-3 credit hours [By arrangement]

Advanced study of the concepts and techniques of an area of chemistry important to the field and outside the content of other chemistry courses. Specific topics will be determined by the instructor and the students, and may include Instrumental Analysis, Theoretical Chemistry, Chemical Synthesis, or Physical Biochemistry. Prerequisites: Upper-level standing in chemistry or approval of the instructor.

CHEM 399 Chemistry/Biochemistry Internship

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

Students gain experience in a chemistry and/or biochemistry-related field by working in an internship position under the direct supervision of a chemist and/or a biochemist. Students should consult the Chemistry faculty and the Office of Career Services to obtain the undergraduate internship/practicum packet and review the required process. Prerequisites: BIO 111, BIO 112, CHEM 115, CHEM 116, CHEM 231, CHEM 325, CHEM 331, minimum junior standing and permission of the chemistry faculty.

CHINESE

CHNS 101 Beginning Mandarin I

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

The purpose of this beginner's course is to train the student to function successfully in Chinese culture using Mandarin as a language through the development of communication skills that cross ethnic and cultural boundaries and an understanding of Chinese interpersonal behavior and related thought. This course focuses on basic speaking and listening skills, vocabulary, and grammar; it requires the student to demonstrate a level of cultural understanding suitable for correct performance of assigned tasks in Chinese. GMC

CHNS 102 Beginning Mandarin II

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

This course continues the Mandarin language and Chinese culture training initiated in CHNS 101 with more advanced topics in Mandarin conversational proficiency, vocabulary, and grammar. This course incorporates speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills; the student will learn to read and write a number of Chinese characters and the pinyin system. As in CHNS 101, the course requires the student to demonstrate a level of cultural understanding suitable for correct performance of assigned tasks in Chinese. Prerequisite: CHNS 101. GMC

CHNS 201 Intermediate Mandarin I

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

This course continues the student's development of Mandarin language skills through more advanced training in conversational proficiency, vocabulary, grammar; the student will continue to improve speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills and will continue to learn more about Chinese culture. The course requires the student to demonstrate a level of cultural and linguistic understanding suitable for correct performance of assigned tasks in Chinese. Prerequisite: CHNS 102.

CHNS 202 Intermediate Mandarin II

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

This final course in the Mandarin minor/subject concentration core sequence continues the student's development of Mandarin language through more advanced training in conversational proficiency, vocabulary, and grammar; the student will continue to improve speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills and will continue to learn about Chinese culture. The course requires the student to demonstrate a level of cultural and linguistic understanding suitable for correct performance of assigned tasks in Chinese. Prerequisite: CHNS 201.

CHNS 301 Advanced Mandarin I

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

This course bolsters students' communicative competence in Mandarin listening, speaking, reading, and writing through more advanced instruction in vocabulary and grammar. The student will develop the ability to distinguish between spoken discourse styles and written language genres and will utilize knowledge of Mandarin in spoken and written discourse with native speakers. Pre-requisite: CHNS 202.

CHNS 302 Advanced Mandarin II

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

This course continues to build students' communicative competence in Mandarin listening, speaking, reading, and writing through more advanced instruction in vocabulary, grammar, and linguistic norms. The student will continue to gain Mandarin sociolinguistic proficiency and will utilize spoken and written Mandarin in authentic interactions with native speakers. Prerequisite: CHNS 302.

CHNS 321 Chinese Culture in Mandarin

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

This lecture-style course, taught in Mandarin, discusses various topics related to the development of Chinese culture in the pre-modern and modern Chinese world. Specific topics covered in the course will be selected at the discretion of the instructor based on the interests of the instructor and the students; these topics will include such areas as Chinese philosophical thought, Chinese government, the Chinese world outside of China (including communities in the US), economic development in the Chinese world, environmental awareness in China, and China's changing demographics. Prerequisite: CHNS 202.

CHNS 341 Introduction to Reading in Chinese

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

In this course the student will read, translate, and discuss a range of poetry, short stories, and literary excerpts in Chinese, both classic and contemporary. Through this course the student will become acquainted with the long-standing Chinese literary tradition and its notions of what constitutes great literature, from a Chinese cultural point of view. Reference will be made to contemporary adaptations of Chinese literature in modern films in the Western world and the accompanying shift in cultural viewpoint. This course is taught in a mixture of Mandarin and English. Prerequisite: CHNS 202.

CHNS 399 Independent Study

1-6 credit hours [By arrangement]

Topic or program hours by arrangement.

CEL 229 Introduction to DCE Ministries

2 credit hours [Fall]

A study of church work roles in the LCMS with a focus on Director of Christian Education (DCE) ministry including its history, issues, and current practice. Students will also be given opportunity to reflect on their fit and commitment to training for DCE ministry within Concordia's model of preparation.

CEL 235 CEL Field Experiences I

1 credit hour [Summer]

An examination of the operational and administrative structures of the local congregation. The student will complete a guided, on-site analysis of a congregation, focusing especially on topics related to administrative structures, budgeting, vision/mission/goals, decision-making processes, participation levels, staffing and risk management.

CEL 300 Outdoor Christian Education

2 credit hours

This course is an examination of the historical and contemporary purposes and formats of Outdoor Christian Education. Students will be equipped with the skills needed to implement an effective Outdoor Christian Education program in a congregational or school setting. Travel fee.

CEL 329 DCE Ministries II: The Emerging DCE

2 credit hours [Spring]

This course will address such topics as wellness for the DCE, the Call, conflict resolution and identifying and responding to emerging issues impacting congregational ministry. This course will be offered in a hybrid delivery of one mandatory weekend retreat and on-line work. Activities fee.

CEL 335 CEL Field Experiences II

1 credit hour [Summer]

An examination of the educational ministries of the local congregation. The student will complete a guided, on-site analysis of a congregation's educational efforts, focusing especially on volunteer recruitment and management, record-keeping, scope and sequence, evaluative efforts, teaching methodologies, participation levels and hoped-for outcomes.

CEL 358 Religious Education and Innovative Technology

1 credit hour

Technological advances have introduced new methods of educating – and need to be better understood in regard to how they can enhance religious education in the church. This class is meant to enhance the ability of the individual to make effective use of technology for teaching and church promotional efforts.

CEL 382 Congregational Children's Ministry

2 credit hours

In this course, the spiritual and educational needs of children from birth to junior high will be assessed and plans to enhance ministries to children will be developed and analyzed in light of those needs and of the unique ministry of the local congregation.

CEL 388 Youth Ministry Theory and Methods

3 credit hours [Spring]

A course which provides students an opportunity to reflect upon an ongoing youth ministry involvement while developing parish-based youth work competencies and enriching their cognitive understanding of youth culture, varying models of youth ministry, current synodical resources, and the theology that underlies this activity.

CEL 389 Congregational Care-Action Ministry

2 credit hours

This course will assist students to be more effective in their personal efforts to provide care as well as their ability to direct congregational efforts to assist those in need within the congregation and secular community.

CEL 480 Practicum in DCE Ministries

1.5 + 1.5 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

A course designed to expose DCE students to the history, philosophy, current research, and skills/attitudes of DCE ministry in addition to an on-site involvement with a DCE serving a congregation. Prerequisite: Admission to DCE program. (Course completed over two semesters earning 3 credit hours.)

CEL 481 Director of Christian Education Internship

12 + 12 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Upon admission to the DCE Internship, a student may be assigned to a congregation for 8 weeks to 12 months, depending on previous experience and future plans. This full-time, salaried internship may begin after the junior year, and once CEL 480 has been satisfactorily completed. Course is completed over two semesters earning 24 credit hours. P/NR.

CEL 483 Leadership Development: Enabling Others to Lead and Teach

3 credit hours [Spring]

Pertinent theories, models, and strategies from the fields of management, leadership training, group process and education will be surveyed and evaluated in the light of the Biblical witness and the content of the Lutheran Confessions for possible implementation within local parishes to enable lay persons to become more effective leaders and teachers. Prerequisite: upper-level standing.

CEL 484 Confirmation Planning and Implementation

2 credit hours [Fall]

The purpose, history, and structure of confirmation in the Lutheran Church is reviewed and assessed for the purpose of structuring and outlining implementation strategies for use in a local congregation. Adult and junior confirmation programs are considered. Prerequisite: upper-level standing.

CEL 485 Parish Education Program Administration

3 credit hours [Fall]

An introduction to and exploration of the theory and processes associated with the administration of parish education programs. Special emphasis is placed on: idea generating, initiating change, leadership, promotion, evaluation, program planning, use of technology, creating ownership, explanation of pertinent systems, budget management, and curriculum review. Prerequisite: upper-level standing.

CEL 486 Family Life Ministry

3 credit hours [Fall]

A study of various models and strategies useful for initiating and sustaining a ministry to families in the context of a local parish. Emphasis will be placed upon family life ministry programs, evaluating curricula designed to be used in family life ministry, and family enrichment experiences.

CEL 487 Planning Adult Education in the Parish

3 credit hours [Spring]

In planning educational events for adults, this course gives attention to ways of teaching for faith, adults as learners, the ministry of the laity, the design of educational programs, and curricula. Prerequisite: Upper-level standing.

COMMUNICATION AND THEATER ARTS

CTA 103 Experiences in Human Communication

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

An introduction to the basic principles of intrapersonal, interpersonal, group and public communication. The course includes listening, group dynamics, fundamentals of public speaking and information literacy.

CTA 152 Basic Acting Technique

3 credit hours [Spring, even calendar years]

An introductory acting course which enhances students' communication skills through the study of physical, vocal, analytical and intuitive techniques used in creating a character for theatrical performance.

CTA 153 Theatre History

3 credit hours [Fall]

A survey class that begins with ritual drama and selective Egyptian, Greek and Roman developments of dramatic form. It will include Medieval and Renaissance drama, Neoclassicism, Romanticism, Realism and other twentieth century genres and styles as they occur in Western Europe and the United States. Contributions of selected Asian and African theatre forms and Native American dance drama will be also introduced.

CTA 154 Creative Drama

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

Dramatic exercises and improvisation for personal development and procedures for leading creative drama in classroom, parish, and other group settings. The use of theatre as public engagement will also be introduced.

CTA 200 Forensics

3 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

An overview of competitive speech events, argumentation, debate and practice. Students are required to prepare for competitive speaking and will study issues related to practice, coaching, research, budgeting and tournament administration and practice.

CTA 203 Communication Theory

3 credit hours [Spring]

Course features an overview of communication theory from the classical tradition to current theoretical approaches in human communication. In addition, the course will offer in-depth study in the following areas: organizational communication, mass communication theory, interpersonal communication and group theory/persuasion. Location, analysis and application of research is a focus of the course. Prerequisite: ENG 102.

CTA 211 Public Speaking

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Students develop fundamental skills in the art of public speaking through the preparation and presentation of speeches designed for a variety of occasions, audiences, and situations. Skills of organization, delivery, and speech criticism developed.

CTA 224 Listening

3 credit hours [Fall]

This course will explore the different types of listening, the different processes used, and the importance of listening in daily life. Barriers to listening and how to manage those will be discussed. Listening behavior in various contexts will be assessed. An action plan to improve one's own listening will be created. Prerequisite: ENG 102.

CTA 225 Writing and Reporting

3 credit hours [Fall]

Students will learn about the principles and techniques of news gathering and writing by reporting on stories of interest to the campus community. Students will also explore ethical guidelines and legal issues of contemporary journalism. Prerequisite: ENG 102. WI

CTA 226 Journalistic Editing and Design

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

Students will learn basic techniques and principles of news editing including digital copy editing. In addition, students will learn basic techniques and principles for designing newspapers, newsletters and other print products, working in a computer laboratory setting.

CTA 231 Oral Interpretation

3 credit hours [Fall]

Development of vocal and physical communication skills through the analysis and performance of literature. Students perform prose, poetry, drama, and non-fiction sources.

CTA 232 Costume and Makeup Design

3 credit hours [Fall, even calendar years]

This course teaches the principles and elements of costume design and provides instruction in basic stage makeup techniques such as aging, character makeup and stylized makeup. Prerequisite: CTA 153 or permission of the instructor.

CTA 233 Stage Scenery, Lighting and Sound

3 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

This class offers organized study of basic stage scenery design principles and set construction techniques. Students learn the basics of stage lighting design theory and the safe placement and circuiting of stage lighting. Students also study basic principles of sound amplification in a theatre setting and copyright laws concerning sound design. Students in these classes may assist with the current production(s) as class projects, but the course content is consistent from semester to semester.

CTA 241 Media Literacy

3 credit hours [Fall]

Studies in print and electronic media, particularly how to discern the credibility and influence of information that affects the individual and society. Research projects and student media presentations enable the student to explore and experience techniques of mass media and assess their impact.

CTA 242 Introduction to Broadcast Journalism

3 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

Students will learn about principles and techniques of preparing news programming for radio and television. Students will explore ethical and legal issues unique to broadcast journalism.

