Concordia University's Academy for Excellence: Engaging Young Minds

"We need some perceptive investigators to apprehend the suspects participating in foul play on our campus."
– Dr. Kristy Jurchen
Assistant Professor of Chemistry

The Academy for Excellence is a cross-disciplinary endeavor to offer a university experience to gifted seventh grade students. The annual spring event combines instruction with research and fun in the company of university professors, students and staff. In it's first year, more than 40 students sifted through clues, conducted tests in the lab and interrogated witnesses.

The Academy for Excellence Nomination Process: Participating students are nominated by their junior high or middle school principal in January. Contact the alumni and university relations office for nomination information at:

alumni@cune.edu or 800 535 5494, ext. 7408.

I think Concordia's academy experience was awesome and does not need any change. It was practically perfect!
– Jamie Williams; Hastings, Neb.

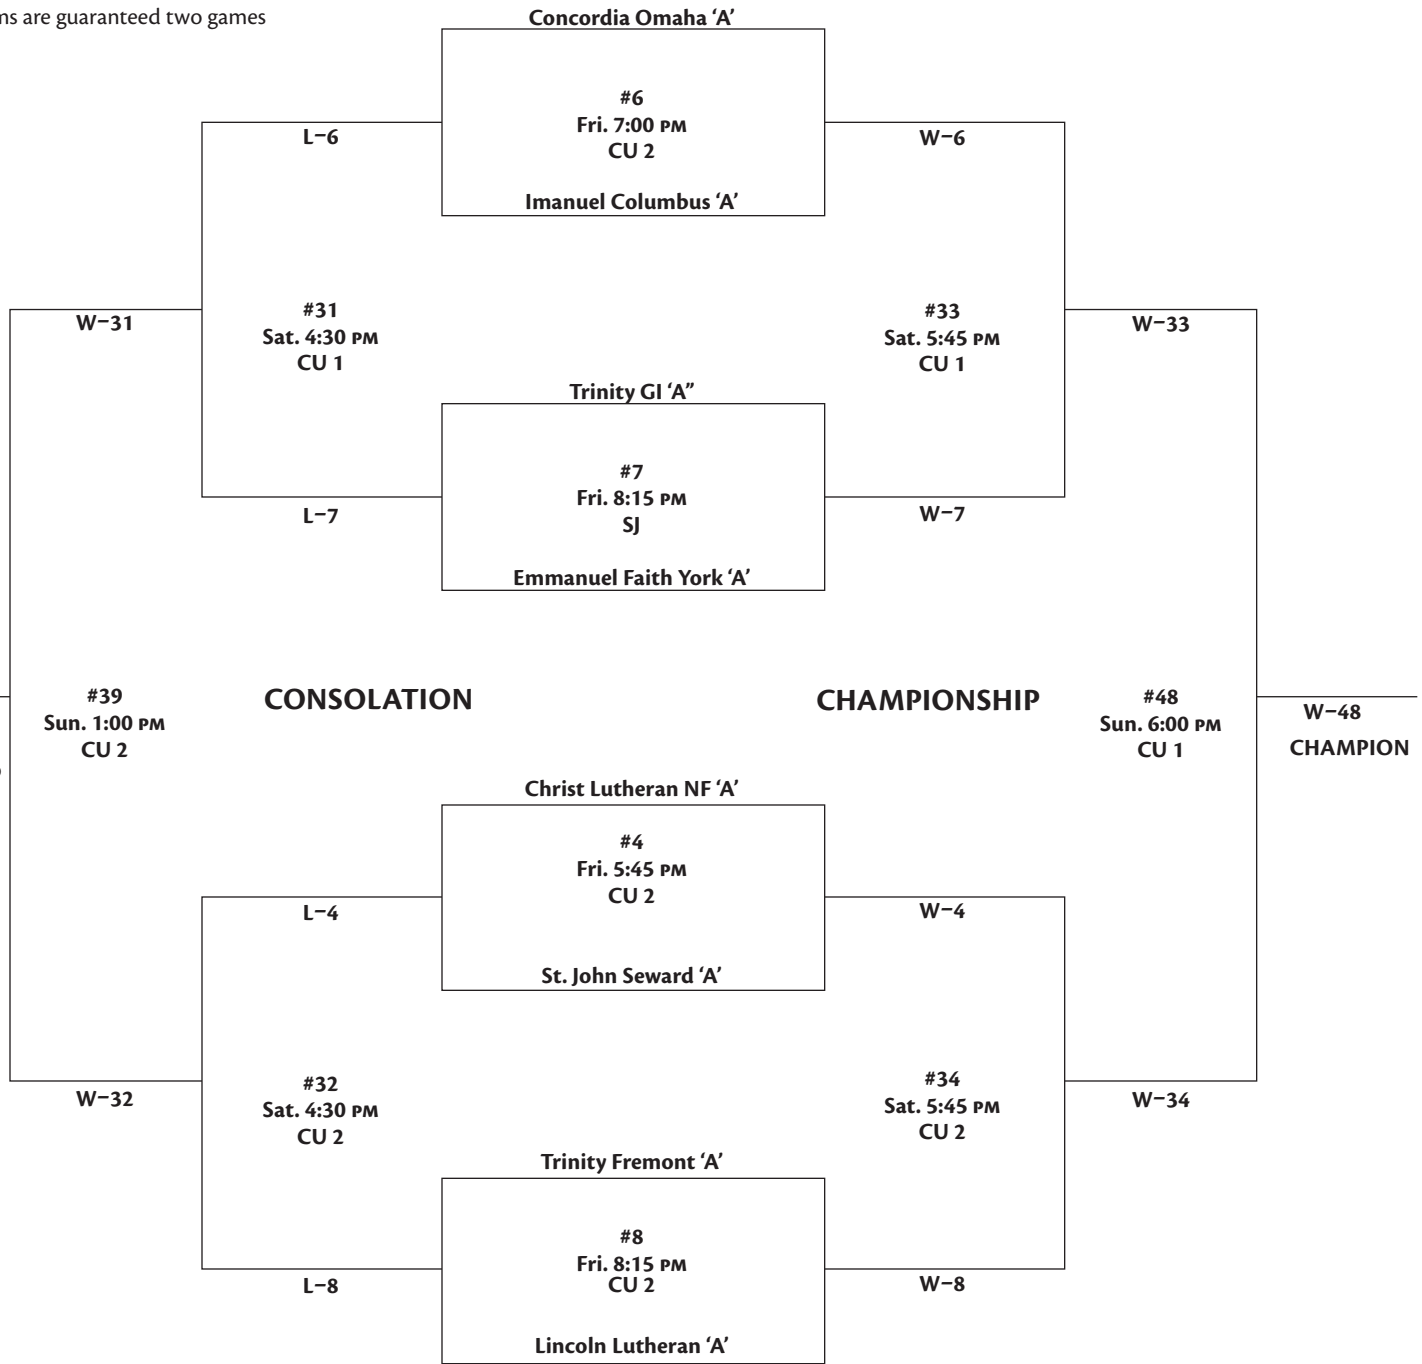

It was a fun opportunity to meet new people and learn in a different way than you are used to.
– Caleb Mueller; Mitchell, S.D.