CTA 252 Theatre Production Workshop

3 credit hours [Fall, even calendar years]

Students will participate in the preparation and presentation of a stage play production, with emphasis on analysis, characterization, memorization, and blocking. In addition to acting, students will explore and integrate design, stage management, and other technical production elements. Prerequisite: CTA 152, 154 or 254, or permission of instructor.

CTA 254 Improvisation as Outreach

3 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

An introduction to the use of theatre as public engagement, and as a format and vehicle for exploring issues of social and cultural awareness and justice. By learning and using theories, practices, and skills in applied theatre and for devising new work, including interactive and improvisational theatre, students will collaboratively develop and present dramatic material to local and regional schools and organizations. May be repeated. SL

CTA 270 Theatre Study Tour

1-3 credit hours [Spring and Summer, alternating even and odd years]

This interactive course provides opportunities for exploration of drama through the attendance of theatre performances of different periods and styles at different venues, in order to examine plays, playwrights, production choices, theatre spaces, and other aspects of theatre. May be repeated.

CTA 281 Business Communication

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

See BUS 281.

CTA 285 Social Media

3 credit hours [Fall]

This course will introduce students to the theory and forms of social media. What are social media, who uses them, who gains from them, and how are they transforming the media landscape, the way we understand our world and our ability to communicate effectively within it? Students will become familiar with a range of social media tools, analyze and discuss their uses and implications, and conduct real-world social media campaigns of their choice.

CTA 296 Journalism Practicum

1 credit hour [Fall & Spring]

Working on the staff of the student newspaper, students will utilize their reporting, writing, design and/or photographic skills. The course is required for the Journalism/Public Relations emphasis in the Communication major and for the Journalism and Public Relations minor. Prerequisite: CTA 225, CTA 226 or ART 235. P/F.

CTA 298 Forensics Practicum

1 credit hour [Fall & Spring]

Interscholastic speech competition including: literary interpretation, public address, parliamentary debate, Lincoln–Douglas Debate (NFA Policy Debate), and other events in competitive speaking. The course may be used for up to three hours in a communication major, although the course may also be taken for additional free elective hours. Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor.

CTA 299 Theatre Practicum

1 credit hour [Fall & Spring]

Direct experience in play production in acting, assistant directing, theatre management or technical theatre design or construction. Students receive one credit per semester for 40 hours of participation in campus productions. The course may be used for up to three hours in a communication major. Registration does not guarantee an acting role, but all students who register will be given opportunities to earn credit in areas of technical theatre production.

CTA 300 Placement Seminar

1 credit hour [Fall]

The course includes resume and portfolio creation, attendance at professional placement seminars, mock interviews, meetings with field professionals and internship applications and searches. Prerequisite: upper–level standing or permission of department chair. Also offered as ENG 300 Placement Seminar.

CTA 301 Public Relations

3 credit hours [Fall]

An exploration of the diverse field of public relations, as it is practiced in large corporations, small businesses, educational institutions and church-related organizations. Students will examine the role, methods and ethical considerations of the profession. WI

CTA 302 Rhetorical Theory

3 credit hours [Spring]

An overview of the historical development of rhetoric and rhetorical theory beginning with the ancients and continuing into the contemporary period. Topics include: Greek, Roman, and other European traditions in rhetoric as well as contemporary issues in rhetoric including minority contributions to rhetoric, the development of current speech and composition theory, and future trends in rhetorical study. Prerequisite: ENG 102.

CTA 306 Interpersonal Communication

3 credit hours [Fall, even calendar years]

In-depth work and analysis of interpersonal communication. Topics include relationship development and maintenance strategies, nonverbal communication in relationships, conflict resolution and impression management strategies. Prerequisite: ENG 102.

CTA 309 Small Group Theory for Teams and Leadership

3 credit hours

Analysis and study of theories of small groups, including theories of leadership and the facilitation of groups and group dynamics. Areas of study may include goal setting, cohesion and norms, leadership, problem solving, conflict, and facilitating in groups. Prerequisite: ENG 102

CTA 311 Persuasion, Argumentation and Debate

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

Analysis and application of the ways in which beliefs, values, attitudes, and behavior are deliberately influenced through communication. Areas of study include debate and argumentation, logic, persuasion, propaganda campaigns in both written and oral forms. Formalized debates and public speeches are among class activities. Prerequisite: CTA 211.

CTA 327 Advanced Writing and Reporting

3 credit hours [Spring, even calendar years]

A deeper exploration of the topics introduced in CTA 225. Students will study several areas of news coverage and produce stories for the campus newspaper or other publications. Prerequisite: CTA 225. WI

CTA 333 Intercultural Communication

3 credit hours [All]

The study of cultural practices that influence the exchange of meaning between individuals and groups of differing cultural/racial backgrounds. The course is designed to provide students with a theoretical and practical understanding of the uniqueness of cultures, the resulting variations in communication styles and preferences, and to provide strategies and skills for successful communication across cultures. Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 231. Sophomore standing or higher. GMC

CTA 362 Advertising and Integrated Marketing Communication

3 credit hours

See BUS 362.

CTA 373 Play Production

3 credit hours [Spring]

Designed to prepare the student in the artistic techniques of play direction and supervision in the areas of set design and construction, lighting, makeup, costuming, and publicity. Lab sessions and the direction of a one-act play offer actual experience in directing actors. Prerequisite: CTA 152 and CTA 153.

CTA 385 Arts Administration

3 credit hours [Spring, even calendar years]

An overview of the field of arts administration, including curation, development, public relations and education. Same as BUS 385.

CTA 390 Dramaturgy

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

An exploration and application of the processes, research, and resources needed to make informed choices in creating quality dramatic production. Students will learn, develop, and apply skills in literary and historical research, script analysis, presentation, and collaboration, toward providing better knowledge of dramatic texts and practical support to theatrical productions and collaborators. Prerequisites: ENG 102 and either CTA 153 or ENG 201, or permission of instructor.

CTA 399 Independent Study

1-3 credit hours [By arrangement]

Topic, instructor and hours by arrangement. May be used to pursue special interests in any of the communication major emphases. Prerequisites vary according to program; junior or senior standing and permission of instructor are required. WI

CTA 400 Communication Research

3 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

An overview of the methodological approaches to communication research. Students will conduct and present an original research project. Topics include: types of research questions, approaches, philosophy of knowledge, and structure of research. Required for all communication majors. Prerequisite: ENG 102 and one CTA theory class. WI

CTA 499 Internship

1-3 credit hours [By arrangement]

Students and instructors work together to arrange suitable professional experiences with specified goals, activities and evaluation procedures. The course may be used to fulfill requirements in the Communication major or the Composition and Rhetoric minor. Prerequisites vary according to program; junior or senior standing. Permission of instructor is required. Students should contact the Office of Career Services to obtain the undergraduate internship/practicum packet and review the required process. P/F.

COMPUTER SCIENCE

CS 131 Computer Programming I

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Introduction to computer programming for solving problems. Focus is on developing skills in algorithm development and program implementation. Topics include programming fundamentals, best practices, debugging errors, data types, binary, object-oriented concepts, and emerging technologies.

CS 141 Computer Programming II

3 credit hours [Spring]

Continued development of discipline in program design, writing, testing and debugging with Python as the high level programming language. Algorithms to be studied include internal sorting and searching methods, string processing, and the manipulation of data structures: arrays, stacks, queues, and linked lists. Prerequisite: grade of C or higher in CS 131.

CS 231 Introduction to Computer Systems

4 credit hours [Fall]

An introduction to the architecture of a computer system at the hardware register level. In addition to a general discussion of the organization of a central processing unit, specific examples of both CISC and RISC architectures are discussed in detail. A 1-hour component allows C and C++ to be integrated into the course as high-level languages that can perform low-level memory operations. Prerequisite: grade of C or higher in CS 141.

CS 241 Introduction to Computer Organization

3 credit hours [Spring]

An introduction to logic design including properties of gates and flipflops, the design of simple logical networks, representation of information as digital signals, and implementation of arithmetic operations. The mechanics of information transfer and logical control within a computer system will be studied. Laboratory work circuits and breadboards is an essential component of this course. Prerequisite: grade of C or higher in CS 141.

CS 311 Cybersecurity

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

Data and systems security; cybersecurity principles; cyber-attacks and detection, vulnerability and risk assessment. Focus will be placed on implementation of cybersecurity systems including development, operation, analysis and testing. Prerequisite: IT 211 or CS 231.

CS 312 Cyber Forensics

3 Credit hours

When cybercrimes do happen, you need to know how to respond. This course examines the tools and techniques used to perform cyber forensics and conduct investigations into cybercrimes. By the end of the course, you'll be able to gather and analyze important digital evidence and gain skills in analyzing cybercrime that are in demand from companies across the country. Cross-listed with IT 312. Prerequisite: CS 311.

CS 321 Numerical Analysis

3 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

An introduction to the basic algorithms of numerical analysis. Topics include floating point arithmetic, interpolation and approximation, numerical integration, systems of linear equations, solution of non-linear equations, and solution of ordinary differential equations. Assignments using Mathematica will give experience in applying selected algorithms. Prerequisites: CS 131 and 141, and Math 384 are strongly recommended. Same as MATH 321.

CS 324 Computer Graphics

3 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

An introduction to the generation and manipulation of graphical images on computer displays. Both 2D and 3D graphics are covered with an emphasis on hierarchical modeling. Topics include clipping, representation of curves and surfaces, 2D and 3D transformations, hidden edge and surface elimination, shading and others. Prerequisite: grade of C or higher in CS 141.

CS 331 Software Engineering (3)

3 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

An introduction to software engineering focusing on the development of large software systems. Topics include requirements analysis and specifications, design, implementation, testing, and maintenance. Software development tasks emulate "real-world" experiences in applying software engineering concepts. Prerequisite: grade of C or higher in CS 141. WI

CS 332 Applications Development I

3 Credit hours

Modern development relies on frameworks which provide developers with powerful tools to speed up development. If you want to build apps, you need to understand how to use frameworks. This course, which has been built in collaboration with Google, will introduce you to Django - a framework used for data-driven web applications. You'll learn the fundamentals of Django, improve your database management skills, and begin developing your own apps. Prerequisite: CS 141.

CS 333 Applications Development II

3 Credit hours

This course - built in collaboration with Google - is the second part of the application development series. In this course, you will put your skills into practice and build your own application. By the end of this course, you'll have a greater understanding of the technologies that power modern apps and be able to build your own. Prerequisites: CS 332 (IT 221 is recommended).

CS 334 Organization of Programming Languages

3 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

An applied course in programming language constructs emphasizing the run-time behavior of computer programs. The course provides an introduction to formal and theoretical aspects of programming languages and will include a comparison of many current languages. Prerequisite: CS 141 (CS 231 is highly recommended).

CS 341 Computer Networks

3 credit hours

A multi-layered view of a computer network is investigated with particular attention given to Ethernet-based networks and the TCP/IP protocol stack. Topics include physical vs. logical design of a network, physical media, signal transmission methods, switching, routing, error handling, network applications and the protocols utilized at each layer. Students write peer-to-peer and client/server programs that communicate over a network. Each student independently investigates a networking topic of their choice, prepares a paper on their findings and presents the information to the class. Prerequisites: CS 360.

CS 344 Data Structures and Algorithm Analysis

3 credit hours [Fall, even calendar years]

A course which will apply analysis and design techniques to non-numeric algorithms which act on data structures. Algorithm analysis and design criteria will be utilized in the selection of methods for data manipulation in such areas as database management, memory management, and system design. Prerequisite: grade of C or higher in CS 141.

CS 348 Discrete Structures II

3 credit hours [Spring]

An applied course in discrete mathematical structures emphasizing their application to computer science. The course will relate mathematical concepts such as trees, graphs, combinatorics, relations and groups to computer science problems and applications. Computer science topics integrated into the course include data structures, algorithm design and algorithmic analysis and testing. Prerequisite: MATH 252 (CS 131 is highly recommended)

CS 351 Database Design and Management

3 credit hours [Spring, even calendar years]

Principles for the design and management of database systems including data and storage models; relational, hierarchical, and network models and associated access operations, relational algebra and calculus; inquiry languages; normalization; logical and physical database design; distributed systems; and concurrency, integrity, and security issues. Emphasis on database planning and implementation through applications using a database system. Prerequisite: CS 141.

CS 360 Operating Systems and Computer Architecture I

3 credit hours [Fall, even calendar years]

An introduction to the concepts of operating systems with an emphasis on the inter-relationship between the operating system and the hardware architecture of the computer system. Prerequisites: grade of C or higher in CS 231 (CS 241 is recommended).

CS 361 Operating Systems and Computer Architecture II

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

A course to continue the development of operating systems and computer architecture. Concurrent processes, name management, resource allocation, protection and access implementation, and advanced implementations of pipelining, parallelism, user interface considerations, networking, and distributed systems will be studied. Prerequisite: grade of C or higher in CS 360.

CS 39x Seminar in Computer Science

3 credit hours [Fall, even calendar years]

Current topics in the constantly and rapidly changing field of computer science will be the focus of this course. Possible topics include Database Design, Artificial Intelligence, Networks, Microcomputer Applications, Software Design and Development, Automata and Formal Languages, and Compiler Design. Prerequisite: grade of C or higher in CS 141.

CS 391 Computer Science Senior Project

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

The Senior Project in Computer Science is intended to provide students with an opportunity to extend and advance the computer science experience and knowledge received in other coursework and to provide students with a "real-world" experience. The student will work independently in consultation with a faculty mentor for one semester and will be responsible for the work and progress that he/she accomplishes in completing a functional and creative "real-world" application. Students will be expected to conduct research appropriate and applicable to their project. Prerequisite: must have completed at least 21 hours of CS courses; senior standing. SL

CS 399 Computer Science Internship

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

Students gain experience in a computer science-related field while working in an internship position under the direct supervision of a computer professional. Students should consult with the computer science faculty and the Office of Career Services to obtain the undergraduate internship/practicum packet and review the required process. This course may be used to satisfy the 120 hours necessary for graduation. Prerequisites: 18 hours of computer science, junior standing and permission of the computer science faculty.

CS 442 Management Information Systems Design and Development

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

The activity of creating a new business information system. Systems investigation, analysis, design, implementation, maintenance and review. Prerequisite: BUS 325 or 371. Same as BUS 442.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

CJ 101 Introduction to Criminal Justice

3 credit hours [Fall]

This is an introductory class to the study of criminal justice. Students will be introduced to the history of the American Criminal Justice system and its primary components: law enforcement, courts, corrections, police work, types of crime and responses to crime.

CJ 200 Introduction to Law Enforcement

3 credit hours [Spring]

Introductory course on the role of police in American society and the functions of law enforcement professionals. This course will cover topics within the field of criminal justice from a law enforcement perspective. Prerequisite: CJ 101.

CJ 210 The Juvenile Justice System and Juvenile Delinquency

3 credit hours

A survey of criminal law including its history and the study of specific crimes against the person, social crimes, crimes against the State and constitutional protections before and after arrest, at trial and post-conviction. Prerequisite: CJ 101.

CJ 220 Criminal Law

3 credit hours

This course introduces criminal investigation procedures. Investigative processes related to law enforcement will be reviewed, including the limits on such investigations. Prerequisite: CJ 101.

CJ 300 Criminal Investigations

3 credit hours

This course introduces criminal investigation procedures. Investigative processes related to law enforcement will be reviewed, including the limits on such investigations. Prerequisite: CJ 101.

CJ 310 Corrections

3 credit hours

A survey of correctional history, theory and policy as well as parole and prisoner reentry, correctional clients, including the juvenile correctional system, prison life and an overview of current issues in the correctional system. Prerequisite: CJ 101.

CJ 321 Criminology

3 credit hours [Spring]

This course examines the theories, causes and different responses to crime. It examines crime in the U.S. and other countries from juvenile to adult crime and differences between males and females in addition to what is even considered crime. Same as SOC 321.

CJ 325 Special Topics in Criminal Justice

3 credit hours

This class is designed to offer variable topics in the field of criminology or criminal justice. Topics will go in depth on a particular topic to expand knowledge and skill in this specific area. Further description will be given for individual topics. This class may be repeated with different topics. Same as SOC 325.

CJ 341 Drugs and the Criminal Justice System

3 credit hours

A study of substance abuse and crime including the history and classification of drug abuse, the impact of licit and illicit drugs on crime and the correctional system and the study of criminal justice strategies to manage the problem of drug abuse in society. Prerequisite: CJ 101.

CJ 350 Overview of the American Legal System

3 credit hours [Fall, even calendar years]

This course will provide students with a basic knowledge of criminal and civil laws and judicial procedures in the United States of America. Discussion of federal, state, and local laws will be covered. Prerequisite: PS 111.

CJ 400 Ethics in Criminal Justice

3 credit hours [Spring]

This course will examine the moral codes and ethical decisions involved when working within the criminal justice system. Prerequisites: CJ 101, upper-level standing. GMC SL

CJ 420 Criminal Evidence, Procedure, Courts

3 credit hours

A study of search and seizure, interrogations, confessions, and identification procedures; the beginnings of judicial proceedings; and, trial, conviction, appeals and habeas corpus proceedings. Prerequisite: CJ 101. WI

CJ 481 Criminal Justice Internship

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

The Criminal Justice Internship is a planned and supervised educational experience which integrates the knowledge and theory of criminal justice gained through course work with field experience. Students observe professionals in the field and participate as determined between the supervisor of that agency and the student. Students must contact the office of career services to obtain the undergraduate internship/practicum packet and complete the required process. Prerequisite: upper-level standing and instructor approval. P/F.

ECONOMICS

ECON 101 Principles of Macroeconomics

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

A study of the performance of the American economy. Includes an introduction to national income, employment, fiscal policy, money and monetary policy. In addition, topics of economic stability and analysis of economic growth are covered.

ECON 102 Principles of Microeconomics

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Examination of the behavior of microeconomic units such as consumers, firms and industries. Includes analysis of the problems of monopoly, urbanization, income inequality and poverty. International economics and the world economy are discussed.

EDUCATION

EDUC 201 Introduction to Education

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Foundational concepts of the modern educational system. Emphasis on sociological, historical, and philosophical concepts of American education with time to explore curriculum, pedagogy, technology skills, professional learning, and ethical practice within the field of education. Field experience required.

EDUC 202 Introduction to Agricultural Education and Experiential Learning

3 credit hours

Agricultural education history and practices. Leadership concepts, styles, and theories. Theory of experiential teaching and learning in middle school and secondary agricultural education programs – especially as it applies to leadership and career education. Development of Supervised Agricultural Experiences (SAEs), FFA, and alumni activities that are informed by the needs of the students, school, and community. Use of the electronic Nebraska agricultural education financial management system to keep records of their coursework, work-based learning experiences, community service, financial records, committee work, and other records related to their career growth and development. Prerequisite: EDUC 201.

EDUC 211 Middle Level Philosophy, Theory and Practice

2 credit hours [Fall]

Middle Level philosophy, theory and practice, including: history of the middle school; organizational patterns in middle schools; advisory programs; vision and mission in middle schools; effective middle school environments; building effective relationships among parents, schools and communities; and appropriate curriculum, instructional strategies, and assessment in middle grades. Prerequisite: Sophomore standing.

EDUC 212 Developmental Assessment of Children Ages Birth through 5

2 credit hours [Fall]

Reviews principles of development for children ages birth through 5. Applies appropriate measures of observing and recording across multiple areas of development for assessment. Practical tips, instructions, and step-by-step guidelines for gathering information and building a child's portfolio. Candidates required to use authentic assessments while observing children's development. Field experience requirement contributes to the partial fulfillment of 45 clock-hours working with prekindergarten children. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 224 Teaching Exceptional Learners

3 credit hours [All]

Understanding and appreciation of learners with exceptional needs, knowledge of characteristics of those with disabilities, including dyslexia, and the gifted, providing inclusive learning environments. Emphasis on proven strategies and a variety of methods and resources to meet needs of learners who require special services, adaptations, or different approaches to learning. Disposition development focuses on strengths and needs of learners, the belief that all can achieve. Field experience required. Prerequisite: Sophomore standing. Education majors: EDPS 210. Psychology and Music Therapy majors: PSY 101. GMC

EDUC 225 Diverse Classrooms and Human Relations

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Meets Human Relations requirements. Development of cultural awareness and investigation of attitudes, skills, and techniques needed to ensure inclusive learning environments for diverse students. Learning differences, language acquisition, English language learners, leadership, and collaboration with learners, families, and colleagues. Field Experience required. Prerequisite: EDUC 201 or MUED 201. GMC

EDUC 238 Field Experience by Arrangement

1-6 credit hours

Students in Education program may enroll this course to fulfill program field experience requirements. By arrangement only.

EDUC 302 Agricultural Education Program and Curriculum Design

3 credit hours

Using the styles and needs of learners to inform the way in which the learning process is implemented with them. Planning for the delivery, marketing, and management of all aspects of an agricultural education program including the development of needs assessments, unit plans, four-year program of study plans, work-based learning programs, and FFA chapters. Prerequisite: EDUC 202. Must be at least a junior standing and have admission to the Education Program.

EDUC 303 Music Across the Curriculum

1 credit hour [Fall & Spring]

Build competence in music education advocacy. Equips candidates to identify levels of music planning appropriate to personal knowledge and skills using standards-based music curriculum frameworks.

EDUC 314 Assessment, Evaluation and IEP

3 credit hours [Fall]

Provides teachers knowledge of how to select, administer, score and interpret a standardized/norm-referenced assessment for exceptional learners. Utilizing formative and summative assessments in the development of an Individualized Education Program (IEP), to support, verify and document learning. Accommodations in assessment and testing conditions, and ethical practice in administering and scoring assessments. Analyzing data and utilizing appropriate technology to understand gaps in learning and guide planning. Prerequisite: EDUC 224 and Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 315 Behavior Disorders and Intervention

3 credit hours [Spring]

Behavioral and emotional disorders commonly found in special and general education classrooms. Principles of effective and safe inclusive learning environments, understanding of individual development and differences, special curricula to individualize learning, applied behavioral analysis, safe intervention strategies for individuals in crisis, functional assessment, and collaboration with families, learners, other educators, related service providers and other agencies. Field experience required. Prerequisite: EDUC 224 and Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 316 Teaching Students with Moderate Disabilities

3 credit hours [Spring]

Develops disposition of respect for all learners as individuals with high potential. Understanding of unique strengths and needs of learners with autism, intellectual disability and other moderate disabilities. Knowledge gained in assessment, instructional design, strategies, resources and adaptations useful in response to learner needs. Collaboration with learners, families, and other professionals to develop meaningful programs. Field experience required. Prerequisite: EDUC 224 and Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 317 Teaching Students with Mild Disabilities

3 credit hours [Fall]

Characteristics of students with exceptional needs including mild disabilities such as specific learning disabilities and knowledge of assessment, referral and planning processes. Instructional design built on learners' prior knowledge to reach full potentials. Disposition of respect for learners, understanding of strengths and needs to guide teacher planning for appropriate strategies, accommodations, resources and materials. Field experience required. Prerequisite: EDUC 224 and Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 318A Special Education Instructional Methods

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Appropriate strategies and resources to adapt instruction to the needs of exceptional learners. Continuous monitoring of student learning and assessment of progress allows for adjustment of instruction to meet the needs of learners. Teacher disposition is committed to greater understanding of student strengths and needs when planning instruction. Designed to integrate coursework with fieldwork giving teachers the opportunity to practice and demonstrate skills and abilities in the school setting. Field experience required. Prerequisite: EDUC 224 and Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 318B Special Education Instructional Methods (for Special Education Majors)

1 credit hour [Fall & Spring]

Support course taken concurrently with EDUC 318A. Open to Special Education majors only.

EDUC 323 Linguistics for Educators

3 credit hours [Fall]

Develops understanding of theories of second language acquisition and understanding of language as a system (including phonetics, phonology, morphology, syntax, pragmatics, and semantics). Develops knowledge of how to apply that understanding of linguistics and language acquisition in order to support English Language Learner language and literacy development for academic success in the content areas.

EDUC 324E Instruction and Assessment in the Elementary and Middle Level Classroom

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Curriculum, instruction, and assessment practices for the elementary and middle level classroom. Focus on planning for instruction, appropriate instructional strategies, multiple methods of assessment, adjusting instruction and assessment for diverse learners, formative and summative assessment data, and assessment for learning. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 324S Instruction and Assessment for Middle Level/ Secondary Classrooms

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Curriculum, instruction, and assessment practices. Focus on planning for instruction, appropriate instructional strategies, multiple methods of assessment, adjusting instruction and assessment for diverse learners, formative and summative assessment data, and assessment for learning. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 326 Language and Culture

3 credit hours [Spring]

Investigates the impact of culture and cultural identity of groups and individuals on English Language Learner language development and academic achievement. Explores the history of education policy issues and ESL developments and their impact on ESL teaching. Develops instructor cultural competence and the ability to help ELLs develop their own cultural competence in their home culture and American culture. Discusses strategies to work collaboratively with school staff and community to improve the learning environment, provide support, and advocate for ELLs and their families.

EDUC 330 Early Childhood Education Foundations and Programs

3 credit hours [Spring]

A fast-paced breadth and depth study of early childhood, (birth-age 8) education, including history, philosophy, careers, leaders, curriculum, current trends and models, print, and technological resources.

EDUC 331 Infants and Toddlers: Development, Curriculum and Teaching

2-3 credit hours [Fall]

Standards, curriculum, instruction, and assessment appropriate to infant and toddler development. Quality routines, appropriate environments, materials and activities, and teaching/guidance techniques will be explored. Field experience requirement contributes to the fulfillment of 45 clock-hours working with prekindergarten children. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 332 Early Childhood Curriculum and Methods

3 credits hours [Fall]

Standards, curriculum, instruction, and assessment appropriate for inclusive pre-primary classroom. Specific focus on Project Approach for supporting the growth of children in environments that meet the diverse needs of children from age three through five. Field experience requirement contributes to the fulfillment of 45 clock-hours working with prekindergarten children. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 333 Science, Social Studies & Math Methods for K-3rd 3 credit hours

Designed to prepare the teacher of children ages six through eight. Emphasis will be given to the selection and implementation of developmentally appropriate content, materials, techniques, and assessment to support the development of science, math, and social studies. The field study requirement for this course contributes to the partial fulfillment of 100 clock-hours of field experience. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 346 Instructional Technology

2 credit hours [All]

Technology-enhanced curriculum, instruction, and assessment practices for the PK-12 classroom. Focus on the development of candidate technological, pedagogical, content knowledge (TPACK) to design student-centered, technology-enhanced lesson plans to promote deep, active learning and the development of 21st century skills for students in PK-12 environments. Prerequisite: Admission into Education Program.

EDUC 349 Career Education and Supervision

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

Requirements and experiences for coordination and supervision of work-based learning. Field experience required. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 351 Service in Public Schools

2 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Concepts and issues related to the ministry of teaching in a public setting. Knowledge, insights, and guidance related to vocation, ethics, legal issues, church and state distinctions, modeling Law and Gospel in public settings, and the structure of the public school environment. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 359 Health and PE Methods for the Elementary Classroom

2 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Designed for elementary candidates who are not completing a physical education concentration or minor. Emphasis is on both the theory and practical demonstration of how to implement a health and physical education curriculum and how to teach it to elementary and middle level students. Prerequisite: HHP 100.

EDUC 360 Middle Level Language Arts Methods

1 credit hour [Spring]

This course strives to prepare middle level teacher candidates for successful teaching of content in middle level classrooms. Students will experience opportunities to explore theoretical and pedagogical ideas as well as standards-based instruction related to teaching in specific middle classrooms. Middle Level language arts standards, curriculum, instruction, and assessment for diverse classrooms. Planning instruction to support all students and meet learning goals, cross-disciplinary skills, technological tools, assessment data, and collaboration. Field Experience required. Prerequisite: EDUC 324E or EDUC 324S and Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 362 Teaching the Christian Faith

2 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Role of the Lutheran school and child and adolescent ministry. Curriculum, instruction, assessment, resources, and technologies for teaching the Christian faith in school and congregation settings. Faith development, learner differences, learning environment, content and application, assessment, planning, instructional strategies, professionalism, collaboration, and integrating faith in content areas. Prerequisite: EDPS 210.

EDUC 364 Middle Level Core Subject Methods

3 credit hours [Fall]

Methods, materials, curriculum, curriculum development, and instructional strategies in the middle level classroom; emphasis on preparation of middle grades teachers for teaching math, science and social sciences in a middle grades classroom, both departmentalized and self-contained. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program and EDUC 211.

EDUC 366 Health Methods and Curriculum Design

3 credit hours

A study of methods, materials, curriculum development, and evaluation of health education programs in the school. Prerequisite: EDUC 324E or EDUC 324S and Admission to Education Program

EDUC 367 Methods in Secondary World Languages

3 credit hours [Fall, even calendar years]

Secondary language learning standards, curriculum, instruction, and assessment for diverse classrooms. Planning instruction to support all students and meet rigorous learning goals, cross-disciplinary skills, technological tools, formative and summative assessment data, and collaboration. Field Experience required. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program and upper-level standing.

EDUC 369 Methods in Secondary Business Education

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

Secondary business standards, curriculum, instruction, and assessment for diverse classrooms. Planning instruction to support all students and meet rigorous learning goals, cross-disciplinary skills, technological tools, formative and summative assessment data, and collaboration. Field Experience required.

Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program and upper-level standing.

EDUC 370 Methods in Secondary Agricultural Education

Secondary agricultural education content standards, curriculum, instructional delivery, and assessment. Organizing and planning instructional content, lesson planning, methods of formal instructional delivery, student behavior management, and assessments to support all students and meet rigorous learning goals. Using cross-disciplinary skills, technological tools, formative and summative assessment data, and collaboration. Considerable time is spent on undergraduates demonstrating instructional delivery. Prerequisite: EDUC 302, EDUC 324S and Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 371 Methods in Secondary English and Content Area Literacy

3 credit hours [Spring]

Secondary English language arts standards, curriculum, instruction, and assessment for diverse classrooms. Planning instruction to support all students and meet rigorous learning goals, cross-disciplinary skills, technological tools, formative and summative assessment data, and collaboration. Includes dyslexia. Field Experience required. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program and upper-level standing.

EDUC 372 Methods in Secondary Social Studies

3 credit hours [Spring]

Secondary social studies standards, curriculum, instruction, and assessment for diverse classrooms. Planning instruction to support all students and meet rigorous learning goals, cross-disciplinary skills, technological tools, formative and summative assessment data, and collaboration. Field Experience required. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program and upper-level standing.

EDUC 373 Methods in Secondary Science

3 credit hours [Fall]

Secondary science standards, curriculum, instruction, and assessment for diverse classrooms. Planning instruction to support all students and meet rigorous learning goals, cross-disciplinary skills, technological tools, formative and summative assessment data, and collaboration. Field Experience required. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program and upper-level standing.

EDUC 374 Methods in Secondary Mathematics

3 credit hours [Spring]

Secondary math standards, curriculum, instruction, and assessment for diverse classrooms. Planning instruction to support all students and meet rigorous learning goals, cross-disciplinary skills, technological tools, formative and summative assessment data, and collaboration. Field Experience required. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program and upper-level standing.

EDUC 376 PE Methods and Curriculum Design

3 credit hours [Fall]

Physical education standards, curriculum, instruction, and assessment for diverse classrooms. Planning instruction to support all students and meet rigorous learning goals, cross-disciplinary skills, technological tools, formative and summative assessment data, and collaboration. Field Experience required. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program and upper-level standing. Same as HHP 376.

EDUC 377 Secondary Methods in Art Education

3 credit hours [Fall]

Secondary visual arts standards, curriculum, instruction, and assessment for diverse classrooms. Planning instruction to support all students and meet rigorous learning goals, cross-disciplinary skills, technological tools, formative and summative assessment data, and collaboration. Field Experience required. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program and upper-level standing.

EDUC 397 Children's Literature for Teachers

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Literature for children from early childhood through the elementary grades. Various formats and genres; common trends and techniques used by authors and illustrators; current issues in the field. Methodology and strategies for integrating children's literature across the curriculum. Prerequisite: ENG 201 and sophomore standing or permission of instructor.

EDUC 398 ESL Practicum

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

Students teach and/or tutor ESL students under the supervision of a university supervisor in settings that require application of skills and principles developed in the ESL curriculum.

EDUC 402 Agricultural Education Laboratory Instruction, Methods, and Management

3 credit hours

Secondary agricultural education laboratory instructional delivery and assessment. Organizing and planning instructional content, lesson planning, methods of laboratory instructional delivery, student behavior management, and assessments to support all students and meet rigorous learning goals in shop, science, food science, animal, and greenhouse laboratories. Using cross-disciplinary skills, technological tools, discipline-specific equipment, and safety. Considerable time is spent on undergraduates demonstrating instructional delivery. Prerequisite: EDUC 302, EDUC 370, EDUC 324S and Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 403 Evidence-Based Strategies and Interventions

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Evidence-based strategies and interventions to address learner differences in the areas of academic and behavioral challenges. Emphasis on pre-referral interventions, planning for instruction, instructional strategies, leadership and collaboration. Includes dyslexia. Prerequisite: EDUC 324E, Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 405 Math Methods for the Elementary Classroom

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Elementary mathematics standards, curriculum, instruction, and assessment for diverse classrooms. Emphasis on learner development and differences, learning environment, content knowledge and application, assessment, planning, instructional strategies, professionalism and collaboration. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program.

EDUC 406 Science Methods for the Elementary Classroom
2 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Elementary science standards, curriculum, instruction, and assessment for diverse classrooms including, but not limited to, the topics of physical science, life science, and earth/space science. Emphasis on learner development and differences, learning environment, content knowledge and application, assessment, planning, instructional strategies, professionalism and collaboration. Prerequisite: Admission to Education Program.

MATH 128 Introduction to Data Analytics

3 credit hours

The course combines three perspectives: inferential thinking, computational thinking, and real-world relevance. The course teaches critical concepts and skills in algorithmic problem solving and statistical inference, in conjunction with hands-on analysis of real-world datasets.

MATH 129 Foundations of Data Analytics

3 credit hours

This course is intended as a continuation of Foundations of Data Analytics I. In this course, you'll learn how Data Analytics are applied within the workforce. Particular attention will be paid to the role of the Data Scientist or Analyst, machine learning and the applications of Big Data. By the end of the term, you will be able to design and execute a range of data-driven experiments. Prerequisite: MATH 128.

MATH 132 College Algebra

3 credit hours [Spring]

An overview of fundamental algebraic concepts. Real and complex numbers, algebraic expressions, equations and inequalities, functions, polynomials, rational expressions, graphing, exponential and logarithmic functions, systems of equations and matrices. Prerequisite: two years of high school algebra.

MATH 152 Basic Algebraic Modeling

3 credit hours [Spring]

This course involves the applications of elementary algebra, statistics, and regression to solve real-world problems with the use of technology.

MATH 182 Calculus with Applications

3 credit hours [Fall]

An overview of calculus. Topics include limits, continuity, differentiation, exponential growth and decay, integration and the fundamental theorem of calculus. Applications to business, life sciences and social sciences will be emphasized. Prerequisite: four years of high school mathematics or equivalent.

MATH 184 Calculus I

4 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

A beginning course in the analysis of functions including analytic geometry. A study of limits, techniques and applications of differentiation, basic integration and transcendental functions. Prerequisite: 4 years of high school mathematics or equivalent.

MATH 186 Calculus II

4 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

A continuation of Calculus I. Topics studied include integration, analytical geometry and vectors in two-dimensional space, and techniques of integration. Prerequisite: A grade of C or higher in MATH 184 or instructor's permission.

MATH 201 Concepts of Mathematics I

3 credit hours [Fall]

An activities approach to problem solving, systems of numeration, properties of whole numbers, integers, fractions, real numbers, and numerical operations, number theory and statistics. Only available to Early Childhood, Elementary Education and Special Education students. Prerequisite: Sophomore level or higher.

MATH 223 Mathematical Theory of Interest

3 credit hours

Actuaries focus on using math and statistics to evaluate risk and make strategic decisions. This course covers a range of topics relevant to actuaries, including measurement of interest rates, interest theory, and the pricing of bonds, mortgages, annuities, and other financial instruments. This course will also fully cover all content required by the Society of Actuaries Financial Mathematics (FM) Exam and its equivalents. Prerequisite: MATH 184.

MATH 252 Mathematical Structures

3 credit hours [Spring]

A transition course which introduces students to logic, set theory, and the axiomatic method. This course is designed for students continuing to higher level mathematics courses. Prerequisite: Sophomore level or higher, or instructor's permission. WI

MATH 284 Calculus III

4 credit hours [Spring]

A continuation of Calculus II. A study of analytic geometry in three dimensional space, partial differentiation, multiple integration and infinite series. Prerequisite: A grade of C or higher in MATH 186.

MATH 301 Concepts of Mathematics II

3 credit hours [Spring]

An activities approach to studying mathematics concepts in probability, functions and algebra, and numerous topics in geometry. Geometrical topics include two and three-dimensional geometry, constructions, congruences, motion and coordinate geometry symmetries and concepts of measurement. Prerequisite: A grade of a C or higher in MATH 201 or one semester of calculus.

MATH 305 Mathematics for Elementary/Middle Level Teachers

3 credit hours [Fall]

An activities approach to problem solving, systems of numeration, properties of whole numbers, integers, fractions, real numbers, numerical operations, number theory, geometry, algebra, functions, statistics, and probability. Prerequisite: three hours of college level mathematics and sophomore level or higher, or permission of the instructor.

MATH 318 Seminar in Mathematics

1-3 credit hours

Math topics of interest, readings and problems in mathematics. Prerequisite: 15 hours of college mathematics or permission of instructor.

MATH 321 Numerical Analysis

3 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

An introduction to the basic algorithms of numerical analysis. Topics include floating point arithmetic, interpolation and approximation, numerical integration, systems of linear equations, solution of non-linear equations, and solution of ordinary differential equations. Assignments using Mathematica will give experience in applying selected algorithms.

Prerequisites: CS 131 and 141, and Math 384 are strongly recommended. Same as CS 321.

MATH 322 Foundations of Statistics

3 credit hours

A study of mathematical statistics including probability distributions sampling theory, point estimation, methods of correlation and regression, and the principles of statistical inference. Prerequisite: A grade of a C or higher in MATH 186.

MATH 323 Probability for Actuaries

3 credit hours.

Actuaries and quantitative professionals deal primarily in probabilities. This course will cover a wide range of topics and introduce you to core probability concepts needed for actuarial and quantitative work. You will be able to apply to concepts of probability to real-world scenarios. This course will also fully cover all content required by the Society of Actuaries P Exam and its equivalents. Prerequisite: MATH 284.

MATH 328 Principles and Techniques of Data Analytics I

3 credit hours

This course is based heavily on UC Berkeley's Data 100 class. Data Analytics combines data, computation and inferential thinking to solve challenging problems and understand their intricacies. This class explores key principles and techniques of data science, and teaches students how to create informative data visualizations. It also explores particular concepts of Linear Algebra which are central to Data Science. Prerequisites: MATH 129 and CS 141.

MATH 329 Principles and Techniques of Data Analytics II

3 credit hours

This course builds on Principles and Techniques of Data Analytics I to provide students with a more robust understanding of the tools of a Data Scientist. Data Analytics combines data, computation, and inferential thinking to solve challenging problems to thereby better understand the world. This class explores key principles and techniques of data science, including quantitative critical thinking and algorithms for machine learning methods. It will also introduce students to the ways in which data analytics is deployed in healthcare, marketing, political science, criminal justice, and other fields. Prerequisites: MATH 184 and MATH 328.

MATH 332 Abstract Algebra

3 credit hours

An introduction to algebraic structures with an emphasis on groups, subgroups, and group isomorphisms. A brief introduction to rings, domains and fields. Prerequisite: A grade of a C or higher in MATH 252 and upper-level standing.

MATH 333 Linear Algebra

3 credit hours

Linear algebraic structures, their theory and application. Matrices, determinants, linear transformations, programming, vectors and vector spaces, dependence, inner products, row operations and echelon systems. Prerequisite: A grade of a C or higher in MATH 186; MATH 252 is recommended.

MATH 335 Number Theory

3 credit hours [Fall]

Mathematical induction, greatest common divisor, fundamental theorem of arithmetic, prime and composite integers, and congruences. Prerequisite: A grade of a C or higher in MATH 252 and three semesters of college mathematics.

MATH 348 Discrete Mathematics

3 credit hours [Spring]

An applied course in discrete mathematical structures emphasizing their application to computer science. The course will relate mathematical concepts such as trees, graphs, combinatorics, relations and groups to computer science problems and applications. Computer science topics integrated into the course include data structures, algorithm design and algorithmic analysis and testing. Prerequisite: MATH 252. CS 131 is highly recommended).

MATH 365 Foundations of Geometry

3 credit hours

An introduction to the general study of geometries including projective, finite, and non-Euclidean geometries. Prerequisites: high school geometry, three semesters of college mathematics and a grade of a C or higher in MATH 252.

MATH 382 Real Analysis

3 credit hours

Properties of the real number system, sequences, limits, continuity, the derivative, Riemann integral, the Fundamental Theorem of Calculus and series. Prerequisites: A grade of a C or higher in MATH 252 and 284.

MATH 384 Differential Equations

3 credit hours

A study of ordinary differential equations, first and higher order, systems linear and non-linear, their solutions and applications, including La Place Transforms. Prerequisite: A grade of a C or higher in MATH 186.

MATH 423 Actuarial Science and Risk Management with R

3 credit hours

This course focuses on team-based problem solving in actuarial science & risk management. Students will learn the fundamentals of the R programming language, RStudio and R Markdown, and use these tools to complete a range of projects. Projects vary, but may include bond and loan amortization, analysis of the efficient frontier and the capital asset pricing method, insurance liability & estimates of expected loss. This course culminates in a capstone project that ties together skills from throughout the Actuarial Sciences program. Prerequisites: CS 131, Math 323.

MATH 428 Data Analytics Practicum

3 credit hours

This course is a capstone project in which students are asked to work through a full data science workflow on a set of real data drawn from sports, politics, business or public health. This course exists to prepare students for the kind of work they will do on Data Science or Analytics teams, and as such, also features an emphasis on interviewing for jobs in the space and communicating results to stakeholders. Prerequisite: CS 344, MATH 329.

MATH 475 Mathematical Modeling

3 credit hours [Spring]

This course is an introduction to mathematical modeling of deterministic and stochastic dynamical systems. Differential equations, matrices, elementary probability and statistics will be applied to the development and analysis of continuous and discrete models that arise in the physical, biological, social and management sciences. Prerequisites: A grade of a C or higher in MATH 322, 333, and 384.

MUSIC

MU 102 Aural Skills I

1 credit hour [Fall]

This course is an in-depth introductory study of the fundamentals of music theory with emphasis on the development of aural performance and perception. Content includes melodic and rhythmic dictation, sight singing with moveable do solfège, and contextual listening. Corequisite (for students whose program requires this course): MU 103.

MU 103 Music Theory I

3 credit hours [Fall]

The procedures of writing and analyzing music in the common practice idiom, including music notation in manuscript and with a computer, keys and scales, rhythm and meter, intervals, triads and seventh chords, figured bass, orchestral transpositions, roman numeral and lead sheet analysis, part writing and melody harmonization using triads, harmonic progressions, cadences and periods, and setting texts to music in an original composition. Corequisite (for students whose program requires this course): MU 102.

MU 104 Aural Skills II

1 credit hour [Spring]

This course is a continuation of Aural Skills I and includes sight singing, melodic and harmonic dictation, and contextual listening of moderate difficulty. Prerequisite: a grade of C or higher in both MU 102 and MU 103. Corequisite (for students whose program requires this course): MU 105.

MU 105 Music Theory II

3 credit hours [Spring]

A continuation of MU 103, the procedures of writing and analyzing music in the common practice idiom. Topics include non-chord tones; part writing and melody harmonization using seventh chords, secondary dominants, and secondary leading-tone chords; common-chord, common tone, and circle-of-fifths modulations; piano accompaniments; and large-scale formal structures—all synthesized in an original composition. Prerequisite: a grade of C or higher in both MU 102 and MU 103. Corequisite (for students whose program requires this course): MU 104.

MU 111 Music Appreciation

3 credit hours [Fall]

This course is designed as a music appreciation course for the non-music major. It covers the elements of music, with a historical overview of western art music, and important composers and their works of music. The ability to read music is not required.

MU 112 Film Music

3 credit hours [Fall even calendar years & every spring]

This course develops the ability to listen critically to and analyze film music through the study of a broad range of film genres and music either written for films or previously composed and used in films. The ability to read music is not required.

MU 114 Jazz: An American Experience

3 credit hours [Fall]

This course explores the fundamentals of jazz. Students will gain an understanding of jazz styles and eras, the musical forms employed in jazz music, and the experiences of American cultural identity and how this heritage has shaped the development of jazz. The ability to read music is not required.

MU 115 History of Rock

3 credit hours [Spring]

A survey of the early history of rock music, including its antecedents in rhythm and blues and country. The course consists of two areas of study: analysis of musical characteristics and evolving styles, and a consideration of the sociopolitical impact rock music has had on the second half of the twentieth century, with emphasis on the role of Rock as an important voice of the counterculture. Rock's interconnection with other arts such as film and poetry are also discussed. The ability to read music is not required.

MU 202 Aural Skills III

1 credit hour [Fall]

This course is a continuation of Aural Skills II and includes advanced rhythms, chromatic pitches, modulations, and advanced harmonic language in sight singing, melodic and harmonic dictation, and contextual listening. Students whose program requires this course take it concurrently with MU 203. Prerequisite: a grade of C or higher in both MU 104 and MU 105.

MU 203 Music Theory III

3 credit hours [Fall]

A continuation of MU 105, this course is a study of chromatic harmony. Topics include secondary dominant function chords, borrowed chords and modal mixture, Neapolitan 6 chords, augmented 6th chords, extended sonorities, altered dominant and chromatic mediant chords, and modulations to remote keys. Prerequisite: a grade of C or higher in both MU 104 and MU 105. Corequisite: MU 202.

MU 204 Aural Skills IV

1 credit hour [Spring]

This course is a continuation of Aural Skills III and includes advanced rhythms, chromatic pitches, modulations, advanced harmonic language, and modes in sight singing, melodic and harmonic dictation, and contextual listening. Students whose program requires this course take it concurrently with MU 205. Prerequisite: a grade of C or higher in both MU 202 and MU 203.

MU 205 Music Theory IV

3 credit hours [Spring]

A course in form and analysis; that is, the study and analysis of the techniques of development used in eighteenth-century polyphonic inventions and fugues, the classical sonata form, theme and variations, and rondo form. Other topics include harmonic and structural innovations found in the music of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries, including postmodern collage. Prerequisite: a grade of C or higher in both M 202 and MU 203. Corequisite: MU 204.

MU 211 Music History to 1750

3 credit hours [Fall]

A survey of music history and literature from ancient times to about 1750. Prerequisite: MU 105. WI

MU 212 Music History since 1750

3 credit hours [Spring]

A survey of music history and literature from about 1750 to the present. Prerequisite: MU 105.

MU 213 World Music

3 credit hours [Spring]

A study of music and musical cultures outside the western art music tradition, including the classical and folk music of nonwestern societies. For music majors and others who meet the prerequisite. Prerequisite: MU 105. GMC

MU 251 Conducting I

2 credit hours [Fall]

Conducting I is an introduction to the basics of conducting. Topics include conducting patterns for duple, triple, and quadruple meters; preparatory beats and breaths; the art of conducting; score reading and preparation; baton technique; left hand independence; nonverbal communication; leadership; terminology.

MU 253 Conducting II

2 credit hours [Spring]

A study of advanced conducting techniques. Topics include conducting patterns for symmetrical and asymmetrical meters, subdivisions, syncopation, and further development of preparatory beats and breaths, the art of conducting, score reading and preparation, baton technique, left-hand independence, nonverbal communication, leadership, and terminology. Prerequisite: MU 251.

MU 303 Arranging

2 credit hours [Spring]

This course addresses basic issues of scoring and creating original arrangements for voice, keyboards, and common wind and/or string instruments. Particular emphasis is placed on arranging music for school ensembles. Prerequisite: MU 105.

MU 320 Seminar in Music

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

An in-depth study of a topic selected by the instructor. May be repeated for credit when the topic differs. Prerequisite: MU 211 or MU 212 (as appropriate to topic), or instructor's permission.

MU 354 Diction

2 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

The goal of this course is to develop a fundamental working knowledge of the International Phonetic Alphabet as it is used in vocal diction and pedagogy. Languages covered include English, Latin, Italian, German, and French.

MU 399 Independent Study

1-3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

This course is designed for students interested in pursuing a topic not otherwise offered. The topic is selected in consultation with the instructor. There is an additional fee for this course.

MU 493 Senior Project

1-2 credit hours [By arrangement]

This course is the capstone experience for all undergraduate music programs. It contains two parts: the planning, preparation, and public performance of a recital, and the research and development of a supporting written project. Enrollment is limited to music majors in their final year of study. Corequisite: 2 hours of 400-level applied instruction on the student's principal instrument, regardless of program of study.

MUSIC: APPLIED

The principal objectives of applied instruction are the development of performing competencies and the ability to read, understand, and bring to performance musical compositions.

Below are the various areas in which applied instruction is available. There are four levels of instruction. Students with no prior experience should register for 100-level. Students with prior experience or training should register for the 200-level. Advanced skills and abilities are required to register for 300 & 400 levels (instructor permission needed).

Course fees are charged for applied instruction in addition to tuition (except for MUAP 151, 161, and 171, which are all group lessons) (Note: Applied music classes for every level & instrument will be offered each semester with sufficient demand).

MUAP x11 Trumpet*MUAP x12 Horn*MUAP x13 Trombone*MUAP x14 Euphonium*MUAP x15 Tuba*MUAP x21 Flute*MUAP x22 Oboe*MUAP x23 Bassoon*MUAP x24 Clarinet*MUAP x25 Saxophone*MUAP x31 Violin*MUAP x32 Viola*MUAP x33 Cello*MUAP x34 Double Bass*MUAP x41 Percussion*MUAP x51 Voice*MUAP x61 Guitar*MUAP x62 Bass Guitar*MUAP x71 Piano (classical repertoire, 16th century to present)

MUAP x81 Organ

MUAP 291, 391, 491 Composition (Prerequisite: MU 105 or permission of instructor)

MUAP 272 Keyboard Skills

1 credit hour

A course to prepare music majors for the keyboard proficiency exam, although it is also open to non-majors. Topics include sight reading, playing hymns, transposition, accompaniments, and realizing lead sheet notation. Some prior knowledge of music theory is expected. Taught as a private piano lesson (fee applies). Prerequisite: MUAP 171 or permission of instructor.

MUAP 385 Service Playing I

1 credit hour

A practical course designed to develop skills in leadership of the congregation's song from the organ. Prerequisite: MUAP 281.

MUAP 386 Service Playing II

1 credit hour

A continuation of Service Playing I, this course continues to develop skills in leadership of the congregation's song in a variety of styles from the organ and piano. Prerequisite: MUAP 385.

Applied music lessons are available for one credit; music majors, and advanced students with permission of the instructor, may register for one or two credits. An exception is MUAP 171 Piano, which is taken for two credits and is available to all students regardless of major.

Applied music courses cannot be taken for zero hours.

MUSIC: CHURCH MUSIC

CHMU 221 Introduction to Church Music

2 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

An introduction to the vocation of church musician. Topics include the philosophy of church music; the role of the church musician; working with children, youth, and adults; the church year and lectionary; leading ensembles; and professional organizations and resources. The course, which includes ten hours of fieldwork, is intended primarily for individuals preparing to be church musicians.

CHMU 313 Christian Hymnody

2 credit hours [Fall, even calendar years]

A study of the hymns of western Christianity from the earliest times to the present. Although those used by Lutherans will be a particular focus, the course includes hymns from all traditions.

CHMU 320 Church Choral Methods

2 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

Methods of teaching choral music to children, youth, and adults in a church setting. The course is designed to help pre-professional church music students gain the necessary tools to be successful leading ensembles.

CHMU 325 Organ Literature and Design

2 credit hours [Fall, even calendar years]

A study of repertoire for the organ from the Renaissance to the present, various principles of design and construction, and the intersection between literature, design, and music history.

CHMU 390 Service Project in Church Music

1 credit hour [Fall & Spring]

This course relates church music to community service in a way that fulfills the university's service-learning component of general education. Students design, carry out, and assess projects under the direction of a faculty supervisor. Prerequisite: junior standing in the church music program and permission of instructor. SL

CHMU 411 Christian Liturgy

3 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

A history of Christian liturgy from earliest times to present with particular attention paid to Lutheran use. Includes a discussion of theological, textual, musical, and cultural issues. The course is especially valuable for future church workers (in any program), and the ability to read music is not required.

CHMU 421 Church Music Administration

2 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

How to administer a comprehensive church music program. Topics include church music philosophy, music planning, budgeting, congregational education, recruiting, working with church staff and other musicians, and current theological and pastoral issues in church music. The course, which includes ten hours of fieldwork, is intended primarily for church music majors. Pre or corequisites: CHMU 313 (Christian Hymnody), CHMU 411 (Christian Liturgy), or permission of instructor.

MUSIC: EDUCATION

MUED 201 Introduction to Music Education

3 credit hours [Fall]

This course provides the student with an overview of the profession of music education through the study of its history, philosophy, and current methodology, climate, and trends. Ten hours of field experiences are required.

MUED 221 Woodwind Techniques

1 credit hour [Fall]

Elementary instruction in flute, oboe, clarinet, saxophone, and bassoon, including correct tone production, embouchure development, finger technique, articulation, intonation, transposition, and instrument maintenance, with a goal of teaching the instruments to beginning students and directing student ensembles.

MUED 222 Brass Techniques

1 credit hour [Spring]

Elementary instruction in trumpet, horn, trombone, baritone, and tuba, including tone production, posture, breathing, and articulation, with a goal of teaching the instruments to beginning students and directing student ensembles.

MUED 223 Percussion Techniques

1 credit hour [Spring]

Elementary instruction in snare drum, timpani, and other percussion instruments, with a goal of teaching the instruments to beginning students and directing student ensembles.

MUED 224 String Techniques

1 credit hour [Fall]

Elementary instruction in violin, viola, cello, and bass, including tuning, bowing, fingering, knowledge of posture, and care of instrument, with a goal of teaching the instruments to beginning students and directing student ensembles.

MUED 301 Elementary Music Methods

3 credit hours [Spring]

This course is designed to prepare students for teaching music to children in grades K–6. Emphasis is placed on developing a philosophy of music education that considers the developmental needs of children as foundational in the process of teaching music concepts. The course consists of lectures, teaching demonstrations, peer teaching, music classroom observations, a review of music education literature, and the development of a teaching portfolio. Students will develop skills in teaching music that incorporate singing, movement, playing instruments, listening, creating, and writing. Prerequisite: MUED 201.

MUED 302 Instrumental Music Methods

3 credit hours [Fall]

This course is designed to prepare music education students to apply the knowledge and skills they have learned in music theory, history, conducting, performance, and education courses to the study of instrumental music education so they are able to provide effective instruction. Ten hours of field experience are required. Prerequisite: MUED 201.

MUED 303 Choral Music Methods

3 credit hours [Spring]

The study of methods of teaching choral music for elementary, middle-level, and high school music educators. The course is designed to help pre-professional music educators gain the necessary tools to be successful in teaching K–12 music. Ten hours of field experience are required. Prerequisite: MUED 201.

MUED 401 Organization and Administration of PreK-12 Music Programs

2 credit hours [Fall]

This course is a study of the organizational structure and administrative functions music teachers need for delivery of PreK–12 music programs. Course topics include music education philosophy, assessment and evaluation techniques, classroom management, curriculum development and evaluation, advocacy, and administrative and leadership issues. Prerequisite: MUED 201 and admission to the teacher education program.

MUED 451 Student Teaching Seminar

0 credit hours [Spring]

Student Teaching Seminar is a noncredit course designed to assist student teachers, who participate in a discussion forum with other pre-professionals to address issues, experiences, problems, and questions that arise during student teaching. Topics of discussion include classroom management, teaching strategies, successes, challenges, etc. This course is taken during the student teaching semester. SL

MUSIC: ENSEMBLES

In order to meet varying interests, the music department offers a wide choice of instrumental, choral, and mixed ensembles. The essential purposes of each ensemble are artistic performance and the development of musicianship. Ensembles are open to all students, although some require auditions. Grading for ensembles is pass/fail, and all may be taken for credit or zero hours (although certain programs require them to be taken for credit-check program requirements). (Note: all music ensembles are offered every fall and spring.)

MU 232 Male Chorus

0-1 credit hour

The Male Chorus numbers 25 to 30 members and performs sacred and secular choral music for male voices from early historical periods to the present. Performance venues include Concordia chapel services, local church services, the annual Christmas at Concordia concerts, a spring concert, and occasional events on and off campus. Male Chorus may occasionally combine with Cantamus to give students a mixed choir experience. Rehearses three 50-minute periods per week. Open to all male voices by audition.

MU 233 Cantamus

0-1 credit hour

Cantamus numbers 45 to 55 members and performs sacred and secular choral music for treble voices from early historical periods to the present. The name Cantamus, Latin for “we sing,” represents the importance of singing together as with one voice, sharing our common faith and experiences through song. Performance venues include Concordia chapel services, local church services, the annual Christmas at Concordia concerts, a spring concert, and occasional events on and off campus. Cantamus may occasionally combine with Male Chorus to give students a mixed choir experience. Rehearses three 50-minute periods per week. Open to all treble voices by audition.

MU 234 Mixed Chorus

0-1 credit hour

The Mixed Chorus is an SATB choir that performs easy to medium sacred choral literature, with a focus on the development of vocal technique. Performance venues include Concordia chapel services and local church services. Rehearses Monday evenings. No audition is required.

MU 236 University A Cappella Choir

0-1 credit hour

The University A Cappella Choir is the concert choir of the university and the premier choral ensemble. Repertoire for the 72-voice select mixed choir is chosen from the entire spectrum of choral music, including new works by local and regional composers and music from a variety of cultures. The choir maintains a rigorous rehearsal and concert schedule, touring nationally and internationally. Rehearses five 50-minute periods per week, with additional sectional rehearsals. Open to all students by audition.

MU 237 University Chamber Choir

0-1 credit hour

The University Chamber Choir is a 16-voice select choir that sings a diverse repertoire of choral chamber music and vocal jazz. The group tours regionally and nationally. Members are chosen from the University A Cappella Choir. Rehearses two 50-minute periods per week, with additional sectional rehearsals.

MU 241 University Concert Band

0-1 credit hour

The University Concert Band is the university's premier instrumental ensemble. Repertoire is chosen from the entire spectrum of wind ensemble and concert band literature and includes both traditional repertoire and newly composed works. The University Concert Band keeps an active rehearsal schedule and tour both regionally and nationally. Rehearses three days per week for a total of five hours. Open to all students by audition.

MU 242 University Band

The University Band performs a diverse array of sacred and traditional band repertoire. Membership is open to all Concordia students and members of the community. The group rehearses one evening per week. University Band is an open enrollment ensemble with auditions conducted for placement within each section.

MU 245 Small Ensemble

0-1 credit hour

Small ensembles comprise instruments and/or voices. They are offered occasionally as interest dictates. Most groups rehearse one hour per week. Open to all students with the permission of the instructor.

MU 246 Jazz Ensemble

0-1 credit hour

The Jazz Ensemble performs music from the big band era to the latest jazz fusion charts. Performance venues include campus events, school assemblies, and off-campus concerts. Open to all students by audition.

MU 247 Handbell Choir

0-1 credit hour

Concordia has two handbell choirs. Concordia Handbell Choir features our most advanced ringers; Concordia Ringers is designed for ringers with less experience. The ensembles prepare music from the standard handbell literature for performance in Concordia chapel services, local church services, and concerts on and off campus. Prior ringing experience is not required for the beginning ensemble, but you must be able to read music. Each group rehearses two 50-minute periods per week. Open to all students by audition.

MU 248 Chamber Orchestra

0-1 credit hour

The Chamber Orchestra performs music for small orchestra and string ensemble. Performances are normally on campus. Rehearses one day per week for 80 minutes. Open to all students, with auditions for placement held at the start of each semester.

MUSIC: MUSIC THERAPY

MT 161 Introduction to Music Therapy

3 credit hours [Fall]

This course will introduce the profession of music therapy. Students will explore research literature, analyze public awareness of music therapy, observe and measure the effectiveness of music therapy techniques, and develop a working definition of music therapy. Course assignments and field experiences will reinforce course content.

MT 166 Foundations of Music Therapy

3 credit hours [Spring]

This course provides an overview of the psychological foundations of music therapy, including psychoacoustics and hearing, music perception, influence of music on the brain and behavior, musical development and learning, and aesthetics of music. It also introduces the student to evidence-based practice principles used in music therapy, including evaluation of research. In particular, it prepares students for the subsequent developmental sequence of methods courses and pre-internship fieldwork. Pre- or corequisite: MT 161.

MT 266 Pre-practicum

1 credit hour [Fall]

This course is intended to prepare students majoring in music therapy for practicum experiences in the community. Through observation of professional music therapists and/or upper-level music therapy majors, students learn and develop skills related to the music therapy treatment process. Thirty hours of clinical training are required along with weekly written observations. Clinical and professional topics are discussed in a weekly seminar.

MT 268 Methods of Music Therapy: Physical Goals

3 credit hours [Spring]

This course provides an overview of the influence of music on physical needs and functioning. Students learn music therapy approaches used to address physical goals in children and adults. Experiential opportunities to develop skills in providing evidence-based interventions are included. Basic therapeutic instrument mastery of keyboard, guitar, autoharp, percussion, and voice are practiced in class. Prerequisites: (1) MT 266; (2) full admission to the music major; (3) 1 semester of applied guitar or equivalent proficiency; and (4) 1 semester applied voice or equivalent proficiency. Corequisite: MT 269.

MT 269 Practicum I: Physical Goals

1 credit hour [Spring]

This course builds on the pre-practicum course and is the first in the sequence of pre-internship field experiences. It assists the student in integrating knowledge and skills obtained in the music therapy curriculum and applying them to clinical practice. Through observation of professional music therapists and/or upper-level music therapy majors, students learn and develop clinical and musical skills related to the treatment process. Thirty hours of clinical training at a community site are required along with weekly written observations. Students co-lead two sessions at end of the semester and submit required documentation. Clinical and professional topics are discussed in a weekly on-campus seminar. Some community sites may require a background check. Professional liability insurance is required.

Prerequisites: MT 161, MT 166. Co-requisite: MT 268. Music therapy majors only.

MT 360 Songwriting and Improvisation for Music Therapists
2 credit hours [Fall]

This course develops advanced songwriting and improvisation skills for music therapy treatment. Students utilize various instruments, including keyboard, guitar, autoharp, percussion, and voice to develop original melodies, accompaniments, and short songs for therapy. This experiential course provides weekly opportunities to develop transposition, score reading, and improvisation skills for clinical work. Prerequisites: full admission to the music major and two semesters of applied guitar.

MT 366 Methods of Music Therapy: Communication Goals
3 credit hours [Fall]

This course provides an overview of the influence of music on communication. Students learn music therapy approaches used to improve speech and language functioning in children and adults. Experiential opportunities to develop skills in providing speech and language interventions are included. Basic therapeutic instrument mastery of keyboard, guitar, autoharp, percussion, and voice are practiced in class. Prerequisite: MT 161. Corequisite: MT 367. Music therapy majors only.

MT 367 Practicum II: Communication Goals
1 credit hour [Fall]

This course is the second in the sequence of pre-internship field experiences. It assists the student in integrating knowledge and skills obtained in the music therapy curriculum and applying them in clinical practice. Through observation of professional music therapists and/or upper-level music therapy majors, students learn and develop clinical and musical skills related to the treatment process. Thirty hours of clinical training at a community site are required along with weekly written observations. Students co-lead four sessions and submit required documentation. Clinical and professional topics are discussed in a weekly on-campus seminar. Some community sites may require a background check. Professional liability insurance is required. Prerequisites: MT 161, MT 266, MT 269. Corequisite: MT 366. Music therapy majors only.

MT 368 Methods of Music Therapy: Psychological Goals
3 credit hours [Spring]

This course provides an overview of the influence of music on psychological functioning. Students learn music therapy approaches used to improve cognitive, behavioral, and emotional functioning in children and adults. Experiential opportunities to develop skills in providing evidence-based interventions are included. Basic therapeutic instrument mastery of keyboard, guitar, autoharp, percussion, and voice are practiced in class. Prerequisites: MT 161, MT 166. Corequisite: MT 369. Music therapy majors only.

MT 369 Practicum III: Psychological Goals
1 credit hour [Spring]

This course is the third in the sequence of pre-internship field experiences. It assists the student in integrating knowledge and skills obtained in the music therapy curriculum and applying them to clinical practice. Through observation of professional music therapists and/or upper-level music therapy majors, students learn and develop clinical and musical skills related to the treatment process. Thirty hours of clinical training at a community site are required along with weekly written observations. Students co-lead eight sessions and submit required documentation. Clinical and professional topics are discussed in a weekly on-campus seminar. Some community sites may require a background check. Professional liability insurance is required. Prerequisites: MT 161, MT 166, MT 266. Co-requisite: MT 368. Music therapy majors only. SL

MT 466 Professional Development for Music Therapists
3 credit hours [Fall]

This seminar prepares the student music therapist for internship placement, the board certification exam, and professional skills. Other topics include a review of the Standards of Practice, Professional Competencies, and the Code of Ethics. Students will take a practice board exam and evaluate results. Options for earning required continuing education credits are reviewed, and issues related to professional advocacy are discussed. Other topics includes career planning through preparation of a résumé and the job application process, with mock auditions and interviews conducted. Prerequisite: senior standing. Music therapy majors only.

MT 467 Practicum IV: Competency Development
1 credit hour [Fall]

This course is the fourth in the sequence of pre-internship field experiences. It assists the student in further developing specific competencies needed before internship. Students will be systematically placed to meet current competency needs with a focus on educational settings. Thirty hours of clinical training at a community site are required along with weekly written observations. Students co-lead twelve sessions and submit required documentation. Clinical and professional topics are discussed in a weekly on-campus seminar. Some community sites may require a background check. Professional liability insurance is required. Prerequisite: senior standing. Music therapy majors only.

MT 468 Program Development for Music Therapists
3 credit hours [Spring]

This seminar prepares the student music therapist for developing new music therapy programs in a variety of settings, including private practice. Students design an evidence-based program for a community site that does not have a music therapy program. Proposals are presented in class and at the community site. This course also provides an overview of music therapy service reimbursement and financing. Prerequisite: senior standing.

MT 469 Practicum V: Internship Preparation
1 credit hour [Spring]

This course is the fifth and final practicum in the series of pre-internship field experiences. It prepares the student for increased independence, spontaneity, repertoire development, and clinical and musical competency expected upon entering internship. Thirty hours of clinical training at a community site are required along with weekly written observations, and students co-lead or lead fifteen sessions and submit required documentation. Clinical and professional topics are discussed in a weekly on-campus seminar. Prerequisites: senior standing and permission of instructor. Music therapy majors only.

MT 494 Internship

0-3 credit hours [By arrangement]

A minimum of 1,020 hours of clinical music therapy provided under the supervision of an AMTA-approved internship director and staff. Upon completion, music therapy interns will be able to demonstrate proficiency in all AMTA professional competencies.

PHILOSOPHY

PHIL 100 Ethical Foundations for Life

3 credit hours

A review and study of the history and literature of sacred texts that provide the foundation for Western Cultural, religious and faith understandings with an emphasis on summarizing and communicating their major themes.

PHIL 210 Epistemology, Worldviews and the Search for Meaning

3 credit hours

A study of the Western cultural, religious, and faith understandings that informs the person to serve in faith communities within the family, the community, and the world. Particular attention will be given to such topics but not limited to worldview, vocation, faith heritage, stewardship, ethics and select contemporary issues. Prerequisite: Successful completion of PHIL 100 or permission of the department chair. Same as THEO 210.

PHIL 301 Concepts in Philosophy

3 credit hours

A general orientation in the field of philosophy through a consideration of its major types and problems. Emphasis upon the practice of critical thinking and an appreciation of the greater thought systems of history.

PHIL 311 History of Philosophical Thought I

3 credit hours

The course is an introduction to and a review of the development of western philosophy from the Pre-Socratics through William of Ockham, and an introduction to the process of philosophical investigation. The course treats especially the impact of the philosophical tradition on the development of Christian theology.

PHIL 312 History of Philosophical Thought II

3 credit hours

An introduction to Western philosophy beginning with Descartes and British empiricism, an introductory treatment of Immanuel Kant and the thinkers of the Nineteenth Century, an introductory engagement with Martin Heidegger, existentialism and other Twentieth Century thinkers and a basic introduction to postmodern philosophy.

PHIL 319 Introduction to Symbolic Logic

3 credit hours

An introduction to mathematical (symbolic) logic including history and development, sentential and predicate logic (including equivalence, implication, deduction, completeness, compactness, and soundness) cardinality, computability, and incompleteness. Same as MATH 219.

PHIL 499 Honors Course

3 credit hours [By Arrangement]

The course is designed to offer some flexibility for the student wishing to accomplish a minor in philosophy. By agreement with the department the student can accomplish a semester focus on a particular philosopher or school of philosophy or issue in philosophy. The student can fulfill this course also by work in their major department on a topic or school of thought that investigates philosophical underpinnings and questions pertinent to their major discipline, e.g., philosophy of science, philosophy in literature, philosophical theology, etc. This option should be undertaken by mutual agreement of both the philosophy instructor(s) and the pertinent department instructor and their departments.

PHYSICS

PHYS 109 Introductory Physics

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

Lecture 2, Lab. 2. An introduction to the concepts of physics used to understand and explain the sensibleness of nature, particle and wave ideas, theories that explain everyday phenomena. Not open to students who have had a year of high school physics.

PHYS 110 Principles of Physics

4 credit hours [By arrangement]

Lecture 3, Lab. 2. A study of general physics through experiments, lectures and discussion. Science as a way of knowing — Scientific methodology and practice; mechanics of particles and of waves; momentum, energy and conservation laws; thermodynamics; electricity and magnetism; light; relativity and quantum mechanics.

PHYS 111 General Physics I

4 credit hours [Fall]

Lecture 3, Lab. 2. Experiments, lectures and discussions to reveal the sensibleness of nature via mechanics of particles and waves as models, relativity and conservation laws, momentum and energy, and the nature of scientific inquiry. Prerequisite: a year of high physics or PHYS 109, one year of high school algebra or equivalent and trigonometry (concurrent registration acceptable).

PHYS 112 General Physics II

4 credit hours [Spring]

Lecture 3, Lab. 2. Continuation of PHYS 111 with special emphasis on electricity and magnetism, light, and relativity and their relation to conservation principles and current scientific explanation. Prerequisite: PHYS 111 or equivalent.

PHYS 211 General Physics I Calculus Topics

1 credit hour [Fall]

Lecture 1. A calculus-based treatment of topics covered in PHYS 111. Enrollment in PHYS 211 and PHYS 111 is equivalent to taking a calculus-based general physics course. Prerequisites: PHYS 111 or concurrent registration. MATH 184 or concurrent registration with instructor's permission.

PHYS 212 General Physics II Calculus Topics

1 credit hour [Spring]

Lecture 1. A calculus-based treatment of topics covered in PHYS 112. Enrollment in PHYS 212 and PHYS 112 is equivalent to taking a calculus-based general physics course. Prerequisites: PHYS 112 or concurrent registration. MATH 186 or concurrent registration with instructor's permission.

PHYS 221 Statics

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

The study of forces on bodies in equilibrium. Force systems, equilibrium, structures, trusses, frames and machines, distributed forces, beams, friction, centers of mass and moments of inertia. Prerequisites: MATH 186, PHYS 111 or equivalent.

PHYS 321 Introductory Mechanics

3 credit hours [Fall, even calendar years]

Lecture 3. Calculus treatment of the motion of particles and rigid bodies using Newtonian force methods: non-inertial reference frames, classical mechanics, relativistic laws of motion of a particle. Prerequisites: calculus and PHYS 111 or permission of instructor, PHYS 381 is recommended.

PHYS 331 Descriptive Astronomy

3 credit hours [Fall]

Lecture 3. See SCI 331.

PHYS 351 Classroom Activities with Physical Science

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

Lecture 1, Lab. 4. See SCI 351.

PHYS 353 Thermodynamics

3 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

See CHEM 353.

PHYS 354 Quantum Mechanics

3 credit hours [Spring, even calendar years]

See CHEM 354.

PHYS 355 Physical Chemistry Laboratory

1 credit hour [Fall, odd calendar years]

Lab. 3. Same as CHEM 355. WI

PHYS 356 Physical Chemistry Laboratory II

1 credit hour [Spring, even calendar years]

Lab. 3. Same as CHEM 356.

PHYS 371 Electronics

3 credit hours [Spring, even calendar years]

Laboratory approach to the study of integrated circuits and transistors. Classroom component for supporting theory. Prerequisites: Calculus and General Physics II. SL

PHYS 381 Modern Physics

3 credit hours [Fall]

Lecture 3. Physics of the 20th century. Relativity, the wave-particle duality, atomic models, the quantum theory. Prerequisites: General Physics and Calculus.

PHYS 382 Advanced Physics Lab. I, II, III

1 credit hour [Fall]

Lab. 3. Selected experiments in modern physics requiring library research. Prerequisite: PHYS 381 or concurrent registration. May be taken more than once. WI

PHYS 383 Introduction to Nuclear and Particle Physics

3 credit hours [Spring, odd calendar years]

Study of nuclear radiations, nuclear structure and models, and the energetics of sub-atomic particle interactions. Prerequisite: PHYS 112 and 381, Calculus or concurrent registration, or permission of instructor.

PHYS 390 Electricity and Magnetism

3 credit hours [Fall, odd calendar years]

Study of electrical and magnetic phenomena and their understanding through models and formulation. Prerequisite: PHYS 112 and MATH 186 or equivalent, PHYS 381 is recommended.

PHYS 395 Advanced Topics in Physics Seminar

3 credit hours [By arrangement]

Advanced study of the concepts and techniques of an area of physics important to the field and outside the content of other physics courses. Specific topics will be determined by the instructor and the students, and may include Quantum Mechanics, Thermodynamics, Optics, Astrophysics, or Atomic Physics. Prerequisites: Upper-level standing in physics or physical sciences, or approval of the instructor.

PHYS 399 Research in Physics

2 credit hours [Spring]

Capstone course in physics. Students perform supervised independent research in physics, and also learn about issues related to the profession. Prerequisites: PHYS 381 and 382 and permission of the instructor.

PHYS 498 Physics Internship

1-3 credit hours [By arrangement]

Students gain experience in a physics related field by working in an internship position under the direct supervision of a physicist and/or an engineer. Students should consult the physics faculty and the director of career planning and placement and also pick up a copy of the guidelines and internship forms from the Office of Career Planning and Placement. Prerequisites: PHYS 111, PHYS 112, PHYS 381, PHYS 382, minimum junior standing and permission of the physics faculty.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

PS 111 American Government

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

An analysis of the U.S. political system and its operation, with emphasis on the national level; constitutional basis of the system, civil rights and liberties, major branches of government, political parties, interest groups, elections, policies and policy making.

PS 211 Global Issues

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

A systematic, interdisciplinary analysis of significant contemporary global problems, with focus on their origins, their consequences, and approaches to their resolution. Examination of these issues from the perspective of Christian social principles. Emphasis on the servant-leader growing in awareness and commitment. GMC

PSY 311 American Foreign Relations

3 credit hours [Fall]

See HIST 311.

PSYCHOLOGY

PSY 101 Introduction to Psychology

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

The course is a survey of psychology as a natural science and a social science. As a study of human behavior and the mind, the course examines current sub-areas of psychology with attention to neurology, the environment, situation and experience, and the self. Throughout the content, the course also considers how presuppositions in philosophy and theology intersect, integrate, and conflict with views on the human condition.

PSY 205 Adult Development and Aging

3 credit hours

This course provides students with an overview of adult lifespan development from a psychological and communicative perspective as well as an introduction to aging studies overall. The course is offered as an elective to students in BA programs and to students in gerontology areas. Same as GERO 205.

PSY 211 Child Development and Psychology

2 credit hours

An in-depth study of factors influencing the development and behavior of children from conception through adolescence. Prerequisite: sophomore standing.

PSY 212 Child Development and Psychology: Young Children

1 credit hour

An intense study of the preschool-age child in twelve key areas of development. Involves weekly observations of a preschool child in a childcare setting. Thirteen hours of field experience required. Prerequisite: PSY 211 or take simultaneously, and sophomore standing. Open to education and psychology majors only or with instructor permission.

PSY 221 Lifespan Development

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

This course will address the entire range of the human life chronologically from the moment of conception through death focusing on the physical, cognitive, social and personality development of each chronological period. Basic theories, research findings, and practical applications will be discussed.

PSY 222 Statistics in the Social Sciences

3 credit hours

This course is an introduction to statistical skills used in the social sciences, including basic quantitative data analysis for frequency distributions, sampling distributions, t tests, analysis of variance, correlation, regression, and non-parametric statistics. Considerable attention is given to applying statistical concepts to real-world scenarios, selecting appropriate statistical tests for a research problem, making data-informed decisions, and developing proficiency with statistical writing published in peer-reviewed, empirical sources. Prerequisite: PSY 101.

PSY 241 Child Psychology

3 credit hours [Fall]

Addresses the development of the child from conception to adolescence focusing on the physical, cognitive, social and personality development of childhood. Basic theories, research findings, and practical applications will be discussed.

PSY 290 Health Psychology

3 credit hours [Spring]

Health Psychology is the study of how biology, behavior, and social context influence health and illness. The course will examine the contributions of psychological research to the understanding, prevention, and treatment of a variety of health concerns. The biopsychosocial-spiritual model will be emphasized, which entails the study of how social, emotional, behavioral, biological, and spiritual factors influence health. The specific topics may include injury, stress, pain management, addictions, patient-physician/practitioner relations, and chronic illnesses such as Alzheimer's, diabetes, and AIDS. Prerequisite: PSY 101. Same as HHP 290.

PSY 295 Psychology of Exercise

3 credit hours [Fall]

This course will cover: (a) psychological theories for understanding and predicting health-oriented exercise behavior; (b) psychological and psychobiological responses to exercise; (c) psychological interventions for increasing exercise participation and adherence. Prerequisite: PSY 101. Same as HHP 295.

PSY 306 Introduction to Psychological and Social Research

3 credit hours [Fall]

This course is an introduction to the philosophy, values, methodology, and objectives of psychological and social research. The main objective of this course is for the student to successfully complete a viable research proposal. Considerable emphasis is given to the following: use of the scientific method in social research; selection of a research problem; review of related literature and theories; structure of a research proposal; descriptive methods; instrument development; experimental methods; and applied research. Prerequisite: SOC 101 or PSY 101; PSY 222 or MATH 122. Same as SOC 306. WI

PSY 324 Psychology of Exceptionality

3 credit hours

This is a survey course which attempts to develop an understanding and appreciation for students with special needs. Characteristics of those with learning disabilities, physical challenges, behavioral disabilities, developmental delays, hearing and vision impairment, and giftedness are studied. Prerequisite(s): Sophomore standing. Education: EDPS 210, Psychology majors: PSY 101. 12 hours of field experience is required.

PSY 341 Group Techniques

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

A seminar–laboratory approach for the study of group work and the group process as they apply to the self, the classroom, youth work, business, and society. Psychology majors should take PSY 101 before PSY 341.

PSY 345 Social Psychology

3 credit hours [Spring]

Social influences on the social and psychological development of the individual; the interaction process, role relationships, development of beliefs and attitudes, dynamics of social groups. Same as SOC 345. Prerequisite: PSY 101 or SOC 101, upper-level standing.

PSY 365 Memory and Cognition

3 credit hours [Fall]

An introduction to basic models, methods of research, and findings in the fields of memory, problem solving, and language. The objective is to apply knowledge of cognitive processes to a variety of situations including organizational and educational settings. Both applications and theory are explored. Prerequisite: PSY 101.

PSY 375 Sensation and Perception

3 credit hours [Fall]

This course is an in-depth study of the human senses. You will develop an appreciation of the remarkable ways in which sensory systems give rise to perceptual experience. A basic knowledge of sensory impairments, of diseases and vulnerabilities of sensory systems, and of the limitations and inaccuracies of sensory judgments will be explored. Both applications and theory are explored. Prerequisite: PSY 101.

PSY 385 Psychological and Sociological Analysis of Modern Literature

3 credit hours

See ENG 385.

PSY 402 Social Gerontology

3 credit hours [Spring]

Social gerontology is the study of the nonphysical aspects of human aging and includes the psychological, social psychological and social aspects of aging. Social gerontology integrates scientific knowledge about social policy and professional practice into the knowledge base created by basic social scientific research. Course includes a review of principles of gerontological research selecting of topics from ageism, theories of development, family and relational networks, sexuality and gender, retirement and financial issues related to social development, and aging and economics. Prerequisite: PSY 205. Same as SOC 333.

PSY 403 Mental Health and Aging

3 credit hours [Fall]

This course will provide students with a comprehensive study of mental health issues associated with aging. Issues include: depression, dementia and the management of lifelong conditions in later life.

PSY 404 Health Aspects of Aging

3 credit hours

This course is designed to develop and expand knowledge and skill to understand and address contemporary health issues in aging. Reviews productive and healthy aging programs, normal aging, age correlated disease and lifespan health.

PSY 406 Applied Research

3 credit hours [Spring]

See SOC 406.

PSY 419 Death, Dying and Trauma

3 credit hours

This course examines the processes, theories and responses to individual and collective trauma, the processes and tasks of dying and the issues of death and bereavement.

PSY 421 Adolescent Psychology and Development

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

The course presents an arranged sequence of psychological and development theories, concepts, and insights designed to inform the practitioner working with adolescents. The content and class interaction cumulatively examine adolescent behavior and belief systems. The aim is to assist the practitioner with grounded yet flexible decision–making when working with young people in the contexts of counseling, teaching, youth ministry, family, and community. Prerequisite: sophomore standing or higher.

PSY 422 Psychology and Development of the Young Adolescent

2 credit hours

The course focuses on 10- to 15-year-olds as they are beginning the transformation from childhood to adolescence. Targeted developmental areas are physical/sexual, social, spiritual, emotional, and cognitive development. Prerequisite: PSY 211 or PSY 421, or simultaneous enrollment.

PSY 442 Introduction to Counseling

3 credit hours [Fall & Spring]

This introductory course is designed to assist the student to 1) reflect upon attitudes as a helping person 2) increase ability to use a problem management model 3) acquire the various skills that undergird an effort to effectively listen and respond to another person and 4) develop a personal philosophy of helping. Prerequisites: PSY 101 and upper-level standing.

PSY 445 Abnormal Psychology

3 credit hours [Fall, Spring, & Summer]

Reviews theories and methods which underlie the classification and study of as well as responses to abnormal behavior. Prerequisites: PSY 101 and upper-level standing.

PSY 446 Case Studies in Abnormal Psychology

1-3 credit hours [Independent study, Fall & Summer]

In-depth studies of individuals who live with mental illness will be conducted using auto-biographical accounts of their lives. Students will be required to use knowledge learned in all previous psychology courses (especially PSY 445) to participate in discussions and to complete assignments. Prerequisite: PSY 445.

PSY 451 Personality Theory

3 credit hours [Fall]

A study of the dynamic organizations within the human organism of those psychophysical systems that determine the individual's unique adjustments to his/her environment. Empirical and speculative viewpoints are studied with careful differentiation between surface and depth factors. A variety of personality theories are explored for direct applicability to the work of teacher, counselor and enabler. Prerequisites: PSY 101 and upper-level standing.

PSY 471 Intro to Neuroscience

3 credit hours

This course is a basic introduction to neuroscience. Students will learn fundamental information about the cellular biology and electrophysiological properties of neurons, neuroanatomy, psychoneuroimmunology, psychopharmacology, and how the activity of neurons can yield sensory perception, motor control, and complex behavioral/psychological functions such as learning and motivation. Both applications and theory are explored. Prerequisite: PSY 101, 3 hours of either BIO 110, 111, or 112, and upper-level standing.

PSY 481 Internship in Psychology

1-3 credit hours [By arrangement]

The internship in psychology is a planned and supervised educational experience which integrates the knowledge and theory of psychology gained through course work with field experience. Students reflectively observe professionals in the field and participate in meaningful and appropriate ways in the work at hand. Prerequisite: advisor's recommendation, upper-level standing. Students should contact the Office of Career Services to obtain the undergraduate internship/practicum packet and review the required process.

PSY 490 Capstone Seminar

3 credit hours [Fall]

The capstone seminar provides students with the opportunity to integrate and apply learning from their entire college experience. Students will develop and complete a project in conjunction with the course instructor or other approved mentor. Approved projects will require students to use skills, methodology and knowledge to address important issues, explore key arguments, and critique common practices germane to their academic discipline. Internships and fieldwork experiences may also be acceptable projects. The course will also prepare students for the transition from college to graduate/professional school. Prerequisite: senior standing.

PSY 495 Neurocognition

3 credit hours

A study of the structure and function of the brain as the biological basis of human thinking; the methods used to examine the relationship between the mind and the brain; the neurological processes of perception, attention, memory, language, mental representation, and decision-making. Prerequisites: PSY 101, BIO 110, 111 or 112, and upper-level standing.

PSY 499 Psychology Honors

1 credit hour [By arrangement]

Arranged for qualified students to conduct research, present research or to assist faculty in psychology related endeavors.

RELIGION*REL 121 History and Literature of the Old Testament

3 credit hours [All]

A historical and theological survey of the Old Testament era and the Old Testament writings with an emphasis on summarizing and communicating their major themes.

REL 131 History and Literature of the New Testament

3 credit hours [All]

A historical and theological survey of the New Testament era and the New Testament writings with an emphasis on summarizing and communicating their major themes.

R.O.T.C.

R.O.T.C. courses are held on UNL's main campus in Lincoln. Registration with UNL is required. Check with the Registrar's Office.

AERO 185/185L Foundation of the United States Air Force I/Leadership Lab

1/0 credit hour

Officership, communication skills, opportunities, and benefits in today's U.S. Air Force. A weekly one and one-half hour Leadership Lab consists of Air Force customs and courtesies, Air Force environment, drill and ceremonies.

AERO 186/186L Foundation of the United States Air Force II/Leadership Lab

1 credit hour

Communication and leadership skills, US Military history, and the organizational structure of today's US Air Force. A weekly one and one-half hour Leadership Lab consists of Air Force customs and courtesies, Air Force environment, drill and ceremonies.

AERO 295/295L The Evolution of US Air and Space Power I/Leadership Lab

1 credit hour

Prerequisite: AERO 186 or permission. History of the development and deployment of airpower from the Wright Brothers' first flight to the Persian Gulf War and how the events were affected by technology, politics, doctrine, and geography. Emphasizes U.S. airpower. Lab introduces cadet leadership training with practical experience.

AERO 296/296L The Evolution of US Air and Space Power II/Leadership Lab

1 credit hour

Prerequisite: AERO 295 or permission. History of the development and deployment of airpower from the Wright Brothers' first flight to the Persian Gulf War and how the events were affected by technology, politics, doctrine and geography. Emphasizes US airpower. Lab continues activities of 295L.

AERO 331/331L Air Force Leadership Studies I/Leadership Lab

3 credit hours

Prerequisite: Permission of professor of aerospace studies. Communications skills, leadership, quality initiatives, and human relations. Requires cadet research and participation in the instructional process. Lab includes practical application of the principles of leadership in the operation and administration of the cadet wing.

AERO 332/332L Air Force Leadership Studies II/Leadership Lab

3 credit hours

Prerequisite: AERO 331, or permission of professor of aerospace studies. Principles of leadership, professionalism, ethics, communications skills, and problem solving, including quality leadership applications. Lab continues activities of 331L.

AERO 441/441L National Security Affairs and Preparation for Active Duty I/Leadership Lab

3 credit hours

Prerequisite: AERO 331, 332, or permission of professor of aerospace studies. Environment in which defense policy is formulated. Requisites for maintaining adequate national security forces; political, economic, and social constraints of the national defense structure; and the overall defense policymaking process. Lab continues activities of 332L.

AERO 442/442L National Security Affairs and Preparation for Active Duty II/Leadership Lab

3 credit hours

Prerequisite: AERO 331, 332, and 441 or permission of professor of aerospace studies. The armed forces as an integral element of society; the broad range of civil–military relations. The role of the professional officer in a democratic society, the socialization process within the armed services, and the military justice system. Lab continues activities of 441L.

MLSC 101/101L Foundations Officership/Leadership Lab I

1 credit hour

Issues and competencies central to a commissioned officer's responsibilities. Understanding officership, leadership, Army values and life skills, such as physical fitness and time management. Lab includes challenging, rewarding, and practical activities in military skill development.

MLSC 102/102L Basic Leadership/Leadership Lab II

1 credit hour

Foundations of leadership: problem solving, communications, military briefings, effective writing, goal setting, physical well-being, techniques for improving listening and speaking skills and counseling. Lab continues activities of Lab I.

MLSC 201/201L Individual Leadership Studies/Leadership Lab III

2 credit hours
